M. CATACAZY THE "TOLERATED" MINISTER OF RUSSIA.

Our special despatch from St. Petersburg gives ample evidence that M. Constantine Catacazy, the lately "tolerated" Minister of Russia, has not allowed himself to be quietly extinguished by our Premier Fish. On the contrary, the Russian government is in high dudgeon and finds the treatment of its "tolerated" representative very intolerable indeed. Prince Gortchakoff, the imperial Chancellor, whose wrath is aroused at the alleged indignities heaped upon M. Catacazy, has written a note to our Minister at St. Petersburg which is very energetic on that point. He plainly intimates that there are two sides to the story, that Mr Fish's charges are vague, and that several of these charges have already been satisfactorily refuted by M. Catacazy. But the insolent and sarcastic tone of his note is most apparent where he says "he hopes that justice is sufficiently understood in the United States" not to expect the verdict of the Russian government before M. Catacazy presented his case.

If the United States and Russia were not separated by a large sheet of "silver sea" which renders armed hostilities against each other an unprofitable, if not altogether impracticable, business, the matter might take a serious turn, for old Gortchakoff is not in the humour to pocket what he considers a gratuitous insult to Russia; neither are the United States disposed to "tolerate" the insolence of the imperial Chancellor. But the case of M. Catacazy, in the eyes of his government, becomes still stronger by the light of the revelation that, however improper his conduct might have been, he only did the bidding of Prince Gortchakoff, whose instructions he was bound to follow. Here is a curious chapter of diplomacy revealed. Thus it is Prince Gortchakoff who has been snubbed through M. Catacazy. All is fair in diplomacy as in love. Looking at the matter from this standpoint, the Russian government is certainly not wrong in defending the conduct of its representative; but neither was Secretary Fish wrong in refusing to "tolerate" the intermeddling of a foreign Power in the affairs of this country.—N. Y. Herald.

THE BLAKE CABINET.

The Blake-Scott Coalition has given us a one plank platform, not large enough for a whole Reformer to stand upon, but wide enough and strong enough for a Grit-Conservative Coalition, which is now fretting its little hour upon its diminutive stage while big George pulls the strings. The combination is going to extend the suffrage to those having incomes of a certain amount. Now this is a small measure for which to turn out a Ministry, but then it often occurs that large and small are comparative terms. A large thing to a pigmy would be a small thing to a giant. What would be a small thing to William Gladstone would be large to one of Manager George's Marionette. Nearly every married workman has the vote already, and the single ones, if income is to be the qualification, are as well situated in that respect as young professional men and clerks, as a rule, but the student with no income, who is as well qualified to form a judgment and is as honest as either, is still to be despised. This is the only reform that the Marionett propose or promise. They will give a vote to an income, thereby recognizing material and ignoring man. They pretend to trust the people, yet fear the people. We were not admirers of Sandfield's Cabinet. They promised no reforms, and we were not therefore disappointed. They promised economy, and they carried out their programme. We would fain cherish hopes from any combination in which Mackenzie and McKellar are included, but we fear they are in bad hands. When shall we have a body of Reformers worthy of the name? Our answer is, when we have a Press that will enlighten and elevate, and not drag down and deteriorate. "Then let us pray that come it will, as come it must, for 'a that."—Northern (Reform) Journal.

A PROFITABLE DEATH.

Welland County is likely soon to be blessed with a rather peculiar will case, and which must afford to the members of the legal profession some rather nice pickings. For a long series of years a rather eccentric individual named Alexander Simpson has resided on a farm near Port Robinson. Simpson was very penurious, and by denying himself many, if not of all the comforts of life, managed to accumulate real and personal property to the value of between $40,000 and $50,000. The place in which he lives is a small frame dwelling, and it is said has not been swept or garnished for nearly half a century. Simpson was a bachelor, and his health failing him about a year ago he proposed to a young man to come and take care of him, promising that at his death he would devise to the young man all his property. The offer was a tempting one, and the young man at once closed with it, but in two weeks returned home, affirming that he would not remain with the whole man for double all he was worth. He reported that there was but one room in the house, a large fireplace, and that the old man would apply it to all uses, culinary and otherwise. Simpson was a very old man, over eighty, and about a month since became so helpless that he could not be moved except in a sheet. About two weeks since he died, and on opening his will it was found that he had bequeathed $1,000 to the Presbyterian Church at Port Robinson, $500 to the Presbyterian Church at Drummondville, and a similar amount to the Presbyterian Church at Aberdeen, Welland County, one hundred acres of land to Mr Alexander McBracken (brother of the proprietor of the Anglo American Hotel, Hamilton), and the balance of his property to different acquaintances in the neighbourhood, never mentioning the name of a single relative, although there are several in Welland County, Messrs Joseph and William Reovely and Jacob Young being executors. The bulk of the deceased's personal property, we are informed, was and still is in the hands of T. C. Street, Esq., M.P. This gentleman, with the relatives of the deceased, doubt the validity of the will, Mr S. refusing to pay over the money according to the terms of the will, and the latter threatening to bring an action at law to set the will aside, on the ground that Simpson was not in his right mind when he executed the will. If the programme is carried out as indicated the lawyers will certainly find the death of poor old Alexander Simpson a most profitable one.—St. Catharines Journal.

The new Manifesto of the United Kingdom Alliance for the suppression of the Liquor Traffic, shows an extraordinary extent of organization. In October last the Alliance called upon its friends for a fund of £100,000, and three-fourths of that sum have already been guaranteed. The subscription list is astounding. It is headed by three offerings of £5,000 each, and the contributions of £1,000 and upwards are just five times as many.

A Chinaman who had his nose bit off in a fight in San Francisco, had it carefully packed and sent home to show his friends one of the American customs.

One of the very best pictures we have seen is in New Year's Hearth and Home. It represents an elegant young lady holding out a glass of wine to a young gentleman on New Year's day, who half turns away hesitating whether or not to do what he evidently knows to be wrong. His good angel is energetically warning him to refuse, but a mocking, sneering devil stands beside the lady to contend with the good angel.

MORMON MARRIAGES.—A correspondent of the New York Times, writing from Salt Lake City, says: "The most singular and unnatural marriages here are those of men with their wives' mothers. These are not unfrequent. It strikes me this is a seditious plot against immemorial domestic authority, the most ancient court of feminine appeal—that is, an attempt to do away with mothers-in-law. When young wives are taken, the three or four or five do not always become one flesh; there is sometimes rebellion and even hostility on the part of the old wife. Occasionally a husband objects to having even a second wife imposed on him. I heard of one the other day who, though he finally submitted to the command of the imperial Brigham that he should take and provide for a certain poor woman—'a lone, lorn cretur'—declared that he couldn't 'abear her,' and at once put her away on a ranch forty miles from town—pensioned and pastured her out."

CURE FOR COUGH OR COLD.—As soon as there is the slightest uneasiness of the chest, with difficulty of breathing, or indication of cough, take during the day a few of Brown's Bronchial Troches.—Adv.

For a debilitated state of the constitution, brought on by diseases of the bladder, kidneys and the urinary organs, and to counteract organic weakness, dyspepsia, gravel, strangury and female irregularities, administer Helmbold's Buchu, which is a safe and positive cure.—Adv.

This is the season of the year when the system should be thoroughly purged of the humours which create disease. There is no purgative or cathartic so mild and efficacious as Helmbold's Grape Pills, causing neither nauseas nor griping pains—as is the case with the ordinary cheap rascal pills of the day—most of which are composed of calomel or mercury, and carelessly prepared by inexperienced persons. After thoroughly purging the system, use Helmbold's Extract Sarsaparilla, the great Blood-Purifier, and they will insure new life, new blood and renewed vigour. Try them.—Adv.

M. Brown Sequard experimented upon the stiffened arm of an executed criminal, by injecting warm blood into it; the muscles regained their contractility and the nerves their irritability. As the cutting off the blood is paralysis of nerve element, so a deficiency of blood is a cause of degeneration of nerve element. Fellows' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites will cause the formation of healthy blood, and consequently increase nervous power, induce vital activity in debilitated constitutions, and tone all the organs dependent for health on muscular or nervous strength.—Adv.

The importance of giving Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powders to horses that have been out in the cold rain, sleet in cold wind, or drank too much cold water, cannot be over estimated; no man should be without them who owns a good horse.—Adv.

HOTTENTOTS SEEN GATHERING BUCHU LEAVES AT THE CAPE OF GOOD HOPE FOR H. T. HELMBOLD.

BUCHU.

[From Dispensatory of the United States.]

DIOSMA CRENATA—BUCHU LEAVES.

PROPERTIES—Their odour is strong, diffusive and somewhat aromatic; their taste bitterish and analogous to mint.

MEDICAL PROPERTIES AND USES.—Buchu leaves are gently stimulant, with a peculiar tendency to the Urinary Organs.

They are given in complaints of the Urinary Organs, such as Gravel, Chronic Catarrh of the Bladder, Morbid Irritation of the Bladder and Urethra, Disease of the Prostate Gland, and Retention or Incontinence of Urine, from a loss of tone in the parts concerned in its evacuation. The remedy has also been recommended in Dyspepsia, Chronic Rheumatism, Cutaneous Affections and Dropsy.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is used by persons from the ages of 18 to 25, and from 35 to 55, or in the decline or change of life; after Confinement or Labour Pains; Bed-Wetting in children.

In affections peculiar to Females, the Extract Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy, as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous State of the Uterus.

DISEASES OF THE BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL AND DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.—This medicine increases the power of Digestion, and excites the Absorbents into healthy action, by which the Watery or Calcareous Depositions and all Unnatural Enlargements are reduced, as well as pain and inflammation.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu has cured every case of Diabetes in which it has been given. Irritation of the Neck of the Bladder and Inflammation of the Kidneys, Ulceration of the Kidneys and Bladder, Retention of Urine, Diseases of the Prostrate Gland, Stone in the Bladder, Calculus, Gravel, Brick Dust Deposit, and Mucous or Milky Discharges, and for enfeebled and delicate constitutions of both sexes, attended with the following symptoms:—Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Horror of Disease, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Pain in the Back, Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Eruption on the Face, Pallid Countenance, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, &c.

Helmbold's Extract Buchu is Diuretic and Blood-Purifying, and cures all diseases arising from habits of dissipation, excesses and imprudences in life, Impurities of the Blood, etc., superseding Copaiba in affections for which it is used, in connection with Helmbold's Rose Wash.

Beware of counterfeits. Ask for Helmbold's. Take no other. Price $1.25 per bottle, or 6 for $6.50. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Helmbold's Genuine Preparations. Established upwards of 20 years. Prepared by H. T. HELMBOLD, Practical and Analytical Chemist, 594 Broadway, N. Y., and 104 South Tenth Street, Philadelphia, Pa. Sold by Druggists everywhere.

FELLOWS' Compound Syrup of Hypophosphites.

AS ALL LIFE-ENDOWED BODIES, whether they be beasts, birds, reptiles, insects, or even zoophytes and subjects of the vegetable kingdom, are governed by vital force, which binds all the springs of existence; and as nothing can save them from destruction when this principle leaves them, the discovery of means whereby vitality may be sustained in the living body is indeed a boon to the world.

Modern chemistry has ventilated the question and discovered the ingredients constituting the brain, muscles and nerves, and finds that by introducing these ingredients in proper proportions the brain and nervous system are strengthened.

This, then, is substantially the basis on which Fellows' Hypophosphites is built; its direct action is upon the blood, the brain and nervous system, and the muscles. Strengthening the nerves, it causes the rapid distribution of vitalized blood in the muscular organs of the body.

Rousing the sluggish heart and liver, strengthening the action of the stomach and bowels, and enabling the lungs to be fully inflated with oxygen.

It is adapted for all cases of weakness and emaciation, whether arising from a sedentary life, a tropical climate, from fever or debility, from any cause, and is efficacious in pulmonary consumption, many confirmed cases having been cured, and all benefited, where its use has been continued over a fortnight.

In bronchitis it is a specific, and in asthma it gives relief where every other remedy fails.

For nervous debility it stands unrivalled and may be used with confidence in all cases.

As this is entirely distinct and different from every other preparation of Hypophosphites, be careful to ask for Fellows' Syrup, and take no other.

Sold by Apothecaries. Price $1 50; six for $7 50.
