THE PREMIER MAINTAINS THAT PROHIBITION IS AN ISSUE IN THE ELECTION

The numination meeting of the Halon Peoples' Political Party at Milton on Saturday afternoon erowded the hall to the doors. There was quite a sprinkling of women in the . large !

In acknowledging the nomination the Premier explained how he had come to stand for Halton in 1919, but said that, although his own riding was now open to him, he preferred to contest Halton, as his warm-hearted supporters there desired that he should remain. He spoke at considerable length on the achievements of his Government during its tenure of office, and spent some time in discussing the maiests Department under Hon. Howard Ferguson, contending that the Conservative leader, having such a record in to do much if he became Premier and had not one department but all the departments of the Government under his guidance. Mr. Drury insisted that prohibition a an issue in the election, and said the time was 'neither ripe nor even in sight for again submitting the question to a vote of the people.

Premier Drury showed that the Province is financially stronger at the resent time than any other Province in the Dominion. This was proved by the standing of the bonds on the market, and by financial experts. Explaining at considerable length the details of the Shevlin-Clarke transaction, the Fremier said it was a piece of gross institcioncy-not to call it something worse than that Stoutly defending the action of the Government in regard to the Backus doal, Mr. Drury suggested that the Conservative leader was continually making charges concerning this matter in order to divert public attention from the Shevlin-Clarke affair and the other limits which he sold without competition. The speaker asserted that this sale of the Backus limits was advertis-
