TUESDAY EVEN'G, DEC. 26, 1876.

A CHRISTMAS CAROL.

BY CHARLES DICKENS.

I care not for Spring, on his fickle wing
Let the blossoms and buds be borne;
He woos them again with his treacherous rain
And he scatters them 'ere the morn.
An inconsistent elf, he knows not himself,
Nor his own changing mind an hour;
He'll smile in your face, and with wry grimace,
He'll wither your youngest flower.

Let the summer sun to his bright home run,
He shall never be sought by me;
When he's dimmed by a cloud I can laugh aloud
And care not how sulky he be!
For his darling child is the madness wild,
That sports in fierce fever's train,
And where love is too strong it don't last long
As many have found to their pain.

A mild harvest night by the tranquil light
Of the modest and gentle moon,
Has a far sweeter sheen for me I ween
Than the broad and unblushing noon.
But every leaf awaketh my grief,
As it lieth beneath the tree;
And let Autumn air be never so fair,
It by no means agrees with me.

But my song I trol out for Christmas stout
The hearty, the true and the bold.
My voice will raise in blessings and praise,
Give three cheers for this Christmas old!
We'll usher him in with a merry din
That shall gladden his joyous heart,
And we'll keep him up, we'll make there's a bite or sup
And in fellowship good, we'll part

In his fine honest pride, he scorns to hide,
One jot of his hard won honest scars;
But they're no disgrace, for there's much the same trace,
On the cheeks of the bravest tars.
Then again I'll sing, 'till the roof doth ring
And it echoes from wall to wall,
To the stout old weight, fair welcome to night
As the King of the seasons all!

GOOD SOLES.—Mr. John Laidlaw, of Toronto, who was one of the superintendent in the Main Building Philadelphia, reports having sold, since the close of the Exhibition, the whole of Messrs. Mills & Hutchinson's (Montreal) exhibits, consisting of fine tweeds, cashmeres, and woolen clothes; the Hamilton & Strathroy Company's knitted goods; Alex. Sutherland (Kingston), boots and shoe exhibits of the Sussex Company, of St. John. The firm who purchased this lot of Canadian goods is one of the largest in the United States, if not in the world, Wanamaker & Co. who have three large establishments in Philadelphia. —Journal of Commerce.

WHAT NEXT!

A CONSUMPTIVE CURED.—When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H James was experimenting, he accidentally made a preparation of Indian Hemp, which cured his only child of consumption. He now gives this recipe free on receipt of two stamps to pay expenses. Hemp also cures night sweat, nausea at the stomach, and will break a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address Craddock & Co, 1,033 Race Street, Philadelphia, naming this paper.

DYSPEPSIA.—This disease has been called the "curse of America." The "go ahead impatient yankee," has not time to eat his meals properly, and so cram the food into his stomach in a condition impossible to digest, one or two of WINGATE'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS, dissolved in the mouth after eating, will soon relieve this distressing complaint. They can be carried in the vest pocket, and are always ready for use.

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by Snuffs, Washes, or Local applications. Thousands have been cured some of 40 years standing, by using the CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. Certificates and treatise on Catarrh mailed to any address on application to T. J. B. HARDING, Brockville, Ont. Sold by all Druggists. Price—$1.00 per bottle.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipt that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D., Bible House New York City

The efficacy of Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers in curing coughs, colds and all bronchial affections and cheering the afflicted, has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where these marvellous Wafers are known, they bear down all opposition and eclipse all rivalry; the demand for them has steadily increased for the last 20 years, until now the sales average over one hundred thousand boxes a year. Eminent members of the medical profession without number admit that they know of no preparation producing such beneficial results as the wafers. When taken in season they effect a permanent cure. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

Horses Saved.—The lives of thousands of horses have been saved during the past year, and the credit is due to "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." This preparation is being extensively used, and exacts from all the highest praise. Nothing of the kind has ever before been half as successful or given such universal satisfaction; it cannot be equalled. We can confidently recommend it, and would advise all who own horses to keep a supply of it on hand—it may be the means of saving your horses' life. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.
