The Flesherton Advance.

Vol. 52; No. 48 FLESHERTON, MAY 10, 1933 W. H. Thurston & Son, Proprietors

FEVERSHAM

DEAN — DYCE

A qiet but vretty wedding was solemnized at eleven o'clock on Wednesday, May 3rd, at the parsonage of the Gospel Workers' church, Clarksburg, when Miss Myrtle C. Dyce of Meaford was united in marriage to Rev. F. W. Dean of this village. Rev. F. D. Goff of Clarksburg and Rev. A. E. Armstrong of Meaford officiated. The happy couple have taken pp their residence in the parsonage here and are welcomed by the villagers, their hosts of friends wishing them a long happy and prosperous journey together through life. Rev. Dean has been pastor of the Gospel Workers' church here for some time and now has taken a life partner. Congratulations.

MRS. WM. MULLIN

A good number of friends and neighbors gathered on Saturday afternoon to pay their last respects to another old resident, Mrs. William Mullin, who passed away on Thursday of last week, at her home here at the age of 82 years. Rev. Shannon officiated at the church service and grave, and based his remarks on the words "Them that are asleep," 1st Thessalonians 4: 13. He was assisted by Rev. F. Dean of the Gospel Workers' church. The remains were laid to rest in the family plot in the Presbyterian cemetery. Her husband and son,, Lee, predeceased her some years ago. One son, Edward, is left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving mother and has patiently attended her through her long illness. At the church service Rev. and Mrs. E. Dean sang a beautiful duet. "It won't be long; it may be soon."

The pallbearers were six of her pupils when she taught school near here some years ago, namely: Messrs. E. Robinson, J. Poole, J. Barber, C. Thomson, John Speer and Jas. Thomson.

It will be necessary for the Trustees of our school to call a special meeting of the ratepayers of the section, as we understand that one of the trustees has resigned, as well as two of the teachers.

We are glad to report that Mrs. Wilbert Poole, who has been in the Collingwood hospital, has returned home and is somewhat improved in health. Her many friends are hoping for her complete recovery soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Eby of Collingwood spent Sunday with the former's parents here.

BORN—On Sunday, May 7th, 1933, to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Osborne, a daughter.

Mrs. James Brownlee of Collingwood is visiting with her brother, Mr. H. Alexander, and family here.

Mrs. Alexander, Mrs. Jas. Brownlee and Mr. H. McKee visited with the former's daughter, Mrs. Will Colquette, and family in Owen Sound last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Alexander and daughter, Jean, were visitors here last week.

Mr. Milton Nicholl is visiting with his sister and family in Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Forsythe and children of Owen Sound spent the week end with Mrs. Forsythe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eby, here.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Walters and son, Alex., visited with Mr. and Mrs. Chris. Thomson over the week end.

Rev. F. W. Dean preached a very interesting sermon on Sunday morning on "The Beauty of the Lord," Psalm 27: 4. A duet, "The Old Olive Tree," by Rev. and Mrs. Dean, was enjoyed by all.

A Toronto man claims to be the first person to be stung by a wasp this year. He can have the same distinction in 1934 as far as Flesherton is concerned.

St.Mary's Anglican Church

MAXWELL

Rector, Rev. Maurice F. Oldham.

MOTHER'S SUNDAY, MAY 14th

Sunday school at 10 a.m. and divine service at 11 a.m. on Sunday, May 21st. Meeting of Sunday school executive of Osprey township at 8 p.m. on Friday, May 19th.

TRINITY CHURCH, PROTON STA.

2 p.m. — Sunday school and Bible class.

3 p.m. — Evening prayer, Holy Communion and sermon.

"Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised." Proverbs 31: 30.

VANDELEUR

A shower was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boland on Friday evening of last week in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Shaw, who were recently married. The bride received many useful and valuable gifts and an enjoyable evening was spent by all present. The many friends of the young couple wish them a happy and prosperous journey through life.

At the last Young People's meeting Miss May Graham gave a good paper on the subject of "song." Wilma Cargoe gave out the hymns and Violet Fitzsimmons read the lesson. Mrs. Will. Hutchinson and Miss Lillian Buchanan had charge of the recreational program.

The Ladies' Aid held their May meeting at the home of Mrs. Lundy Johnson on Wednesday afternoon of last week, when a good program was provided. Some arrangements were made for the Sunday school convention which is to be held in Vandeleur church early in June.

Miss Winnie Graham and Miss Lee of Listowel spent the week end at the former's home here.

Miss Dorothy Hare of Markdale spent the week end with friends here.

Mr. H. I. Graham delivered a good Shorthorn calf to a breeder near Holstein recently.

The Sunday school opened on Sunday afternoon for the summer months with a fairly good attendance. The Go-to-Sunday-School-Day program will be used next Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Davidson has returned after spending some time in Owen Sound.

A meeting was held at the home of Mr. Elmer Warling on Wednesday evening of last week when a baseball team was organized. The following are the officers: President, H. I. Graham; vice-pres., H. McGee; sec.-treas., H. Thompson; manager, E. Warling; captain, Reg. Hutton.

PRICEVILLE

Russell McArthur, 4 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie McArthur, North Line, died on Saturday afternoon. He has never been strong and the past week his condition became grave and he grew weaker. The funeral was held on Monday afternoon, service being held at the home, with Rev. Dr. McIvor preaching a comforting sermon. The little white casket was carried by four pallbearers, Stewart Carson, Murray McMillan, Chas. Kennedy and Chas. Aldcorn. Interment was made in Priceville cemetery. Besides his parents he leaves to mourn two brothers, Lorne and John, and one sister, Kathleen. A little brother predeceased him last fall at a tender age. Much sympathy is extended to the family.

Born on Thursday, May 3rd, to Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLachlan a son.

Died on Friday afternoon the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Angus McLachlan. A short service was held on Saturday morning at the house. Rev. Dr. McIvor preached a comforting message to the sorrowing ones.

He was a flower too fair for earth
Sent here but for a while,
God marked it when he gave it birth
And took it with a smile.

Mr. Neil McLean is busy drawing the brick for the new church from near Caledon.

Next Sunday is Mothers Day and a special message will be given by the pastor, Rev. Dr. MacIvor on the subject, "The Sensible Mother." The Sunday school will join in the service instead of having their service at 10 a.m. and a special program will be observed. In the evening the subject will be "The World Leaders."

Misses Almeda and Jean Hincks spent the week end with their sisters, Mrs. Chas. Tucker and Mrs. Stanley Harrison.

There are a number of people sick: Miss McPhail is sick and Miss Edna McCallum, R. N., Flesherton, and Dr. Milne are in attendance and her sister, Mrs. McDermid, South Line, is also ill. Nurse Burritt is in attendance. We wish all a speedy recovery.

Read the Small Advertisements

EYE SPECIALIST COMING

J. G. Russell, R. O., will be at Armstrong's Jewellery store, May 29, 30, 31. Anyone wishing to have their eyes examined, lenses changed, or new frames fitted be sure to come in and see Dr. Russell.

CEYLON

JOHN PLESTER DIES

There passed away at the Markdale hospital, Thursday, May 4th, at 8.30 a.m. John Plester, who on April 6th was suddenly stricken with appendicitis and rushed to the hospital where he at once was operated on and found in a very serious condition with little hope held for his recovery, although he put up a gallant fight for life, but the end came quietly on Thursday morning. He was a son of Mrs. Plester and the late John Plester and was born in Egremont township near Hopeville and was in his 42nd year, receiving his public school education in Egremont school section No. 11. He was married to Martha Watson of Proton on Dec. 18th, 1912. About four years ago they moved to Ceylon to the farm they now occupy. He was also agent for implements of the International Harvester Co. of Hamilton. The funeral took place on Saturday afternoon to the Flesherton cemetery. Rev. Mr. Scott had charge of the service, which was held at the home, giving comforting messages to the bereaved. The casket was covered with beautiful floral offerings of sympathy, one being from the Flesherton L. O. L.

He leaves to mourn his loss his sorrowing wife and seven children: Robert, Carlotta, Emerson, Earl, Delbert, Dorothy and Carman, besides his aged mother, four brothers and three sisters: Charles of Falcon, Alta., James of Trail, B.C., George of Hopeville, Mrs. Mathews (Amelia), Berkley; Mrs. Sageman (Maggie) Proton Centre and Mrs. Ellis (Sarah) of Dundalk. His mother lives at Hopeville.

The pallbearers were Messrs. Roy Piper, Thos. Stewart, Bert Burrel, Ed. Dingwall, Joe White and Thos. White. The funeral was largely attended. The community extends its deepest sympathy to the bereaved family and sorrowing relatives.

Mrs. White received a telephone message this Tuesday morning that her son, Earl, had passed away from heart trouble. He was 22 years of age. It is expected the body will arrive this Tuesday evening. The funeral is to be held this Thursday afternoon at 2 p.m. with interment taking place in Flesherton cemetery.

Miss Bella Kennedy is visiting her nephew, Mr. Robert Rutledge, and family at Holland Centre.

Mr. Schramm and family are now comfortably settled on the McPhearson farm, which he has rented.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McDonald and daughter, Miss Isobel and Mr. F. D. Cairns of Weston were week end visitors with the latter's sons and their families.

Mrs. Hutchinson of Toronto has taken a position as house keeper with Mr. T. Fletcher.

Mr. Clarence Marshall of near Roderick spent the week end with his parents.

Mr. S. Hemphill and family attended the funeral of a relative at Feversham on Saturday, another relative was also buried at Stayner on Saturday.

Miss Agnes Macphail, M. P., arrived home Friday from duties at Ottawa.

Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Cook of Ebrodale were callers on M. Cook the first of the week.

Mr. Ross McMullen, who has been visiting his parents returned to Toronto on Saturday.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Macphail, April 26th, with 28 ladies present. The meeting was opened by singing of hymn "All the way My Saviour leads Me," followed by Lords Prayer in unison. The president read a selection from Pilgrims Progress. Roll call was answered by my favorite flower, minutes of March meeting were read and adopted. Mrs. Earl McLeod gave a very interesting and instructive talk on "a beautiful and inexpensive flower garden"; Mrs. Snell gave a humorous reading "How to beat the depression." Mrs. F. D. Cairns invited the May meeting to her home. The meeting was closed with hymn "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," followed by Mizpah benediction. Lunch was then served and a social hour spent in chat.

On May 14th the Sabbath school will celebrate Mothers Day at 2.30 p.m., when a splendid program will be given by the scholars. There will be a mothers' choir and it is hoped everybody will attend this service.

Read the Small Advertisements

KIMBERLEY

A meeting of the Library Board was held at the home of Mrs. Proctor.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Cook and family of Walters Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Otto Baker and children of Vandeleur visited with Mrs. Ferguson and sons on Sunday.

Mrs. A. Andrew, Mrs. A. E. Myles and Mr. Carl Carruthers spent a few days with friends in Toronto.

The W. I. met on Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Soule and plans were discussed for the 3rd of June. A committee was appointed to see about a play from outside.

Officers elected for the Poultry Association are: F. J. Weber, president; Saul Fawcett, Secretary; M. Hutchinson, Treasurer; Norman Burritt, show manager. A number of special prizes have already been offered.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Proctor and family spent a day with Mrs. G. Proctor.

Mrs. W. T Ellis visited for a few days with Mr. and Mrs. V. Ellis and Stuart in Collingwood.

Messrs. Stuart and Ellis put out a fine herd of cattle on their pasture here this week.

Nearly everyone in the Valley has new rhubarb these days. If we had not the high sugar tax more of it might be eaten. It is a real harship for a great many families.

A number of the boys have caught record fish already this season. Laurie Lawrence won second prize in the Owen Sound contest, and also caught another one the same weight —31½ ounces—a few days later.

The Entrance class of eight from our shcool is putting in long hours and hard work these days, preparing for examinations.

Mrs. Frank Chard is visiting with her daughter at Rock Mills at present.

MAXWELL

The United church will observe Mother's Day with special services at 7.30 p.m. next Sunday. A choir of ladies will be in attendance.

The annual meeting of the Guild of St. Mary's Anglican church will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. Lawlor on Thursday, May 18th at 2 p.m. All members are especially requested to be present.

Miss Margaret Tozer of Toronto is the guest of Mr. Robt. Priestly Sr.

Mrs. Geo. Long and children of Hopeville visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Wilbert Poole has returned from Collingwood, where she has been taking treatment at the G. and M. hospital there. We are pleased to report her condition somewhat improved.

Miss Marion Hawton was the week end guest of her sister, Mrs. Joseph Wright.

PORTLAW

The death of Mrs. Wm. Blackburn, which took place on Thursday last at her home in Stayner, has cast a gloom over this community. Deceased sustained a fracture of her hip bone by falling down stairs and the shock proved more than her nervous system could stand. She was the eldest daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Thompson, pioneers of this neighborhood and spent her girlhood days here on the old Thompson homestead. Besides her sorrowing husband, who was also a resident of this part before marriage, she leaves to mourn her loss one married daughter and three brothers and two sisters, all of whom have the sympathy of their many friends here. The funeral took place on Saturday last, a number of friends of this part attending.

Our sympathy goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chard in the death of their little daughter, Evelyn Phyllis, which occurred last week in a Toronto hospital.

Mothers' Day will be observed next Sunday by Mount Zion Sunday school and congregation. The pastor, Rev. McNeil, will give an illustrated discourse. A choir of mothers will have charge of the musical part and altogether a very interesting service is anticipated.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordon of Toronto visited with their daughter, Mrs. Walter Nuen.

CARD OF THANKS

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Chard wish to thank their friends and neighbors and the Rock Mills Ladies' Aid for flowers and sympathy extended to them on their recent bereavement.

EUGENIA

Don't forget that next Sunday is "Mother's Day" in the church here. The church and Sunday school will unite in the service which will be given in the morning. The service will be appropriate for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes. Smith and children of Rock Mills visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Court. Smith.

Mrs. Edgar Betts visited over the week end with friends in Toronto.

A foot ball match between the married and single men of this community on Saturday evening resulted in a score of 2-0 in favor of the married men.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Purvis and family of Toronto visited at the former's parental home over the week end.

We congratulate Mr. Russel Cameron, M.A., B.A., on his success. He is now performing the duties of house doctor in a Toronto hospital as well as taking up his studies in the University.

Miss Marjorie Benson of the 12th line spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will. Benson.

Dr. Milne administered the diphtheria antitoxin to some of the children in the school section here on Friday last.

Dr. A. Leon Hatzan, author, of Niagara Falls, Ontario, visited on Sunday at the home of Mr. Jake Williams. Mr. Hatzan was a former Methodist minister and preached at one time in our village. He is now a doctor and an author. His latest and greatest book is entitled "Mam'selle L'ange Vox," (the Lady with the Angel Voice.)

Messrs. John and Will. Fenwick of Toronto, the latter's daughter, Miss Sadie, and gentleman friend, Mr. Clark, Mr. Arthur Harrel and brother Andrew and Mr. Stanley Carleton, all of Toronto; Mr. Alex. Thauburne of Orillia, also Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Biggar and Miss Muriel Fenwick of Owen Sound were week end visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Fenwick and family. The members of the Fenwick families also called on Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Williams.

Mr. Ross Lehman and son, Master Hedley, also Miss Hilda Williams of Toronto visited the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Williams on Sunday. Mrs. Lehman returned home with them.

The Sunday school attendance was 64 on Sunday. The teachers are Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Cameron, Mrs. L. Latimer, Mrs. Morgan, Mrs. Martin, Miss Georgina Smith and Mrs. Bert Graham. Mr. Cameron has the young boys class at present. Mr. Jack Large had the class before he went away.

Mr. Will. Davies of Toronto spent a couple of days at Fairview Villa, returning home Sunday accompanied by his wife, who has been with her mother, Mrs. Williams, who is yet quite ill.

We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Les. Chard of Rock Mills in the loss of their infant daughter.

Mrs. Chard and her sister, Mrs. Thompson of Singhampton spent the week end with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lawlor.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson and family of Kimberley spent Sunday with Mrs. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. R. McMillan.

Mrs. Jaspar Stuart and children of Meaford spent Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Bert Graham.

Miss Georgina Smith had the misfortune to accidentally cut her foot recently, but we are glad to know that her foot is almost better again.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Pedlar of Wareham visited one day recently with Mr. Robt. Plantt.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Leppard and Mr. R. Park spent a day with the former's brother, Mr. Jos. Leppard, Beaverdale, and the former's daughter, Mrs. Rody Gordon and children.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Plantt, Bernice and Chester, of Wareham visited recently with the former's father, Mr. Robt. Plantt.

ROCK MILLS

Our sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Les. Chard in their bereavement by the death of their infant daughter.

Miss Ruby White of Markdale spent the week end with her mother and brothers here.

Mr. George Park of Eugenia called on his old friend, Mr. Wm. Pedlar, one day recently.

Mr. Robt. Lee of Owen Sound called on relatives here recently.

Miss Ita Pedlar of Markdale was a week end visitor at her home here.

Arbor Day was held at our school on Friday, when the children did the usual cleaning of the school and yard. Afterwards their teacher, Miss Oliver, treated all to delicious home-made candy and cocoanuts, which were much enjoyed.

Master Bob Meldrum of Portlaw spent the week end with his cousin, Jim Pedlar.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to sincerely thank the many friends and neighbors for sympathy extended and kindness shown during the illness and death of a beloved husband and father, John Plester.

Mrs. John Plester and Family.

Try a "Small Advt."

BATES BURIAL CO'Y

124 Avenue Road Toronto

DISTINCTIVE FUNERAL SERVICE AT REASONABLE PRICES

PHONES: NIGHT OR DAY— KIngsdale 4344—3456

Modern Private Chapel

J. W. Bates Fred Maddocks Richard Maddocks, Manager

Formerly of Flesherton

"The House of Quality"

SPECIALS

MULTIPLIER ONIONS ..... per lb. 4c

DUTCH SETT ONIONS ..... per lb. 10c

TOMATOE JUICE PER TIN 5c

SOAP CHIPS PER LB. 7c

Flour and Feed

RED CLOVER MAM. CLOVER ALSIKE

ALFALFA TIMOTHY SWEET CLOVER

Purina All Mash Startena for Baby Chicks

JAS. A. STEWART

FLESHERTON