Injured When Car Skids into Pole

Friends of Mr. Charles Fountain were sorry to hear of his injury he received when his car skidded on the icy road and smashed into a hydro pole. All wish him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Horton and family visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Patterson.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Majby, Rockwood, visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brub and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fountain, of Guelph, spent the week-end at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fountain and family.

Miss Helen Parker, Guelph, spent the week-end at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Omar Parker.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Benham visited on Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Jack McNeill, Ricky and Randy, Guelph.

Mrs. David Towell, Toronto, is visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Aitken and Miss Jennie Towell.

Miss Jennie Towell visited with Mrs. Roy Hindley at the nursing home, Fergus, last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. McKoon, Berlin, New Hampshire, U.S.A., visited over the week-end with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Stewart and Bill.

Several from the village attended the service at No. 10 school Monday night put on by the Rockwood Institute.

Several other resolutions, one to have governmental aid for indigent patients and additional subsidy on rock excavation on roads, were deferred for further committee reports.

Members approved granting the Canadian Institute for the Blind a sum of $500 for 1955, which was an increase over previous years.

A petition from the Nassagaweya Ratepayers, sponsored at the regular nomination meeting read as follows: "We the ratepayers of Nassagaweya township express our lack of confidence in the ability of the County Road Engineer to provide adequate county roads in the township of Nassagaweya."

Both Wardens Shannon and Reeve Service urged council to file the resolution especially when the engineer was confined to hospital. It was earlier reported Roy F. Smith has been sent to hospital about two weeks ago for a heart ailment.

A petition from the jail employees seeking increased pay was read and referred to the County Building Committee for further study.

Wear Ancient Hats
The Women's Institute held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. Dan Campbell, Acton, with the president presiding, Mrs. Ernie McEnery, as convener of historical research and current events. Mrs. William Kirkwood gave the motto for Mrs. William McLean, The great use of a life is to spend it for something that outlasts it.

Readings were given by Mrs. Robert McEnery, Mrs. Snow, Mrs. Archie McEnery and Mrs. Ernie McEnery. Roll call was answered by wearing the oldest hat you can find. Some quite ancient ones were worn.

The social committee served a nice lunch and all enjoyed a social time together.

Slides at Concert
The Mission Band held a concert in the hall on Saturday when Mac Spry presented his pictures on his trip which everyone enjoyed.

Mrs. Cameron McEnery is in Toronto Hospital undergoing observation. We hope she may be much improved and soon be able to return home.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Sinclair and family visited with Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sinclair over the week-end.

The Mission Band met in the basement of the church on Sunday for their February meeting.

Mrs. F. Anderson
Limehouse Speaker

Guests and a special speaker attended the February meeting of the Limehouse Women's Institute, Thursday, February 3, at the home of Mrs. A. W. Benton. 15 members and four guests were present. The president, Mrs. E. Sanford, welcomed the guests and speaker. Minutes were approved, followed by the treasurer's report and correspondence.

The flower and fruit committee reported several letters of thanks for fruit, boxes and plants received and one letter of grateful thanks from England for a food parcel received Christmas Eve.

Mrs. Gishy is to carry on with the school garden. A card was to be sent Mrs. W. Gordon, who recently met with an unfortunate accident.

Mrs. James Noble took the meeting on agriculture and Canadian industries. Miss W. Ivens gave the motto, My country is the world, my countryman, mankind.

Mrs. Noble welcomed the guests from Acton and the speaker, Mrs. F. Anderson, district convener of agriculture and Canadian industries. Mrs. Anderson gave a most interesting and enjoyable talk on agriculture. Although not raised on a farm as a little girl, she always thought and felt the farm was a happy place and a place of security. Agriculture is a leading occupation. The basic need in life is three-fold—work, recreation and worship.

Mrs. Kirkpatrick reported a surprise given the Stuart Wrights, who recently moved to Toronto, when guests came laden with gifts. For home economics and health, Mrs. J. Roughley told of a new bandage. For agriculture, Mrs. James Noble told of making cloth from wheat.

Mrs. Roughley thanked Mrs. Anderson for coming out on a cold night to speak and the ladies who accompanied her.

Mrs. E. Karn, accompanied by Mrs. J. Roughley, sang A Little Grey Home in the West. After the Queen, the hostess and assistants served a delicious lunch.

T. White, Milton, was given the contract to print the Magistrate's blanks and other forms.

Appointed to the County Road Committee were: Reeve Robert Marshall, 1955-6-7-8-9; Reeve Archie Service, 1955-6-7-8; Reeve Wilfred Bird, 1955-6-7-8; Deputy Reeve Fred Walker, 1955-6-7-8. The warden and clerk were authorized to petition the Minister of Highways for the statutory grants on $271,033.92, as expended on county roads in 1954.

The usual by-law to borrow $300,000 at four and a quarter per cent to meet current expenses was approved.

Warden Shannon and Treasurer Miss Margaret Maxted were appointed to the County Board of Audit. Other members will include the County Judge and Crown Attorney.

Council endorsed resolutions from Wentworth County and Oxford County who were seeking to have the provincial government place more control over the delivery of fuel oil and gasoline. They sought to have trucks carry only one type of fuel and also have a proper printing and metering device which would show the amount of fuel delivered to a customer.

File Nassagaweya Petition
Several other resolutions, one to have governmental aid for indigent patients and additional subsidy on rock excavation on roads, were deferred for further committee reports.

Members approved granting the Canadian Institute for the Blind a sum of $500 for 1955, which was an increase over previous years.

A petition from the Nassagaweya Ratepayers, sponsored at the regular nomination meeting read as follows: "We the ratepayers of Nassagaweya township express our lack of confidence in the ability of the County Road Engineer to provide adequate county roads in the township of Nassagaweya."

Acton Sweeps Up In Wild 12-2 Game

Acton Junior Farmers, local team of three, in the semi-finals, overran top-ranking Palermo 12 to 2 in Milton Monday in a match when tempers flared.

Penalties were as plentiful as goals with minors, majors and a match misconduct. Injuries also marred the encounter.

D. Currie scored three goals for Acton and was credited with an assist. His all-round play was also noteworthy. D. McKenzie counted three goals and two assists. For Palermo, M. Tasker sparked on defense until he was injured at the beginning of the third period.

Acton swept the first period with three goals, McKenzie (Somerville), F. Currie (Scott, D. Currie), D. Currie (Scott), while Deblaw copped a penalty for the same side.

Somerville scored the fourth goal for Acton in the second period before Palermo answered when Price whacked home a counter on an assist from D. Vivian. The frame's penalties went to Pelletterio of Palermo and Scott of Acton.

The third period blossomed into wild play. Even before any goals were scored Palermo player K. Vivian drew minor penalties and his team mate Price a five minute major and two minors. Tyler and Wheeler of Acton were off the ice for minor offences.

Palermo, trying to put the heat on an attempt to uphold their reputation, was upped another goal thanks to D. Vivian before Acton enthusiastically and wildly tallied a flurry of eight goals.

D. Vivian was sent from the ice with a 10 minute misconduct penalty while L. Vivian collected two minors; Richardson, Greer and Tyler all received minor penalties.

Scoring during the session for Acton were McKenzie (Scott, F. Currie), McKenzie (F. Currie), Wheeler, D. Currie (McKenzie), D. Currie (McKenzie), Somerville, Scott (M. Sprowl), M. Sprowl (F. Currie).

Acton—Marshall, Tyler, I. Thompson, Deblaw, C. Thompson, Wheeler, McKenzie, Somerville, D. Currie, Scott, M. Sprowl.

Palermo—Lillycrop, Regg, Flippance, L. Vivian, M. Tasker, D. Vivian, Price T. Tasker, Richardson, K. Vivian, Pelletterio, Marshall, Greer.

PASSENGERS SCARED BUT UNINJURED IN CAR ACCIDENT NEAR BRAMPTON

Luckily no one was injured in the car driven by Peter Klouster, on Friday night. The accident occurred near Brampton, when a truck which was fitting out on the highway was struck by an oncoming car, which in turn swerved into the opposite lane of traffic. Peter quickly steered over to miss the car but was struck on the right back fender. None of his passengers were injured but all received a bad scare.

"This Old House"
