Weaving Lecture;
Farm Forum News

The regular Farm Forum meetings do not start until November, but the neighbors of the Stone School met on Friday evening for a social gathering. After a short business meeting, the members of the district who have passed away since the last gathering, Mr. Tom Appleyard, Mr. Lawrence Burt and Mr. Wm. Kane, were then enjoyed. Winners being Mrs. F. J. Rudell, first, and consolation going to Mrs. George Burt. Mr. Ernie Miller was winner of the men and Mr. Geo. Henderson received consolation.

There were about 40 people who sat down to a regular Halloween feast, being mostly pumpkin pies and much whipped cream. The first regular meeting of the Stone School Farm Forum will meet at the school next week.

Weaving lectures and demonstrations in Oakville by Mr. Zielinski of Oakville, Que., were attended on Monday, November 1 by Mrs. Earl Trow, Mrs. R. Corbett, Miss Laura Treble, and Mrs. E. Batkin. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. Batkin over the week-end was Miss Betty Grove of Toronto.

ORTON

Orton Hall Scene
Of Presentations

In the past week Orton Hall has been the scene of two happy events. Last Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morfitt were honored on their recent marriage and presented with a well filled purse.

On Monday evening Mr. and Mrs. Howard Awey, newlyweds, were the recipients of a lovely studio couch. Congratulations.

Visits, Holidays

Mr. and Mrs. Smith of Pennsylvania U.S.A. spent last week-end with their aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. McQuinn. Mr. Smith very ably conducted the Bible class in St. John's Sunday School and delivered an inspiring message to those present.

Sunday visitors with Mrs. Hayward and Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Tilt were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayward and Mr. and Mrs. John Glover of Toronto.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. George Galbraith who were married in Orangeville last Saturday.

Visitors last Thursday with Mr. and Mrs. Ken Nevills were Mrs. Neil McPhail of Hamilton and Mrs. Les Simpson and girls of Edmonton, Alberta.

Miss Joan Hurd of the Bell Telephone Co., Guelph, has been holidaying at her home here the past two weeks. Miss Anne Hall also of Guelph spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hall.

Mr. Art Jestin of North Bay, visited recently with his mother, Mrs. David Jestin and aunt, Mrs. Murphy. Mr. Jim Nevills of Sudbury is holidaying with relatives here.

Attend Funeral

Several from here attended the funeral of the late Russell Martin at Elora on Tuesday. He passed away at his home at Arise on Saturday. Sympathy is extended to his wife and family in their bereavement.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hooper visited recently with the former's parents at Beeton.

Mr. and Mrs. Norris White and family visited Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morfitt of Hillsburgh. Mr. and Mrs. Pete Watson and Mr. Jim Nevills spent Saturday at Galt with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Watson and Lois.

Mrs. Don Watson and Debby of Hagersville is holidaying with Mr. and Mrs. Les Watson.

Howlett Bros. of Marsville have been busy the past week putting a new roof on the parsonage as well as other repairs.

Mr. William Shaw of Newmarket called on friends in the village last week.

Rev. Erle Currey, Mrs. Currey, Mrs. Jestin, Mrs. Murphy and Mrs. John Watson spent last Tuesday in Orangeville with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Cook.

Talk on India

The October meeting of St. John's W.A. was held at the home of Mrs. Bert Weeks on Tuesday evening, October 19 with 15 ladies present.

The president opened the meeting with a hymn and followed by prayer. The minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The roll call was answered by what you were most thankful for the past year. Mrs. Earl Hooper gave the devotional followed by a talk on India by the minister, Rev. Erle Currey.

Twenty-five dollars was voted to the Flood Relief Fund plus three quilts.

Miss Currey showed films of her trip through the U.S.A. in August. The hostess served lunch at the conclusion of the meeting and a social half-hour was enjoyed.

CORRESPONDENCE

On a card in the front window of a suburban home appeared the following notice:

"A piano for sale."

In the window next door another card appeared with just one word "Hurrah!"

Hallowe'en Games
At Baptist Y.P.U.

Saturday evening the Young People's of the Baptist church held a Hallowe'en party in the basement of the church. Judged as having the best costume was Mrs. C. Landsborough.

Games, including bobbing for apples, were under the direction of Helen Landsborough and Faye Garner. Lunch was served to conclude the evening.

OSPREY

Ownership Change
On District Farms

Several farms are changing hands in this locality. Mr. Archie McKenzie, 17th sideway, has sold to Mr. Emerson Griffin and family of Toronto, who get possession on the 25th. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Johnson moved on Monday to Mr. John McLaren's farm, third line. The Johnsons lived on the Matthews' upper farm better known as the McKinnon farm which has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Chapman of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Stranholi of Norval district have purchased the R. J. Matthews farm and get possession shortly.

Mr. A. McKinnon, who has had a position in Toronto, has been transferred to Montreal, and will be moving shortly, with more newcomers on this farm.

At Plowing Matches

Messrs. Bert Robertson and D.G. Robertson attended the county plowing matches in Peel and Halton last week. Congratulations to Bert, who plowed at both, receiving first in Peel and third at Halton.

Guest Speaker

Rev. Ernest Root of Hillsburgh was guest speaker on Sunday at the local Presbyterian church.

Fly to Hawaii

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Reim and Colleen of San Diego, Calif., are visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wrack, third line. Mr. Reim, who is with the armed services, has been stationed in California, but he and family are flying to Hawaii this week where they will be for the next two years.

Mr. and Mrs. George McMillan of Toronto are holidaying this week with Mr. and Mrs. Maud McCutcheon. Visitors on Tuesday at the same home were Mrs. W. J. Smith, Everton; Miss Myrtle Orr and Mr. T. S. McCutcheon of Galt.

An error was made in last week's report of the project for the 4-H club. This fall project is "What shall I wear?"

Miss Lois Black of Elora spent several days last week with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. George D. Robertson.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Ferguson and children visited on Sunday with friends at Bradford.

Mrs. Jeannie McCutcheon moved last week to Guelph.

Rev. and Mrs. Foreman and Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Aitken and family motored to Hamilton on Saturday and visited with relatives.

On display in the Free Press window this week are three impressive looking potatoes, grown by Ward Bruce of R.R. 3, Acton. The largest weighs two and a half pounds, with the others close behind weighing two pounds, six ounces and two and a quarter pounds.

LIMEHOUSE

Fire Under Control
Within Minutes

The Extinguishing fire truck and firemen from Georgetown are credited with a quick run to Limehouse on Saturday evening when Mr. Thomas Sutton's back kitchen caught on fire. They had the fire under control in minutes.

The W.A. sponsored a hot supper in the hall on Wednesday evening when about 100 enjoyed the meal. Euchre followed when winners included Mrs. F. Smith and Mrs. S. Kirkpatrick with Mrs. John Scott and Mr. W. Harding winning second.

The S. Wright's visited the W. Wright's, Erin, a week ago. L. Col. and Mrs. K. M. Bourne visited for a few minutes on Saturday at Malton with their son, Lt. R. P. Bourne, who was returning by plane from Camp Shilo, Manitoba, to his unit at Utopia, N.B.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. James Edwards (nee Jean Wilder) who were married in the United Church parsonage, Milton, recently.

Mr. and Mrs. George Burt-Guerens and family, Linda and Terry of Aurora visited the James Nobles on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Turner were guests at the Metcalfe-Turner wedding in the Anglican church at Bolton a week ago.

Honored in District

Prior to their moving to their new home in Willowdale, Mr. and Mrs. S. Wright and family have been presented with gifts from the neighbors, friends and local organizations.

From neighbors they received an occasional chair, a pair of table lamps and other small gifts, from the W.A. she was given a necklace and from the W.I. a bon bon dish. They will be missed in the community having been socially active residents here for more than 18 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Gordon and family visited his parents here on Sunday before Pte. James Gordon again leaves for Winnipeg to rejoin his army unit.

Over 50 children in costume called at some places Saturday evening in celebration of Hallowe'en. Other signs of the date were few, we are proud to report.

Mrs. Sinclair and the A. C. Patterson's spent Sunday at Weston.

Hold Holy Baptism
AT ANGLICAN CHURCH

Abigail Hall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Hall was baptized at St. Alban's Anglican church Sunday, October 24 at 4.15 p.m. Rosalind was born at the Guelph General Hospital on August 7, 1954.

The Godparents were Mr. George Dable and Mrs. Betty Dable, both of Acton.

ROCKWOOD

Hallowe'en Party
Held at Town Hall

Hallowe'en was celebrated Saturday afternoon at the town hall for the young folks when they appeared in costume. In the evening, a dance was held with an orchestra in attendance.

When Sunday morning dawned, evidence showed that hoodlums had been busy with pranks. Two tables in Riverside Park had been dumped in the river and allowed to float down to Hartup's mill dam. Covers over street drains were removed, mail boxes on Harris St. disturbed, lights on Valley Road put out and windows along the street soaped.

Fowl Supper

The annual fowl supper of the United Church was attended last Wednesday evening. During the evening, Mrs. Gordon Harris contributed music on the Hammond organ and Reid Benham played his accordion.

Communion Observed

Friday evening, precommunion service was held at the Presbyterian church. Rev. R. H. Armstrong of Knox church, Acton, was present, and conducted the service. Sunday morning, the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper was observed and largely attended. Rev. R. H. Armstrong officiated throughout the service.

At St. John's church Sunday afternoon, Rev. E. H. Jones officiated for the baptismal ceremony for the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton. There was a good attendance at the service.

Miss Pat Linfoot of Victoria Hospital, London, was home for the week-end.
