An Enjoyable Family Pic-nic on Saturday

Several Generations of the Moores and Connections Gather at Limehouse.

AND SPENT A HAPPY DAY TOGETHER

The visit of Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Moore and family, of Athens, Ohio, Dr. George E. Moore, of Frankfort, Ind., and Mrs. Jennie Kannawin, of Los Angeles, Cal., was made the occasion of a delightful family re-union last Saturday. Limehouse being the home of the above members of the family—when they left the parental fireside to go into the world, that interesting headquarters of the Toronto Lime Company was chosen as the rendezvous for the happy gathering, and the home and spacious lawns of Mr. and Mrs. William Gowdy were with characteristic hospitality, placed at the disposal of the company for the occasion.

Between fifty and sixty of the third, fourth and fifth generation of the family of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Moore, who settled in Acton seventy-five years ago, were present with their connections. Mrs. Thos. Gowdy, Guelph, is the only member of the second generation surviving, and she is sojourning in her summer home at Guelph Bay, Muskoka. However, members of two generations of her family were in attendance.

The following were present and signed the register:

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Moore, and Miss Jennie, of Athens, Ohio, and their daughter and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Gillette, of Columbus, Ohio. Dr. George E. Moore, of Frankfort, Ind.

Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Moore, Arthur and Lois, Mrs. Jennie Brown, Mrs. Moore's mother, of Toronto.

Mrs. Jennie Kannawin, Los Angles, Cal.

Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Moore, Acton, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Moore and Josselyn, Toronto.

Mr. R. H. Moore and his son, Ernest, Toronto.

Mrs. H. T. Lepage, Toronto, and her daughters, Miss Dollie and Mrs. Rosalie Collett, and her sons, Jimmie and Herbert.

Mrs. James Moore and Miss Clara, of Acton, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Funk, of Toronto.

Mrs. I. Baker, and her daughter, Miss Doris Rowe.

Ex-Mayor and Mrs. John Kennedy, Guelph, their son Mr. Thomas Kennedy and his wife and son John, and their daughter Dorothy and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Godfrey Smith.

Dr. J. H. Reynolds, President of the Ontario Agricultural College, Guelph

Mr. and Mrs. William Gowdy, and their son, Douglas of the Toronto teaching staff, Limehouse, and the following warm friends of the family:

Mrs. K. T. Galbraith, Guelph.

Mr. Douglas Creighton, Toronto.

Miss Tena Lindsay, Georgetown.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Darragh and Norman, and Miss Barbara Lindsay, Toronto.

The day was delightfully spent in social intercourse in the recalling of interesting incidents and anecdotes of past years, in games on the lawn, made in the parlors, expeditions to the woodlands, over the rocks, into the famous caves, and in calling upon old friends and neighbors of days long since passed.

The pic-nic dinner and tea on the lawn were naturally features of united interest. The menu was all that any appetite could crave and ample justice was done to the tempting viands provided, from the meats and salads, the cakes and pastry, down to the cooling teas and the confections.

Before rising from the evening repast, H. P. Moore, Police Magistrate, Acton, the oldest direct representative of the Moore family present, was requested to convey the thanks of the large company who had enjoyed so fully the day's proceedings, to Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy and Douglas for their whole-hearted hospitality, and the comfortable arrangements they had made for the historical occasion. Mr. Moore spoke of the fathers and mothers of the family and the love and esteem in which their memories are held by all, of the rich heritage of character example and service they left behind them; of the going out into the world of their children, the successes which they had achieved and the happy homes and families which in turn now surround them, and of incidents in the lives and experiences of the days when in the childhood dawns.

Ex-Mayor Kennedy endorsed the words spoken and enriched with fitting words the expressions relative to the hospitality which all present had so fully enjoyed at the hands of Mr. and Mrs. Gowdy and their splendid son.

Mr. Charlie Moore and Dr. George Moore, in feeling words endorsed the expressions of appreciation and told of the immense pleasure and interest afforded them of meeting so many assembled members of the family and friends on this occasion of their visit to the old home. Mrs. Charles Moore also added in fitting terms the joy it had given her and her family to meet so many Canadian relatives who were dear to them.

Mr. H. P. Moore, who was in an extremely reminiscent mood, told interesting boyhood tales of happy days spent in Limehouse with his cousins many years ago, rounded with feeling effect a parody of James Whitcomb Riley's inhabitable poem, "Out to Old Aunt Mary's," which he renamed, "Down to Dear Aunt Jennie's."

In the twilight moments as the shades of evening were stealing around impressive good-byes were spoken, wishes for God-speed expressed and the company dispersed by motor and train to return to the everyday duties of life's imperative call.

DRURY'S ACTION APPROVED

At a Lively Debate at Trafalgar Farmers' Club Last Week

There was a lively discussion at the meeting of the Postville Farmers' Club on Monday evening, when the hall was crowded to hear the debate on the merits of Premier Drury's action in appointing a commission to investigate Hydro radial matters.

Those backing the government's move word Comm. Geo. H. King and A. C. Ryan, while those opposing were Albert McMurray and W. J. Plenty.

A host of arguments were advanced on both sides, but the final result was that the judges found the government backers had produced the stronger points, and this meant the endorsement of the Drury investigation. The judges were A. D. McNabb, of Milton, Dewart Fleming and A. G. Farrow.

Must be No Dumping on Park Grass

Inconsiderate and careless citizens cause town officials a good deal of trouble by the manner in which they distribute refuse papers, ashes, etc., on the park greensward, where provision is made for dumping. Notice has been given that hereafter all rubbish must be dumped with the lines marked or trouble will ensue.

Tall Corn and Long Pea Vines

Mr. Thos. Rogerson, lot 24, fourth line, Esquesing, brought a fine sample of fodder corn to the Free Press on Tuesday. The stock measures 10 feet 7 inches. He also brought in a pea vine, fairly well covered with pods, which measures 5 feet 6 inches. These samples have been on exhibition in the Free Press windows and have attracted many admirers of these excellent specimens.

Attempted Burglary at Guelph Station

The burglars who spent a busy time in Guelph over the week end, it was learned Tuesday, also made an attempt to enter the Grand Trunk Station, but after breaking a section of the window sill in an effort to gain an entrance through a window near the smoking room, they were frightened away by the night watchman, who arrival on the scene before they had succeeded in raising the window. A thorough search was made for the thieves in the vicinity of the station immediately following the attempt, but no trace of the culprits could be found.—Guelph Mercury.

Changes at Speedwell Hospital

Another important change went into effect at Speedwell Hospital on Monday, when Dr. McMurrugh, of Toronto, took over the duties of medical superintendent, succeeding Dr. G. N. Urie, who is at present taking some holidays. There are rumors that Dr. Urie will not return to Speedwell, but they are not confirmed. Another new member of the medical staff is Dr. Carney, who has been transferred from Bryon Sanitarium, and another physician is to be appointed soon. They will take the places of Drs. Dunnings and Heath, who recently severed their connection with the institution. This constituted almost an entirely new medical staff at the hospital.

An Electric Iceless Refrigerator

A new refrigerator plant has just been installed in the Tannery Co-operative Store which is unique, effective and interesting. It is an iceless system, operated with an electric motor, with a circulation of chemically charged water which supplies the cooling properties. The ingenious new system is practically automatic. When a temperature of about 42 degrees is reached the motor is automatically cut off. The expense of handling ice necessary for a large refrigerator is eliminated and the new system is a great relief from constant and heavy work. The system was installed by Mr. Fred Grewson, one of the Beardmore Company's electrician's and reflects credit upon his skill and workmanship.

Interpretation of the Sprowl-Wills

Re estate of John Sprowl, re estate of Jane Sprowl, H. N. Farmer, Acton, for executors, moved for order construing wills. L. M. Goetz, Guelph, for residuary legatees under the husband's will. H. S. White for the Presbyterian Church at Mansewood. This case was heard before Justice Rutherland at Osgoode Hall, Toronto, last week. Judgement: I am of the opinion that under the circumstances the money in question must be regarded as the second $400 payable under the said mortgage, and in consequence of its term payable to the executors of Jane Sprowl after her death. This being so, the bequest in her will in favor of the United Presbyterian Church at Mansewood, must be given effect to, and the $400 made payable to the trustees thereof. Costs of motion to all parties, will be payable thereout. This case is of considerable local interest. The executors of the will of the late Mrs. Jane Sprowl, Messrs. C. C. Henderson and H. Y. Morris, had already paid over to the trustees of the Mansewood Church, the amount of the bequest.

The matter was referred to the chairman of the Fire and Light Committee, Mr. Leishman, and the electrician and Mr. Benton were assured a light would be put up as soon as possible.

Mr. R. L. Gregory wished the Council to give consent to his renting the Havill property on Mill Street for a creamery. No action was taken until it can be ascertained if this business would be detrimental on the main thoroughfare of the town.

Mr. Redfern had a sample of a Leeds water motor which he approved of for Acton, but the Clerk was instructed to write to a number of cities for the merits and disadvantages of various other makes of motors before any make is adopted.

Council adjourned at 11.30 p. m.

In Memoriam

MRS. GIDEON AWREY

There was laid to rest in the Methodist Cemetery, Milnsea, on Tuesday, July 27, another old land mark, in the person of Mrs. Gideon Awrey, mother of Henry Awrey, Acton, in her eighty-second year. Mrs. Awrey was born in the township of Nassagaweya, on the fifth of February, in the year 1839, she being one of a family of nine, there being six boys and three girls. On Sept. 5, in the year 1854, Margaret Reed became the wife of Gideon Awrey, and along with Mr. Awrey's father and mother, resided on the old Awrey homestead in Erin. After 33 years of married life on the old farm, Mr. and Mrs. Gideon Awrey moved to Fergus, and there together spent the well-earned rest of almost 30 years. On January 25, 1917, Mr. Awrey died, and Mrs. Awrey, feeling the infirmities of age, sold her home in Fergus and had been living with her children, and it was while staying at her daughter's home, Mrs. Wm. Bunley, Guelph, that she was stricken with a paralytic stroke, and passed away on Sunday, July 25. Mrs. Awrey was a faithful member of the Methodist Church, and leaves behind sight of a family, all of whom are living, also 33 grandchildren and 35 great grandchildren. SATURDAY'S BASE BALL MATCH

Acton Defeats Guelph in an Interesting Match in the Park

On Saturday the ball club put on a game with a team from Guelph and defeated them with a score of 4 to 3. Six Months for Selling Liquor

Jago Emilo, who resides at 95 Morris Street, appeared before Magistrate Watt Tuesday, charged with selling liquor unlawfully and against the provisions of the O. T. A., on Saturday last. He pleaded not guilty, but the evidence went to prove that Jago and his wife sold liquor to two men on that date. As he was convicted of the same offence on July 24, the magistrate did not give him the option of a fine, but sentenced him to six months in jail. Mr. Goetz was counsel for the accused, while Mr. Jeffrey conducted the prosecution.—Guelph Herald.
