GRANT IN LONDON.

Speech at the Reform Club

London, June 19.—At the Reform Club dinner Mr. Foster, in his speech, paid a marked compliment to Hayes upon his reunion policy. Earl Granville, in toasting the illustrious statesman and warrior, Gen. Grant, said that England and America, civilization throughout the universe, recognized in Grant one of those extraordinary instruments Divine Providence has bestowed in its beneficence to the human race. Grant, in responding, said:—"Words would fail, especially within the limitations of a public speech, to express my feelings in this regard. I hope when an opportunity is offered me of calmer and more deliberate moments to put on record my grateful recognition of the fraternal sentiments of the English people; and the desire of America to render adequate response. The speech of Earl Granville has inspired thoughts in my bosom which is impossible for me adequately to present. Never have I lamented so much as now my poverty of phrases to give due expression to my affection for the mother country." Gen. Grant spoke under the pressure of unusual feeling, and continued with unusual eloquence to express the hope that his words, so far as they had any value, would be heard in both countries, and lead to the union of the English speaking people, and the fraternity of the human race. Grant's speech was frequently interrupted with applause, and the cheering was almost continuous. On resuming his seat the health of the ex-President was drunk amid tumultuous applause.

THE Colonnade Hotel, Philadelphia, is a model establishment. It is superb in both style and appointment, and its table and service cannot be excelled.

—A set of thieves in Mexico have dogs trained to steal handkerchiefs in the cathedral and other churches from the kneeling worshippers.

—A Maryland girl, who had been shut by her mother in a third story room, Sunday evening, dropped out of the window. She was not much hurt, and will probably be allowed to receive 'him' in the parlour, hereafter.

From S. H. Kendall, M. D., of Boston.

Dear Sirs:—I have been afflicted for many years with a chronic inflammation, or morbid state of the liver, together with the long train of complaints which are well known to attend such cases, viz., consumption of the bowels, impaired digestion, cold extremities, shooting pains in the side, extending toward the sternum, &c., so that for many months I have not been able to lie upon one side, nor upon either side without pain. I was about submitting myself to the usual mercurial course of treatment (whereby I hope to obtain relief, but did not expect to be cured), when you happened to communicate to me some of the remarkable cures effected by the PERUVIAN SYRUP; and (although I am slow to believe in the efficacy of new remedies) having had the pleasure of your acquaintance for a long time, and of course perfect confidence in the correctness of your statements, I was induced to give it a trial. I commenced taking it on Monday, the 6th of March. The following Wednesday night I found, to my surprise, that I could rest comfortably lying upon either side. Friday, March 10, not the slightest pain; rested as comfortably as I ever did; and now, in one week, after having taking one bottle of the Syrup, I consider myself cured. But as I find the medicine so pleasant, and as it can be taken without any interruption to business, I shall continue it a few days longer. Sold by all druggists.

A CARD.

To all who are suffering from the errors and discretions of youth, nervous weakness, early decay, loss of manhood, etc., I will send a receipt that will cure you, free of charge. This great remedy was discovered by a missionary in South America. Send a self addressed envelope to the Rev. Joseph T. Inman, Station D, Bible House, New York City.

CATARRH.

With all its Loathsome Attendants cured by the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy.

The Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is the first article placed before the public that proposed to cure Catarrh by building up the Constitution. It struck at the root of the whole difficulty, and thousands upon thousands of letters have been received by the proprietors, setting forth the marvelous cures, and what is remarkable, curing not only the Catarrh, but all other ailments at the same time. This is what it always does. Certificates we are constantly receiving, from well known people to whom you can write, and not bogus ones. Catarrh and its attendant evils, cold in head, hacking cough, incipient consumption, headache, pain in the back and loins, dizziness, languidness, loss of appetite and general weakness, all leave together when the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy is taken as recommended.

Home Testimony in favor of Littlefield's Catarrh Remedy

T. J. B. HARDING, Esq., Brockville, 12th Feb., 1876,

My Dear Sir,—I can fully endorse, from my own experience, the favorable account of the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy. It has afforded me relief from Catarrh and Cold every time I used it, and then when I could not take proper care of my self in bad weather.

Yours respectfully, C. W. VELSEY.
Brockville, Feb 1876.

I have great pleasure in recommending the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy to any parties who may require a remedy for that disease. I do so from practical experience, having effected a thorough cure on one of my children with this medicine. R. BOWIE.
Brockville, Feb. 1st, 1876.

From personal benefit received, and almost instantaneous cure from Catarrh, Nervous Headache and Neuralgia, as well as from personal knowledge of those whose cures thereby have seemed almost miraculous, I can most heartily and sincerely recommend the Constitutional Catarrh Remedy for those complaints it claims to cure.

A. C. J. KAUFMAN.
