TO THE Free & Independent Electors OF THE COUNTY OF FRONTENAC.

GENTLEMEN:

HAVING BEEN REQUESTED TO OFfer myself as a candidate at the approaching election for the Local Assembly, I beg to solicit your suffrages therefor in my favour.

From an intimate acquaintance with the requirements of the agricultural community, I think I could be of considerable service in promoting your interests in that respect. My whole attention (if elected) shall be solely devoted to the advancement of the County, in conjunction with that of our Province.

As a Liberal Conservative, my political views are already well known to you, and on the day of nomination I hope to present them more fully to your notice.

I enunciate no loud protestations of what I will do, but every farmer is aware that in returning me, he will best advance the future prosperity of the County.

I have the honor to be, Gentlemen,

MOTHER, KISS ME GOOD NIGHT.

Dear mother, when my prayer is said
Before you take the light,
Oh! lean your head so closely down
And always kiss "good night:
For I am happier in my dreams,
And sleep in sweeter rest,
If I have laid my lips to thine,
And thine to mine are pressed.

One kiss, dear mother, for the love
My heart keeps warm for thee;
And one for all the tenderness
Thy sweet eyes look to me.
Kiss me forgiveness for my wrongs;
Kiss me with hope and prayer
That I shall be a better child,
And more reward thy care.

Kiss me for some poor orphan child,
To whom no kiss is given;
And next for all the happy ones
And then for one in Heaven.
Kiss me for everything I love,
The beautiful and bright;
Sweet mother, kiss me for thyself
Once more, and now "good-night.

THE "Illustrated Annual of Phrenology, and the Health Almanac," for 1877, have been combined and are issued as one publication, at the low price of ten cents. Sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of ten cents, by S. R. Wells & Co, 737, Broadway, New York.

THAT POMADE.—A lady of thirty, a plump and jolly brunette, sees with some anxiety dark, downy line penciling itself on her upper lip. She does not care to compete with the bearded woman, and consults the advertisements. She finds just what she wants—a depilatory pomade, warranted to remove the most obnoxious moustache woman ever had in five applications. She obtains a box at a price of 10 francs and follows the directions on the label with care. The moustache thrives on the depilatory, and after a while madame yields to the inevitable, to be worse. Three or four years roll by, and she sees with alarm that her hair is beginning to thin. A trifle of moustache can be borne but a bald head never, and again she has recourse to the advertisements. She finds the article she needs—a miraculous pomade to increase the thickness and beauty of the hair. On visiting the shop she is stupefied. It is the same shop, the same attendant, the same bottle at the same price, the same pomae so far as she can judge from appearance. Only the label has been changed. The merchant, on being severely examined, admits that it is the same pomade. It failed so utterly to remove hair that he turned it into a hair invigorator. With great joy the costomer buys a pot and applies it—and her hair goes on falling out faster than ever!—Paris Creme des Chronique.

MANHOOD RESTORED.

Victims of youthful imprudence, who have tried in vain every known remedy, will learn of a simple prescription, FREE, for the speedy cure of nervous debility, premature decay, lost manhood, and all disorders brought on by excesses. Any druggist has the ingredients. Address DAVIDSON & CO., 86 Nassau St., N.Y.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and discretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

CATARRH

Cannot be cured by Snuffs, Washes, or Local applications. Thousands have been cured some of 40 years standing, by using the CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. Certificates and treatise on Catarrh mailed to any address on application to T. J. B. HARDING, Brockville, Ont. Sold by all Druggists. Price—$1.00 per bottle.

A CARD.—To all who are suffering from the errors and indiscretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, &c., I will send a receipe that will cure you, FREE OF CHARGE. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self-addressed envelope to the Rev. JOSEPH T. INMAN, Station D., Bible House, New York City.

Be Wise.—Too often a cold or slight cough is considered a very ordinary, trifling affair, just as well left to go as it came, and hence systematically neglected until a simple curable affection is converted into a serious pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware that a cough or cold should never be trifled with, promptly use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers, which have sustained their reputation for over thirty years. They are efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

Hide Bound Horses.—A horse is said to be hide-bound when his skin will not slip under the pressure of the hand, but sticks as if it was glued, which condition is always dependent on a deranged state of the stomach and digestive organs—by correcting which, and giving to them a healthy tone and condition the disease or complaint will disappear. Experience has proved that the means best adapted to this end is "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy." It has been used in numerous cases with complete success, generally effecting a cure in a few days. It is the best condition medicine known, and may be given with perfect safety at all times and does not require that the horse be kept from work.
