Ninety-five persons out of a hundred are right-handed, we are told. Almost incredible; surely more than five out of a hundred get left.

Presbyterian Anniversary And Fowl Supper

The anniversary services of Chalmer's Presbyterian church were held on Sunday. Rev. J. B. Snyder of Dundalk, who conducted the services last year, again took charge and preached two splendid sermons, which were in keeping with the anniversary season. Special music was provided by the choir and also by the Markdale Presbyterian church choir, which had charge of the musical section at night. There was a large attendance at both services.

A fowl supper was given on Monday evening. A short concert was then given which consisted partially of local talent. Rev. Miller, the pastor, acted as chairman. Solos were gien by Misses Jean and Ruth Wosltencroft and a piano solo by Miss Dorothy Foster. Recitations were enjoyed from Miss Shirley Semple, Mrs. Laurie Pedlar and Mr. Everett Croft.. A violin duet by Misses Jean and Ruth Wolstencroft was enjoyed, as were also a number of selections by the Fourth Line orchestra. The National Anthem brought a very enjoyable and successful evening to a close. The proceeds amouned to over $60.

Hallowe'n Depradations

Hallowe'en drew out crowds of youngsters who travelled the rounds of village homes and were treated to candies, nuts and cookies, enough to delight the hearts of any boy or girl. Various combinations of costumes adorned the celebrating young limbs, and all the youngsters enjoyed themselves to the fullest degree. We believe that most of the small outhouses in town are in a reclining position this morning, while the market square was littered with wagons, implements and other items the boys picked up. Altogether it appears as though he boys and girls enjoyed themselves.

When a Peterboro coroner ordered two men jailed he called attention to the fact that a coroner is the boss of his court in the same sense that a captain is boss of his ship. Under the law he has certain powers not possessed even by a High Court.

Sugar Refineries in Canada

LARGE PART OF SUGAR MADE IN CANADA IS FROM BEETS

Sugar refining is a considerable industry in Canada. Eight refineries operate in the Dominion, one at Dartsmouth, Nova Scotia; one at St. John, N.B.; two at Montreal; one at Chatham and one at Wallaceburg, Ont.; one at Raymond, Alta., and one at Vancouver, B.C. The value of production from these eight refineries in 1932 was $41,022,589. Practically all the output finds a ready market in Canada. Last year the exports of sugar from the Dominion amounted to 9,483,000 pounds valued at $428,337. A large part of the sugar produced in Canada is made from beets, the factories in Ontario and Alberta depend wholly on locally grown crops.

They're going to incorporate a company to hunt treasure in Nova Scotia Just another fishing expedition.

Every week in the year a preference should be given to Ontario farm products. Some of them, aspecially fruits and vegetables, are not at all times on the market. But consumers will not suffer if they wait a few weeks until our own products are marketable. The purchase of early imported foreign stuff takes the edge off the demand for Ontario products when they are in season. If urban dwellers purchase more of our farm products our rural friends, in turn, will be able to purchase more urban industrial products. In this important respect the interests of urban and rural communities are closely interlocked.

Live Stock Report

Faced with plain quality cattle traders showed little interest on the Toronto live stock market Tuesday; consequently about 2,000 head were unsold at the close. Although practically all the fresh supply was plain quality, prices held unchanged with Monday's level. Veal calves, sheep and lambs held steady. Receipts included 1,580 cattle, 520 calves and 1,410 sheep and lambs.

Weighty steers sold at $2 to $4, with butchers at the same level. Cutters moved slowly at $1.75 to $1.90 Good butcher cows brought $2 to $2.25, with a few tops $2.50. Canners closed at 75 cents, with bolognas $1.25 to $1.75. Fed calves remained slow throughout trading, with prices ranging from $4 to $6.50 per cwt. Good western calves sold up to $4.

Choice veal calves sold at $7 to $7.50, with common vealers $3. A few thin grassers brought $1.50 to $2.25 per cwt.

Good ewes and wether lambs brought $6 to $6.25, with one small lot $6.35. Other grades ranged from $4 to $5.50. Sheep brought $1 to $2.50 per cwt., according to quality.

Hogs f.o.b. lost Monday's advance of five cents per cwt. yesterday. The remainder held unchanged. Bacons sold at 5.10 f.o.b., $5.35 to $5.40 off trucks and $5.60 to $5.65 weighed off cars. Receipts totalled 1,130 head.

Egg Prices Advance

Egg prices have been advancing by leaps and bounds recently due to the scarcity of fresh eggs on the market which at the present time is absorbing storage eggs. The offerings in Flesherton are very low at the present time and to-day (Wednesday) the following prices are being paid: Extras 35c, firsts 32c, pullet extras 26c cracks and seconds 16c.

A DOG'S SAGACITY

While the Dinnick family were having a family reunion recently—the first time for eight years — a dog which they had sold sixteen months ago, came to the door and barked for admission. Upon being admitted he greeted each member of the family in a joyful manner, evidently delighted to be home again. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dinnick and two children, Toronto; Rev. and Mrs. N. H. Dinnick and two children; Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Dinnnick and son and Marjorie, Donald and Marion at home.—Orangeville Banner.

Pigs Killed In Accident

While on his way to Toronto Tuesday with a load of hogs Mr. Frank Taylor had his truck side-swiped by a transport truck with trailer, owned in Midland. Two hogs were killed outright in the accident, while a third died on its way to Toronto. Mr. Taylor's truck had the stock rack smashed but no other damage resulted and the Midland outfit was unharmed. After the impact pigs and rack were spread around the road and considerable difficulty was experienced in getting the pigs into the truck again. The accident occurred three miles east of Shelburne at the Primrose corner.

COW BEARS TWENTIETH CALF

Mr. Wm. McConnell of Ashfield formerly in the livery business in Lucknow with the late John Blake, can boast of a cow, that for age and accomplishment will be hard to equal The cow is 23 years old and has given birth to twenty calves, eighteen of them while she has been owned by Mr. McConnell. Due to age and infirmities the owner had considered doing away with her as a humanitarian act. Failing to come to the barn last week as usual, Mr. McConnell set out over his fields expecting to find the beast dead. To his surprise he found her much alive and the mother of her twentieth calf for which she supplies more milk than the offspring can consume.—Lucknow Sentinel.

HE'D RATHER BE A DRAKE

A little boy in a public school was asked to describe a duck. The following is his description.

"The duck is a low, heavy-set bird composed mostly of meat, bill and feathers. His head rests on one end and he sets on the other. There is some skin between his toes, and he carries a toy baloon in his stomach to keep him from sinking. The duck has only two legs and they are set so far back on his running gear that they come near missing his body. Some ducks when they get big are called drakes. Drakes don't have to set or hatch, but just loaf, go swimming, and eat, if I had to be a duck I'd rather be a drake every time. Ducks don't give milk but eggs."

Young man in court on hold-up charge, admitted he had a gun and probably would have used it if necessary. In a very real way that made him as guilty as though he had used it.
