STAND NO MORE BLACKMAIL

OHIO BUSINESS MAN PUBLISHES HIS LIFE'S SECRET.

R. T. Wolfe, of Columbus, Ohio, Confesses That He Once Served a Term in Prison—Says That He Will Pay No More Money To Those Who Have Been Bleeding Him.

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 15.—President Wolfe, of the National shoe company, with headquarters in Boston, and also president of the Wolfe Bros. shoe company, of this city, admits that he has served a term in an Indiana prison. For twenty years he has been blackmailed out of thousands of dollars by persons possessing knowledge of this fact, and last night his attorney issued the following statement:

At eighteen years of age R. F. Wolfe, president of the Wolfe Bros. shoe company, of this city, was sent to the penitentiary of another state upon the charge of assault with intent to kill. When released he determined to overcome the cloud that always surrounded the actions of penal code, and came to Columbus friendless. His success since is a matter of general knowledge.

"The story of his early trouble was known to a few, some of whom, knowing all the facts and circumstances, gave him in the noblest way their friendship and support. Others saw in his necessity a means of extortion and oppression. As Mr. Wolfe's prosperity has increased, threats of exposure have multiplied, and have at last become intolerable.

"Knowing all the facts and as his attorney, I have advised him to make his statement to the public. He knows that the world exacts a further penalty from those it has punished, but he authorizes this statement that he may be forever a free man.

"Mr. Wolfe was living at Spencer, Ind., at the time the offence was committed. He became involved in a quarrel with a friend, and in an encounter which followed the latter was worsted. Wolfe was arrested and while in jail attempted to escape, making an assault upon the jailer. For this assault he was indicted and sentenced to five years in prison, of which he served, gaining all the time allowed by law for good conduct.

"The secret of Mr. Wolfe's early life was known to only a few of his most intimate associates, to the public it is a surprise. Mr. Wolfe is one of the most respected citizens of Columbus and enjoys the confidence and good will of business men generally.

"My Heart Was Thumping My Life Out."

Is the way Mrs. R. H. Wright, of Brockville, Ont., describes her sufferings from smothering, fluttering and palpitation. After trying many remedies without benefit, six bottles of Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart restored her to perfect health. The first dose gave almost instant relief, and in a day suffering ceased altogether. Sold by E. C. Mitchell—51.

In 1767 Fort Frontenac store house, stable and garden in front, were the only signs of habitation of Kingston, save the Recollet church, a small wooden structure, standing two hundred yards west, between the present Princess and Queen streets, about the location of Andrew Mackan's store. The fort was evacuated and destroyed by governor Denonville in 1689, and restored by count de Frontenac on his return in 1695.

An Important Letter

From Port Daniel, Baie-Des Chaleurs, P. Q.

J. M. Leblanc, Merchant, Cured of Bronchitis by

Morin's Wine "Creso-Phates."

Port Daniel, Baie-des-Chaleurs, P.Q.
To Dr. Ed. Morin, Quebec.

I owe you a thousand and one thanks for the benefit I have derived from your masterly preparation, MORIN'S WINE "Creso-Phates":—I had suffered for several years from a chronic Bronchitis which sometimes made my life very trying. Of all the remedies I had tried during that period, none had produced the effect I hoped for.

One day, I got a few bottles of your MORIN'S WINE "Creso-Phates." I had read in the papers a great many cures operated by this excellent tonic and I wanted, like so many others, to make a fresh effort.

From the very first doses, I saw I had found the true remedy. I continued its use, until this Bronchitis had entirely disappeared.

I am a merchant and keep in store this preparation which I recommend and sell to persons suffering from Bronchitis or any pulmonary affections.

Yours truly,
J. M. LEBLANC.

FOUND AT LAST.

Sincerely Wished That it Had Remained Lost.

Detroit Free Press.

"My wife will be careful hereafter how she takes liberties with the truth," said Jones with a grin. "We had our minister with us the other day for dinner, and the conversation turned upon absent-mindedness, and my better half had to tell her story.

"'I am dreadfully absent-minded,' said she. 'I remember some six or seven years ago a friend of mine gave me her celebrated recipe for making jam. When I reached home I carefully put it away where I would be sure to find it when I wanted it. But, do you know, a few weeks later, when I needed it, I couldn't remember for the life of me where I had put it, and to this day I have never been able to find it.'

"After dinner she turned to the Rev. Mr. Thirdly and said sweetly:

"'Would you mind reading a chapter in the bible? We make it a rule to read at least one chapter every night.'

"This statement caused me to look at her in surprise, for it was news to me.

"The reverend gentleman consented graciously, and she brought the family bible, which she had carefully dusted and placed in a conspicuous spot before he had arrived.

"As he turned the leaves a paper fluttered to the floor.

"'Goodness!' gasped my wife, as she picked it up, not realizing how her words were going to sound, after her somewhat pious statement, 'it is that recipe for jam!'"

THERE IS ONLY ONE

Permanent Cure for Catarrh—That is What a Well-Known Toronto Gentleman Says About Japanese Catarrh Cure.

John Sloan, 178 McGill street, Toronto, writes: "I have had catarrh in the most disagreeable form for years; have at times got remedies which would relieve me, but nothing to cure me completely, until I tried Japanese Catarrh Cure. From the very first it gave me much relief, and every day's use showed a marked improvement. I used in all six boxes, and it has completely cured me. It certainly does all claimed for it, which I cannot say of scores of other remedies tried, and I feel it my duty to attest my appreciation of anything so worthy." All druggists, price 50c., or mailed by the Griffiths & Macpherson Co., limited, 121 Church street, Toronto. Sold by J. B. McLeod, Kingston, Ont.

TO TRY FOR RECORD.

Ketcham Thinks The Champion Can Trot In Two Minutes.

Toledo, Oct. 15.—George H. Ketcham, owner, trainer and driver of Cresceus, makes the following statement:

"I have taken off thirty pounds since the 1st of May, and if I could only get to 135 pounds I would drive Cresceus in two minutes. I will take the horse to Columbus on Monday and he will try to reduce his record next week on the track. I will take him from Columbus to Kansas City and will visit Minneapolis, St. Louis, Pueblo, Denver, Salt Lake, Sacramento, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Las Vegas, El Paso, Albuquerque and the City of Mexico, which will make a very pleasant and profitable trip. I shall not consider the offer to exhibit Cresceus on the vaudeville stage, as he is booked until the stud season will open.

A Great Presentation Coming.

Klaw & Erlanger are making elaborate preparations for the presentation of the Drury Lane fairy extravaganza, "The Sleeping Beauty And the Beast," at the Broadway theatre, New York, November 4th. They will employ a company of over 400 people. The principals, with but three exceptions, will be American artists. Forty of the English chorus came to America by the steamship Furnessia two weeks ago, and the flying ballet of forty, and the Grigolatis troupe arrived on the steamship City of Rome last week, with Marshall Moore, stage director, M. D'Auban, ballet master, and Mrs. McKenzie, wardrobe mistress, of the Drury Lane theatre. The stage equipment arrived with William McKenzie, the stage carpenter of the Drury Lane, in charge. It is the most extensive ever imported for any theatrical presentation. Seventy-eight cases contain 800 costumes; there are 160 cases of properties, 208 cases contain 28,000 sheets of glass used in the crystal palace scene; seventy-eight trunks are filled with armor and various other appurtenances, and there were forty-two loads of scenery.

To Fight Scalpers.

Asheville, N.C., Oct. 15.—Every important railway system of the United States and Canada is represented at the forty-sixth annual convention of the American association of general passenger and ticket agents, which began its sessions here to-day and will continue through the remainder of the week. At the opening session secretary Smith presented a docket, the consideration of which promises to make the convention the most interesting in the history of the association. Foremost among the important questions to be discussed is legislation against ticket scalping and the general use of safety paper for tickets. The establishment of a protective bureau will also be discussed. The discontinuance of brass baggage checks, the transportation of excess baggage, and methods to meet electric line competition are among other topics which will make interesting discussion.

War Among Tribes.

Antwerp, Oct. 15.—King Leopold has decided to visit New York. He announced this in an interview granted to the burgomaster on Saturday. His majesty expects among other advantages to get in the United States many suggestions from the shipping arrangements which will prove beneficial to the ports of Belgium.

Patrick J. Hepsey, engineer on the Montana Central railway, formerly of Belleville, was killed in an accident on October 5th. He was a brother-in-law of William Adamson, of the G.T.R., Belleville.

OXYDONOR

Cures While You Sleep

RHEUMATISM.

W. H. MOORE, 62 Seaton street, Toronto, writes: "I take great pleasure in writing this testimonial to you, believing, as I do, I am doing justice to my fellow sufferers of rheumatism as well as to you. I have suffered great pain for several months with that dreadful disease, and I candidly believe I would be suffering yet had it not been for your Oxydonor. I have sent several friends to your agent here for Oxydonors, and they, like myself, met with great success. Anyone doubting the power of your Oxydonor you can refer them to me."

JOHN HEARD, Strathroy, Ont., writes, March 7, 1901: "I have nothing but praise for your Oxydonor; colds, la grippe, rheumatic pains, bruised ankle, etc., all give to the lively action of the little instrument.

"I feel that I have a doctor in my home all the time that does not require me to take nauseating concoctions to force nature to perform her work. But when a person can get an instrument like Oxydonor to kill the disease and save poor, old stomachs, it is a great blessing to humanity if they are wise enough to utilize such an invention."

MR. NICHOLSON, Bank Messenger, Winnipeg, Man., says: "I spent over a thousand dollars for doctors and medicine to cure my wife of rheumatism, and the only benefit she derived was from your Oxydonor 'Victory.' If I could not get another, no thousand dollars would buy it."
