

FOR LAST GLIMPSES OF 1949

Acton telephone users stopped cranking this year as the Bell Telephone install new system abolishing hand cranks and the old fashioned magneto system.

Mrs. Mary Pettit, chosen as first lady Warden of Halton County and first lady to occupy such a post in Ontario.

The display shows the Acton Junior Farmers group prize winning display at the Annual West Hill and Barton Fair in Acton, Ontario. The group is seen in judging competition.

A. Mason, appointed Acton's first Mayor. Mr. Mason has served as reeve of the municipality and in many other capacities for the betterment of Acton.

Acton Junior Hockey Team received new jackets from an appreciative Town, Fair and Athletic Association. The team was eliminated by the Orono Junior Champions in the semi-finals.

Hughes Cleaver was appointed by Halton electors to another term as representative in the Federal Parliament.

Acton's worst fire completely destroyed all but the foundation of the barn on the Parry farm south of Acton. The blaze is at its height in the above photo.

Mrs. Gwendoline P. Clarke marks twenty years writing "Chronicles of Ginger Farm" for Free Press readers.

Ten bands entertain at Acton's largest gathering of musicians. The event, sponsored by the Acton Boys' and Girls' Band, entertained 2000 people.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex McGregor, life long residents of Acton and district, celebrate their Golden Wedding Anniversary.