PORTLAW

Anniversary services will be held in Mount Zion United church on Sunday the first of October. An entertainment will be held on the Monday night following, when a program of more than usual interest will be given.

Mr. John McLennan received word that his brother, Mr. Wm. McLennan of Toronto is seriously ill in a hospital there.

Mrs. Wm. Taylor visited with friends at Shelburne recently.

During a recent electrical storm a chimney on the house of Mrs. Florence Lyons was struck by lightning and badly damaged. Fortunately the occupants escaped injury.

Services in the church the past two Sundays were taken by Mr. Harold Lougheed, a member of Toronto police force. His messages were much enjoyed and we predict that the future holds in this young man an able exponent of the gospel, when he feels called upon to give his life entirely to the work.

The little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy White has been seriously ill, but we are pleased to hear that she is now much improved.

The W. A. held their last regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Walker. About twenty members and ten visitors were present and a good deal of important business was transacted after which a program was given, which included readings by Mrs. L Badgerow and Mrs. J. J. Little, and a recitation by Mrs. Laurie Pedlar. A lunch was then enjoyed and the meeting closed with singing and prayer.

IN MEMORIAM

PEDLAR — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, Mrs. W. T. Pedlar, who passed away September 15th, 1931.

We think of her as one who sleeps
All free from grief and pain,
And know the happy day will come
When we shall meet her again.

—Sadly missed by Husband and Family.

Threshing is the order of the day. Jackson and Talbot and Charlie Hodgin and helper are making short work of the barns this year.

Congratulations are due the Proton Station public school and the teacher, Mr. G. Littlejohns, for their splendid success at the school fair in Flesherton last Friday. They won first prize for the march and the two first prizes for the public speaking. Helen Badgerow and Ernest Batchelor being the young orators, besides these they secured a fair share of prizes for their exhibits.

Mr. Adam Watkins of Detroit visited his sister, Mrs. McAuley, and his nephew, Mr. James Hemphill, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan McNicol and daughter, Helen, and Mr. Lloyd Lyons spent the week end at Mr. Chas. Lyon's.

GRADED FARM PRODUCTS

Quality in farm products, rather than price, is the average consumer's first consideration. This was clearly demonstrated by the reception accorded all of the Department's displays at the Canadian National Exhibition. Attendants at the exhibits were called upon to answer many questions regarding graded farm products and where they may be purchased. Further evidence was forthcoming in the distribution each day of an average of 1,500 pieces of literature dealing with grades.

The true pleasure of life is to live with your inferiors.

Autograph Quilt

The W. A. of Eugenia United church have made an "autograph quilt" which will be offered for sale by tender. The quilt may be seen at the home of Mrs. Card Graham, Eugenia, and tenders may be handed to her or to Miss G. V. Smith, Secretary before the end of the month.
