CLEANLINESS

On an occasion when John Wesley remarked that "Cleanliness is next to godliness," one of his audience retored "It is also next to impossible." This answer was true, because for the majority of people at that time, the facilities for washing and bathing were very limited.

We to-day expect, as a matter of course, that our homes should be equipped with bathtubs, wash basins and laundry tubs. We expect to turn taps which will supply us with an abundance of pure hot and cold water. These conveniences, which to us are nothing unusual, are comparatively modern. The year 1842 saw the first bathtub installed in North America. The use of the bathtub was frowned upon as it was considered to be evidence of a physical decadence of the people, catering too much to the pleasure-loving side of life. This past attitude might be borne in mind by those who, today, oppose the introduction of physical comforts and labor-saving devices into the home. It was about the same period that one hundred thousand cess-pools were abolished in London, and houses were connected with the common sewers.

There is not nowadays much excuse for us to be dirty. There are still too many houses lacking the facilities for cleanliness which should be provided in every home, but, in general, it may be said that most of us can be clean if we want to be clean.

Cleanliness is important because of its aesthetic value, its effect upon the mental outlook of the person, and because certain forms of cleanliness are of real importance in the prevention of communicable diseases.

A clean skin improves the personal appearance. A clean skin adds to personal comfort and allows the skin to function better as a protective covering and as the heat regulator of the body. Odors arising from an unclean skin are offensive.

A clean body, together with clean clothing, hair that is neat and finger nails that are clean and trimmed, give a sense of well-being and a feeling of self respect, which makes social life more pleasant and is an aid in business contacts.

The washing of the hands before eating or preparing food and after using the toilet is a simple habit which plays an important part in the prevention of the communicable diseases. The added practice of a warm bath at least once a week is one which under ordinary conditions keeps the body reasonably clean.

The inside of the body is kept clean by the use of clean foods and pure liquids, by breathing in fresh air, and by daily elimination, which can be secured through regular habit, diet and exercise.

IN MEMORIAM

WOOD — In loving memory of my dear sister, Bessie, who departed this life April 7th, 1926.

Loved in life, treasured in death;
A beautiful memory is all that's left
—Sister, Maggie.

The cost of a postal note for remitting the lowest sum of money was formerly one cent. It has been increased to three cents.

"He is not here, for He is risen, as He said; come, see the place where the Lord lay." — St. Matthew 28:6.

PROTON STATION

Rev. M. F. Oldham, rector of Trinity church, Proton Station, desires the following notice to be inserted in this column. Divine service will be held in Trinity Anglican church at 10.30 a.m. on Good Friday, April 14th. The entire service and sermon will be in keeping with the day. All families and individuals are invited. The Easter service will be held at 1 p.m. on Easter day, April 16th. The Sunday school will be held at the conclusion of the service. Miss Gertrude Lyons will render a solo at each service and the rector Rev. M. F. Oldham will preach.

The many friends of Mr. Arnold Hergott were shocked and sorry when the message came to Proton Station that one of his injured legs was amputated above the knee. The unfortunate young man is critically ill in Brampton hospital the result of a motorcycle accident.

Mrs. Peter Still of Orangeville was a caller on Proton Station friends on Saturday.

Rev. Robert Patton of Emmanuel College, Toronto, supplied for Mr. Bannister last Sunday and renewed acquaintance with many old friends.

Messrs. Richard Nethercut and T. Kay of Dundalk were visitors at Proton Station on Monday.

ROCK MILLS

There passed away at her home on Friday evening, April 7th, a highly respected neighbor of this community, in the person of Mrs. Ida McDowell, following an illness, which lasted for several months. The funeral took place from her home on Sunday afternoon and was very largely attended, interment being made in Maxwell cemetery. The flowers, which bore message of sympathy, were very beautiful. Rev. Mr. Dean of Feversham had charge of the service and preached a comforting sermon, his text being found in the 5th chapter of St. Matthew and the 6th verse: "Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled." A favorite hymn of the deceaed was sung by Mr. Dean. There are left to mourn one daughter, Mrs. Ray Pedlar, and two sisters, Mrs. Sharpe, of Toronto, Mrs. Deitz at home and three brothers William, Sam and Thos. Phillips, who have our sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Brown of Toronto spent the week end with relatives in the vicinity.

Mr. Thos. Johnston of Kemble visited on Friday with his daughter, Mrs. Joyce Portoeous.

FEVERSHAM

Mrs. Mary Wismer, who has been with her brother, Mr. Henry Coulthard, for the winter has left for Toronto for a visit, before going to her home on the Manitoulin Island.

Mrs. Thomas Monaghan underwent an operation for appendicitis in the G. & M. hospital in Collingwood and is reported to be progressing very favorably.

Miss Mary Speer is under the doctor's care at present. All hope to see her well again soon.

Mr. Guy Kaitting is here from the West on a visit with his sister, Ada, Mrs. George Burk.

There has been a change in the school board here. Mr. Fred Hale resigned from the office of secretary-treasurer and the position has been taken by Mr. Harvey Pedlar.

Mrs. Andrew McGirr is seriously ill at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Wm. Essland, near Rob Roy, at present.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Croft and family of Rock Mills were visitors with Mr and Mrs. Harold Osborne, here, over Sunday.

Presentarion To Couple

A presentation was made recently to Mr. and Mrs. Dan McCannell at their home near Proton Station. About seventy neighbors and friends gathered and presented the newly married couple with a lovely Aladdin lamp. Miss Marguerite Batchelor read the address and Mr. McTaggart made the presentation. The evening was spent in music and dancing and refreshments were served at the close. A most enjoyable evening was spent.

Recently we read that Gandhi is a lawyer. He certainly looks as if a good suit would help him quite a bit.

EUGENIA

Rev. Mr. McNeill preached a fine sermon on Sunday, taking his text from 2d Kings 14: 20-21. Next Sunday the sermon will be appropriate to Easter. We hope there will be a large attendance as usual.

Mr. Jack Large leaves this week for Niagara with prospects of securing a position. We hope he meets with success. Jack will certainly be missed in the village, as he was prominent in social circles and made many friends. Last fall he acted a leading role in the play "Lena Rivers" and played his part in an excellent manner. He has been indulged in Sunday School work this year, being teacher of a class of boys. About two weeks ago he gave the boys a party at the home of Mr. Bert Graham, where a jolly evening was spent in games and music. Lunch and ice cream were served and brought the party to a close. The boys had become very much attached to Jack, who will miss the boys, as much as the boys will miss him.

Mrs. E. Doupe returned this week to Saugeen Jct., after spending the week end with her brotehr, Mr. Joe Hawkins and brother-in-law, Mr. Jos. Sherwood.

Miss Donalda Sloan spent the week end with Flesherton friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Biggar of Owen Sound are spending awhile with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Fenwick, and assisting with the syrup making.

Mr. and Mrs. Card. Graham, Miss Jean Graham and Mr. Bert Graham and children, Frank and Ruth, visited on Sunday with Thornbury friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Benson and family are moving this week to the Cairns farm and Mr. and Mrs. J. Colgan and family are moving to near Saugeen Jct. We wish both families success in their new abode.

Mr. Lorne Carr was a visitor for a couple of days during the latter part of last week with his uncle and aunt Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lawlor, 8th line. We were pleased to have a call from Lorne and his aunt, Mrs. Lawlor, on Friday. They called on their relatives, the Genoe families, and many of his father's old friends, who were delighted to meet him. Lorne, who is 22 years old is a clever and handsome-looking young man. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Carr of Calgary, who have a family of two boys, Jack being the younger son. Lorne said that he enjoyed his little visit in Eugenia very much, but regretted that his father was not here with him. He was also sorry that he had not time to call on more of his father's old friends, but hoped that his next visit would be longer. Lorne has been sold to the New York Rangers, but may be resold before the next hockey season commences. His career began in Calgary, Alta., where his home is, playing junior hockey. He next played with the Vancouver Lions in 1930-1931. Lastly with the Buffalo Bisons for the past two hockey seasons. We were pleased to receive from him as a souvenir a little booklet entitled "The Bisons—Making Hockey History." This little booklet states that "he is a dashing and effective player patrolling the right boards for the Bisons this season. He skates with short quick strides, typical of Western Canada hockey players and shoots with a snap of the wrist which is very deceptive to the goal tenders. He is very often mistaken for Ronnie Martin, who played in the Bisons last year, and is called 'Ronnie's Mirage.' Both have developed the knack of carrying the puck close to their skates thus making it very hard for opposing players to check them. They display uncanny ability to trick defencemen and work their way right in on top of the goalie; they back-check with pep and willingness to help cover up a fellow player caught in the enemy's defence area and they seem full of skate during the full time spent on the ice. We wish Lorne every success in the hockey profession and as his father is an old Eugenia boy we congratulate him on the success of his son.

We are pleased to report Mrs. R. Park and Mrs. Fogg, who have been ill the past week, on the way to recovery.

Mr. Elijah Paul has not been very well the past few days, but we are glad to know that he is recovering.

A meeting of the Circuit Board of Officials of the United Church was held on Monday afternoon in the church here.

A missionary meeting will be held in the church here on Friday afternoon at 3 p.m. Mrs. E. C. Murray of Flesherton will be one of the speakers. Two returned missionaries are also expected to be present and give addresses.

Mr. Guy Kaitting, who is home from the West, visited his brother, Will, and family the past week.

Miss Annie Burritt, R.N. of Flesherton is visiting for a few days at the Kaitting home.

Next Friday is Good Friday—a day that brings back those sad thoughts of "Jesus and the Cross." The topic of the Sunday School lesson on Sunday was "Loyalty to Christ" and those who would become Christians must take the risk of losing his life for the cause of the Kingdom of God.

LADY BANK

Wood bees and maple syrup making (and bad roads) are the order of the times in the community at present.

Mrs. D. Williams and little daughter of Flesherton spent the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Sewell.

Mrs. Percy Semple visited with her sisters, Mrs. Jack Wilson and Mrs. Ran. Hutchinson, of Kimberley.

Mr. Norman Hindle and family of Maple Grove have the sincere sympathy of a large circle of friends in their hour of sorrow and great loss by the death of Mrs. Hindle. May a little gleam of sunshine fall on them and brighten their lonely pathway.

Mrs. Wm. Semple spent a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Graham in the Beaver Valley.

Mr. Jas. Milne of Rock Mills spent a day recently with his daughter, Mrs. Mannie Dobson, here.

The sad news was received by Mrs. Arthur Holroyd of the death of Mrs. Samuel Sommacol of Toronto (nee Hilda McDermid), a niece of Mrs. Holroyd and Mr. Geo. Myers of Flesherton. The deceased lady was born 42 years ago and spent most of her school days in this neighborhood. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband and five small children, along with her aged father. Those who mourn her loss have the sympathy of this community.

The daughter (Mrs. Ray Pedlar) of Portlaw and relatives of the late Mrs. Ida McDowell have the sincere sympathy of friends in their sorrow.

Easter greetings to all.

VICTORIA CORNERS

Rev. Robt. Paton preached to an appreciative congregation at Inistioge.

The Y.P.S. met at the home of Mr. Chas. Moore last week.

Clifford and Winnifred Taylor visited at Collingwood recently.

The spring, unlike the beautiful winter has been dull and backward. A good run of sap is reported for the past couple of days.

MAXWELL

On Friday, April 14th service will be held in St. Mary's church at 3 p.m. Rev. Shannon of Feversham will have charge of the service. On Sunday the Easter service will be held at 4 o'clock and Sunday school at 3 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. McLeod of McIntyre have moved to this neighborhood. We welcome them to our community. They are occupying Mrs. L. Milne's farm.

The W. I. met in the Orange Hall on Friday afternoon, the last day of the sewing course. Miss Petty delivered an interesting and instructive address to all present.

A special Easter service will be held in the United Church next Sunday. Special music is being prepared by the choir and the church will be decorated for the day. Sunday school at 2.30 and church at 7.30 p.m.

We extend our deepest sympathy to the relatives of the late Mrs. McDowell who passed away Friday evening The funeral was held Sunday afternoon, with interment taking place in Maxwell cemetery.

President Roosevelt is to have a new swimming tank at the White House, and if it is deep enough it may be a good place for him to drop some of the war debts of long standing and doubtful value.

In 1918 Germany only had 38 planes capable of flying far enough afield to raid London. Today she has 1,000. France today has 2500 planes, Great Britain 1550, Italy 1100 and the United States 1900.

The worst thing about these jig saw puzzles is they don't solve anything. The ability to solve them does not imply ability; neither does the inability to put the things together prove that one is foolish for trying.

CEYLON

Mrs. Edith Hammond, D. D. G. M. for Grey District O. E. S., of Moorefield and Mrs. Davis and Mr. Kenneth Perkins of Drayton were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Sinclair on Monday and Tuesday.

Mrs. Ben McKenzie returned on Monday from Markdale hospital where she underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mrs. P. Hunt and Miss D. Fisher motored to Owen Sound on Saturday.

Miss Margaret McMullen, Mrs. Ross Leslie, son Orton and daughter, Miss Fern, of Toronto motored up and spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. McMullen.

Miss W. Patterson, Miss D. Patterson, Miss Norton, Mrs. Hare and daughter, Miss Dorothy Hare, Markdale, spent the first of the week with Mr. and Mrs. H. Patterson and called on other friends.

Mr. Percy Hemphill, who spent a few weeks in Toronto returned home.

Mr. Jas. McWhinney visited with his daughter at Proton on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will. Gibson attended the funeral of Mrs. McDowell, which took place to Maxwell cemetery on Sunday.

Mr. J. Plester was taken ill very suddenly on Thursday and was taken to Markdale hospital and operated on for appendicitis on Friday and is doing as well as can be expected.

Miss Blanche Genoe of Owen Sound is visiting at her home here.

Mr. John Burnett of South Line, Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Watson and daughter, Betty, of Priceville were first of the week visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Cameron Smellie.

Mrs. Watson of South Line visited with her daughter, Mrs. Plester, the first of the week.

Choral Concert

A choral concert will be given in St. John's United church, Flesherton, on Friday, April 21st, commencing at 8 o'clock p.m. Knox church choristers of Owen Sound under the leadership of Cyril Moss, F.C.C.O., will provide the program, assisted by the following artists: Mrs. L. Inglis Soprano, Mr. George Lambert, Bariton and supported by an orchestra of 21 pieces. Admission: 25 cents. Don't miss this treat.

That idea of having elections on Sunday would not do at all. That is the day when people organize picnics and play golf.

Motorists who haven't secured 1933 license plates for their cars are advised to keep the old bus in the garage until they do. These licenses cost sufficient without the added cost of a fine in police court.

Plenty of Syrup

The maple syrup season is in full swing now and reports are to the effect that the run is only fair. Mr. Walter Akitt has 2600 trees producing and Mr. W. J. Chard 750 trees. Mr. Akitt has been delivering syrup to Toronto, Owen Sound, Orangeville ad other points and in the past few years has built up quite a wholesale business.

Before folk in Saskatchewan are married they have to produce certificates of health. Our only comment on that is: Why not?
