HOW TO AVOID GROWING OLD

Always drive fast out of alleys.

Always race with locomotives to crossings. Engineers like it; it breaks the monotony of their jobs.

Always pass the car ahead on a curve or a turn. Don't use your horn. It may unnerve the other fellow and cause him to turn out too far.

Always demand half the road—the middle half. Insist on your rights.

Always speed; it shows people you are a man of pep, even though you are an amateur driver.

In slippery weather drive close to pedestrians; dry cleaners like it.

Never stop, look or listen at railway crossings. It consumes time.

Drive confidentially, just as if there were not eighteen million cars in service.

Always lock your brakes when skidding, it makes the job more artistic.

Always pass cars on hills. It shows you have more power; and you can turn out if you meet a car at the top.

Never look around when you are backing up. There is never anything behind you.

IN MEMORIAM

GIBSON — In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Ella Gibson, who passed away November 29, 1928.

There are some ones who miss you sadly
And find the years long since you went,
There are some ones who think of you daily
But try to be brave and content.

—Sadly missed by Mother, Dad, Brothers and Sister.

IN MEMORIAM

GIBSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, Ella Gibson, who passed away November 29th., 1928, also our dear father, William A Gibson, who passed away October 17th., 1924.

What would we give their hands to clasp,
Their dear kind faces to see,
To hear their voices, to see their smiles
That meant so much to us?
You have left behind some aching hearts
That loved you most sincere.
That never did nor never will
Forget our parents dear.

—Ever remembered by Your Children

A market report says "the dollar was weak." But what kind of dollars? Just try to chase one and see how the beggar can go skipping around.

Milk trucks with water in the cans put out a fire at Snow Hill, Md. If we were living there we'd be awfully suspicious of our milk man.

HE COULD SWEAR TO IT

Judge: If, as you admit, you were three miles away digging potatoes when this man was arrested for speeding, how can you testify that the car was only going 20 miles an hour?

Sambo: Jedge, Ah used to own that cnah.
