

ACTON FREE PRESS TURNS BACK

The Rotary program on July 1 appealed to all ages. Winners, contestants and entertainers were caught by the Free Press camera.

Premier Leslie M. Frost, P.C., made a brief stop in Acton early one morning while on a western trip.

Members of the graduation class of Acton Public School were entertained at a banquet and addressed by Miss M. Z. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mason mark Golden Wedding Anniversary. Mr. Mason has been closely connected with music in the community since coming here.

For the first time in the history of the community, a Canadian Prime Minister visited Acton. Upper left shows a small section of the crowd. Upper right the Prime Minister addresses the audience gathered. Editor G. A. Dills, among other citizens, greets Mr. St. Laurent. Lower left Mr. Cleaver with Margaret Wilson, who presents flowers to Mrs. St. Laurent. Centre picture shows the Prime Minister as he bids farewell.

Mr. and Mrs. William Manprize mark 65th Wedding Anniversary. Mrs. Manprize also marked her 90th birthday this year.

Nassagaweya holds its 100th Anniversary. Above are some of the reeves who have served the Township in its 100 years of growth.

One of Acton's oldest landmarks, Cobble Hill, is under motion as trucks and steam shovels use its earth to fill-in on No. 25 Highway.

Ontario's Lieut. Governor visits Acton on Remembrance Day and unveils the new additions to the Soldier's War Memorial. The Lieut. Governor and his party, along with officials and others were entertained at a civic reception in the Y.M.C.A. following the service in the United Church.