Sir John's Will and Testament.

In the name of Union and Progress, Amen.

1. To my dear friend and fellow pilgrim, Charles Tupper, I give and bequeath that portion of my personal and private property known as the Liberal Conservative Party.

2. To my Faithful attendant, Tommy Gibbs, I give and bequeath my opinion of his dignity. It is but a small bequest, yet I hope he may find it valuable.

3. To my dear companion in distress, M.C. Cameron, I give and bequeath the Conservative Reaction.

4. To my life long friend, Wm. Macdougall, I give and bequeath, let me see—permission to ride behind Dr. Tupper on all public occasions.

5. To the party who can get it I give and bequeath that portion of my property known as the Secret Service Money.

6. To the Grit party of the Dominion I give and bequeath my intellect, and my blessing.—Grip.

From S. H. Kendall, M. D., of Boston.

Dear Sirs:—I have been afflicted for many years with a chronic inflammation, or morbid state of the liver, together with the long train of complaints which are well known to attend such cases, viz., consumption of the bowels, impaired digestion, cold extremities, shooting pains in the side, extending toward the sternum, &c.; so that for many months I have not been able to lie upon one side, nor upon either side without pain. I was about submitting myself to the usual mercurial course of treatment (whereby I hope to obtain relief, but did not expect to be cured), when you happened to communicate to me some of the remarkable cures effected by the PERUVIAN SYRUP; and (although I am slow to believe in the efficacy of new remedies) having had the pleasure of your acquaintance for a long time, and of course perfect confidence in the correctness of your statements, I was induced to give it a trial. I commenced taking it on Monday, the 6th of March. The following Wednesday night I found, to my surprise, that I could rest comfortably lying upon either side. Friday, March 10, not the slightest pain; rested as comfortably as I ever did; and now, in one week, after having taking one bottle of the Syrup, I consider myself cured. But as I find the medicine so pleasant, and as it can be taken without any interruption to business, I shall continue it a few days longer. Sold by all druggists.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and discretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

CATARRH.

With all its Loathsome Attendants cured by the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy.

The Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is the first article placed before the public that proposed to cure Catarrh by building up the Constitution. It struck at the root of the whole difficulty, and thousands upon thousands of letters have been received by the proprietors, setting forth the marvelous cures, and what is remarkable, curing not only the Catarrh, but all other ailments at the same time. This is what it always does. Certificates we are constantly receiving, from well known people to whom you can write, and not begin ones. Catarrh and its attendant evils, cold in head, hacking cough, incipient consumption, headache, pain in the back and loins, dizziness, languidness, loss of appetite and general weakness, all leave together when the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is taken as recommended.

Home Testimony in favor of Littlefield's Catarrh Remedy

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq.,
Brockville, 12th Feb., 1876.

My Dear Sir,—I can fully endorse, from my own experience, the favorable account of the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. It has afforded me relief from Catarrh and Cold every time I used it, and then when I could not take proper care of my self in bad weather.

Yours respectfully, C. W. VOLNEY.
Brockville, Feb 1876.

I have great pleasure in recommending the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy to any parties who may require a remedy for that disease. I do so from practical experience, having effected a thorough cure on one of my children with this medicine. R. BOWIE.
Brockville, Feb. 1st, 1876.

From personal benefit received, and almost instantaneous cure from Cattarrh, Nervous Headache and Neuralgia, as well as from personal knowledge of those whose cures thereby have seemed almost miraculous, I can most heartily and sincerely recommend the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy for those complaints it claims to cure. A. C. J. KAUFMAN.

PRICE $1 per bottle. Sold by all druggists. A Pamphlet of 32 pages, giving a treatise on Catarrh and containing innumerable cases of cures, sent free by addressing.
