THE GREATEST
Wonder of Modern Times.
HOLLOWAY'S
PILLS & OINTMENT
The PILLS Purify the Blood, correct all disorders of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys and Bowels, and are invaluable in all complaints incidental to Females.
The OINTMENT is the only reliable remedy for Bad Legs, Old Wounds, Sores and Ulcers, of however long standing: For Bronchitis, Diphtheria, Coughs, Colds, Gout, Rheumatism and all Skin Diseases it has no equal.
BEWARE of NEW YORK COUNTERFEITS.
sold under the name of "Holloway & Co.," by J. F. Henry, Curran & Co., Druggists, and also by the Metropolitan Medicine Company of New York, with an assumed trade mark, thus —Again one Joseph Haydock of New York, likewise passes off counterfeits of his own make under the name of Holloway & Co., having for a trade mark a Crescent and Serpent, McKessen & Robbins of New York are agents for the same.
These persons, the better to deceive you, unblushingly Caution the Public in the small books of directions affixed to their Medicines, which are really the spurious imitations, to Beware of Counterfeits.
Unscrupulous Dealers obtain them at very low prices and sell them to the public in Canada as my genuine Pills and Ointment.
I most earnestly and respectfully appeal to the Clergy, to Mothers of Families and other ladies, and to the public generally of British North America, that they may be pleased to denounce unsparingly these frauds.
Purchasers should look to the Label on the Pots and Boxes. If the address is not 533, Oxford Street, London, they are the Counterfeits.
Each Pot and Box of the Genuine Medicines bears the British Government Stamp, with the words "HOLLOWAY'S PILLS AND OINTMENT," thereon. On the label is the address, 533, Oxford street, London, where alone they are Manufactured.
Parties who may be defrauded by Venders selling spurious "Holloway's Pills and Ointment," as of my genuine make, shall on communicating the particulars to me, be amply remunerated, and their names never divulged. Signed
THOMAS HOLLOWAY.

MONDAY EVEN'G, APRIL 9, 1877.

MY HAPPY HOME.

From neath a hedge of moss clad rocks,
As drop by drop the water flowed,
A streamlet grew, that waters flocks
When evening's sky the rudest glowed.

Adown the hillside flowed the brook,
Which soon had greater grown from springs,
That issued from each cozy nook,
Where, babbling loudly, now it sings.

From smallest drops see how increased,
Forever growing as it goes;
It rushes on as some wild beast,
And, lashing furiously, onward flows.

A-flowing through the grassy meads
That separate the rugged glens,
The winding stream sweeps through the reeds,
The rushes and the marshy fens.

Now o'er the heads of ancient stones
The floods glide down so silvery!
Into the vale below, where moans
The forest breeze through many a tree.

And here its course is stayed awhile—
The brook expands into a pond;
And, glistening in Phœbus' smile,
The babbling waters flow beyond.

They ripple out at the farther end,
And turn the mill-wheel o'er and o'er.
Then joyously their way they wend
And run the race they run no more.

Beneath a spreading chestnut boughs,
Their stands the mill the farmer owns;
And here his sheep and cattle browse,
And here is past rage for his roans.

And here the painted boat is tied,
That oft a cherished crew hath borne
Since she, that is my darling bride,
And I have rings of promise worn.

At eve I drop the spade or plough
That keeps me from my darling one,
And hasten 'neath the chestnut's bough
Where Katie waits for me alone.

The farm house stands beyond the mill,
For the evening meal we thither go;
Across the plank o'er the spring house rill,
And we reach the gate by a step or so.

There mother sits in her easy chair,
And father is gleaning bits of news;
They've pleasant faces and silvery hair,
For they've led the life no Christian rues.

St. Peter's Successor.

The death of Pio Nono may be expected any day. He is now past the first half of his ninth decade, and where he a man of the simplest habits and the most vigorous vitality he could hardly expect to live much longer in the ordinary course of nature. Though His Holiness has been shorn of all his temporal power and though his influence over the minds and consciences of men has been greatly diminished with the extension of education, yet the subject of his succession to the throne is far from being a matter of indifference to several of the powers of Europe. Spain, Italy, France, Germany, and Austria all feel the liveliest interest in the succession, and all would play cross-purposes, if they intrigue in the matter at all. Spain would, if she could, place a bigoted reactionist—an Ultramontane on the throne. France would have Cardinal Bonaparte elected, and French ideas control the Papal administration. Germany is hostile to any one closely identified with the Infallibility dogma. Austria has indicated the kind of a Pope she wants and she will refuse to ratify the election, if her wishes are not regarded, while Italy, of course, wants a man who will recognize and somewhat in accord with the present school of Italian politics.

There are several candidates spoken of for the position. The French candidate is Cardinal Bonaparte. Germany has two—Archbishop Ledochowski and Cardinal Hohenlohe; England presents Cardinal Howard. Besides there are numerous Italian candidates. There is every probability that an Italian will be chosen, as has been the case several centuries. The question is then whether he will be confirmed by Germany, Spain and Austria. It is feared that a man will not be found agreeable to all parties, in which event the gravest of diplomatic complications are threatened.

A CARD.
To all who are suffering from the errors and discretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

MANHOOD RESTORED.
Victims of youthful imprudence, who have tried in vain every known remedy, will learn of a simple prescription, FREE, for the speedy cure of nervous debility, premature decay, lost manhood, and all disorders brought on by excesses. Any druggist has the ingredients. Address DAVIDSON & CO., 86 Nassau St., N.Y.

MORE VALUABLE THAN GOLD.
Why do you suffer from the loathsome disease, Catarrh, when a sure and safe remedy can be had by using the GREAT CONSTITUTIONAL CATARRH REMEDY. It has cured thousands of this disgusting complaint, and it will cure you. Send stamp for treatise to T. J. B. HARDING, Brockville. For sale by all Druggists and medicine dealers.

Bryan's Wafers, the great public remedy have now been in use over twenty years, hence it cannot be said that they are on trial. They have been thoroughly tried, and pronounced on the authority of those whose lives and health they have preserved, to be a cure, harmless and eminently and salutary preparation, and if taken in season will invariably cure colds, coughs, sore throat and all bronchial affections. One fair trial will convince the most skeptical. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25c per box.

Physicing Horses—Many persons physic their horses frequently, especially every spring. This is a great error, and one which has caused the loss of many valuable horses, as physic as it is usually given, often produces inflammation of the bowels, which generally proves fatal; it also weakens the horse and thus renders him more liable to disease, or less able to throw it off—what is required is a medicine which will operate gently upon the bowels and act upon the liver and lungs removing all obstructions therefrom, purifying the blood and enabling all the organs to do their work without overtasking any, which is accomplished by the use of "Darley's Condition, Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy"—it is always safe and certain. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELECTRICITY! THOMAS' ECLECTRIC OIL!—WORTH TEN TIMES ITS WEIGHT IN GOLD.—Pain cannot stay where it is used. It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One dose cures common sore throat. One bottle has cured bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing cough. It positively cures catarrh, asthma and croup. Fifty cents worth has cured crick in the back, and the same quantity lame back of eight years standing. The following are extracts from a few of the many letters that have been received from different parts of Canada, which, we think, should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical: J. Collard, of Sparta, Ont., writes, "Send me six dozen Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now; its cures are truly wonderful. Wm. McGuire, of Franklin, writes, "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm—it was slow at first, but takes splendidly now." H. Cole, of Iona, writes, "Please forward 6 dozen Thomas' Eclectric Oil. I am nearly out, nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used it." J. Bedford, Thamesville, writes, "Send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil, I have only one bottle left. I never saw anything sell so well and give such general satisfaction." J. Thompson, Woodford, writes, "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have sold entirely out. Nothing takes like it." Miller & Reid, Ulverton, P.Q., writes, "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for. Send us a further supply without delay."
BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Doctor Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper and the names of Northrop & Lyman are blown in the bottle and take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHROP and LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for the Dominion.
NOTE.—Eclectric—Selected and Electrized.
