IGNORE HIS WEAKNESS

(Stayner Sun)

How very easy it is for us to acquire the habit of finding weak spots in the conduct or character of our fellowmen. Have you ever noticed, dear reader, how easy it is for the conversation to drift into a discussion of the other fellow?

It would be quite alright if we contented ourselves with commenting upon and praising his virtues; but, invariably we criticize him for his vices, however small in importance they may be. Isn't it a pity that we cannot see ourselves as we are being seen, and realize that if we are finding fault with others, others are finding fault with us. It would be a fine habit to cultivate; namely that of recognizing another's ability and virtues, not ignoring his weaknesses, but correcting and moulding our own characters by avoiding the pitfalls, temptations and mannerisms to which he has fallen prey—and then, by reason of our overcoming these obstacles in our own lives, help the other fellow out of his difficulties and aid him to reach a higher plane in manly conduct, by giving him the benefit of our experience.

"When life's journey is ended and my tasks on earth are done, no greater epitaph than this could I wish for on my tombstone; "He helped his fellowmen."

HARD ON HOTELS

(Alliston Herald)

One of the hardest hit institutions of this country during the depression is the hotel. It has been an incessant sufferer because of the curtailing of expense accounts of all manner of people. In Toronto alone three of the best hotels are being operated by receivers for the benefit of creditors and all over the country hotel services have been noticeably curtailed. A man today may carry it to the elevator whereas five years ago a bell hop was on the watch for him if he parked his car a couple of blocks from the hotel entrance. If the Royal York in Toronto has several flats closed and unused as rumor asserts what must be the plight of C.N.R. hotels whose deficits the country has been forced to meet in past years? The bill for shortage in these hotels this year is likely to be a heavy one.

OTHER PAPERS OPINIONS DESERVING OF PRAISE

(Dundalk Herald)

If there's one class of people who deserve a good deal of praise it is the individual who is making an honest effort to pay his debts. Businessmen are sure to run into some disappointments, and it is surely refreshing to have people come forward to wipe off a debt at the time they've promised, be the payment in wood, produce, cash or some other form.

The man who is honorable enough to meet his obligations or at least show that he is trying to should get hearty encouragement. In so doing, he not only raises himself in the estimation of the people with whom he does business but increases his own peace of mind and self-respect, which means that he cannot help but be a better citizen. It is the slackers who cause business firms to "go on the rocks" and tend to lessen our faith in our fellow men. All honor to the man who keeps his word and pays his debts.

KINDNESS TO TAXPAYERS

(Parry Sound Canadian)

The Listowel Standard remarks that no one claims it is fair to those who pay their taxes to allow others not to. When all is said and done, is it an act of kindness to any taxpayer to permit his taxes to go unpaid year after year? The penalty charges mount very fast. The taxes must be paid some time, and when the day of reckoning comes, as it always does, the amount to be paid for the taxes, plus penalties, is much higher than would be required were the taxes paid when first due. The person who puts off paying the taxes when due is, generally speaking, inviting trouble later on. To force payment of taxes when due may at the time seem unkind, but really is it not an act of kindness in most cases?

Has Had Long Service

Friday's nomination for the council of the Township of Artemesia was the 54th time that Mr. W. J. Bellamy, Clerk of the township, has presided over the nominations of candidates for the council. Mr. Bellamy's long experience as clerk has given him a fund of knowledge that is invaluable in assisting the council in carrying on the township work. It is doubtful if Mr. Bellamy's service as clerk has an equal in Ontario.

CHANGES ARE MADE IN PARCEL POST RATES

To become operative at once, several important changes in the regulations governing parcel post are announced by the postal department.

As a result of these changes, it is now possible to send parcels weighing up to 25 pounds by parcel post. Formerly the weight limit was 15 pounds. Parcels weighing from 15 to 20 pounds are placed in one weight group and parcels weighing from 20 to 25 pounds in another.

Another important change is one by which the charges will be determined by the weight to the nearest pound. In the past every fraction of a pound counted as a full pound. For instance, a parcel weighing one pound three ounces would formerly have gone under the two pound charge. Now it comes under the one pound rate.

The third change is in regard to insurance. All parcels can be insured free at the sender's request for any amount up to $50. Over $50 the rate will be 12 cents for amounts up to $1.00. No insurance is issued for amounts over $100. Formerly it cost three cents to insure a parcel for amounts up to $5, 6 cents to insure it for amounts between $5 and $25, 12 cents for amounts from $25 to $50, and 30 cents for amounts from $50 to $100.

STORE FARM MACHINERY FOR WINTER REPAIR

Place all farm equipment under cover at this time of year, but store it with a view to convenience in removing to repair during the winter. In repairing inspect all the field machinery; tighten all frame bolts; clean and wash the bearings with coal oil or gasoline; overhaul and straighten all bent members, replace unserviceable parts; sharpen all cutting edges and apply a coat of paint where required. Winter repairing insures against breakdowns, loss and annoyance in rush seasons.

Artemesia Council Has Acclamation

Artemesia township council was elected to office by acclamation at the nomination meeting held in the town hall, Flesherton, on Friday afternoon of last week. Reeve J. A. Davis continues to preside over the municipal destines of the township, while Cecil Meldrum is Deputy-Reeve and the council members including Messrs. Robt. Purvis, Elmer Warling and I. B. Whittaker. Apparently the work of the entire council was favorable to all the ratepayers of the township, as they were the only ones to be nominated for their offices, the reported contest not coming to a head. Each of the council members gave an account of the council work during the year, Reeve Davis and Deputy-Reeve Meldrum giving special attention to county affairs.

Very little interest was shown in the nomination this year by the ratepayers, as the meeting was held in the basement of the hall and at no time was the room filled. However, those who attended heard some splendid addresses by the councillors.

The finances of the township were shown to be in excellent condition, receipts amounting to $31,532.63 and expenditures of $30,040.53, leaving a balance in the bank of $1492.10. Assets amount to $5,420.83 over liabilities, among the assets being arrears of taxes amounting to $5,003.

Cutter Ditched Car

There are others besides car drivers who run away from accidents, as is seen by an occurrence near Rock Mills one night last week. It was a dark night and car lights did not penetrate any distance through a light fog, when suddenly a cutter loomed up directly in the centre of the road in front of the car driver, who immediately turned the car into the ditch in order to avoid colliding with the cutter. The driver of the horse drawn vehicle immediately speeded up the steed and did not stop to assist in extricating the car from the roadside, the reason being that there was no light on the cutter and the driver realized that he was entirely in the wrong and was afraid of having to pay for any damage inflicted to the car. This man is in the same class as the hit-and-run motorist, who leaves an accident victim to the mercy of others. Drivers of horse-drawn vehicles should see that they are equipped with a light that will show after dark, not only to protect others, but also to protect themselves from injury.

STORING VEGETABLES FOR WINTER

Select well-grown, disease-free unblemished material and handle it carefully to avoid mechanical injuries. An earth floor basement under a dwelling house or a regular root cellar may be used. Proper ventilation is very important and a temperature of 34 degrees Fahrenheit should be maintained. The beet, cabbage, carrot, celery, parsnip, potato and turnip require dark, slightly moist storage space, while onions do best under dry

Flesherton Council Remains The Same

H. A. McCauley was elected by acclamation on Friday evening to serve his fourth year as Reeve of Flesherton. The four councillors were also elected by acclamation, these being C. N. Richardson, G. B. Welton, J. O. Dargavel and A. Down. Mr. John Pedlar presided over the meeting and raised a number of questions for the councillors to answer. This was Mr. Pedlar's eleventh year as chairman of the nomination night speaking.

Reeve McCauley gave an excellent address on the work of the County Council and of his actions on the Road Committee of the county. In speaking of village affairs he stated that the finances were in excellent shape, but for the electors not to expect any further reduction in taxes, as he thought the bottom had been reached. $10,413.14 had been received during the year, while $9,559.93 had been expended, leaving a balance in the bank of $853.21. Assets over liabilities amounted to $4,019.78.

Mr. C. N. Richardson, secretary of the local Hydro commission, gave his report for the year and showed the cash on hand on October 31st to be $2,500. Domestic and commercial revenue compares very favorably with last year, while power revenue shows an increase of nearly 300 per cent. He stated that there were 51 street lights for which is paid $11 per year each, an increase of $1. per light over last year. There are 179 accounts in the village, not including Eugenia, and the total outstanding for light and power is not over $40.

The three other councillors also spoke and explained their expenditures for the year, which showed on the financial statement of the treasurer, Mr. F. H. W. Hickling.

New Grades For Eggs

Important amendments, whereby further protection is afforded to both producers and consumers, have been made in the egg regulations by Order-in-Council. The new grades consist of 'A-1', 'A', 'B' and 'C' in place of "Specials," "Ertras," "Firsts" and "Seconds." The words "New laid" may be applied only to grade A-1 and the word "fresh," or any other equivalent of that word, to grades A-1 and A.

Grades A-1 and A are divided respectively into three classes, Large, Medium and Pullet and all eggs possessing the quality of Grade A may be sold in that grade irrespective of size, but the eggs of different sizes must be packed separately, with the size indicated on the container. As grade A-1 is a super grade, the packing of eggs of this grade may be done only by producers authorized by the Dominion Department of Agriculture. Storage eggs are not permitted to be sold in a higher grade than B.

"B" grade consists of reasonably clean eggs, sound in shell, and eggs weighing less than the rate of 22 ounces to the dozen shall not be graded in B. There are two classes, Large (24 ounces) and Medium (22 to 24 ounces).

"C" grade consists of all eggs below A and B grades, but which are fit for human consumption.

PUBLISHING NAMES OF PENSIONERS

County councils do not publish the names of those who are recommended for old age pensions but publish the names of those who are indigent patients in public hospitals. Why the discrimination? We notice at the last meeting of Albemarle township council it was moved by Rydall, seconded by Urbschott and carried to recommend that Mrs. Jane Crawford be placed on the old age pension list as she has no available income and cannot support herself. There is no disgrace in being poor and as the ratepayers of Albemarle are helping to pay the pension of this woman the council did the right thing in making public the fact that she was deserving of help.—Chesley Enterprise.

A King's Decree

Long ago a wicked King decreed that all the children of a given age must die. Such cruel times seem long past, and we are grateful for it—but is Herod dead, or does he live again in the indifference of some, which permits consumption still to claim many innocent children for its own?

Children, especially those of tender years, are particularly susceptible to consumption. It is a disease from which, unaided, they seldom can recover, but given help such as the Queen Mary Hospital affords, their chances are increased ninefold.

They come, these pale and wan little ones, too ill to care what goes on. The hospital is manned and equipped, ready to turn your dollars into their health. Will you help bring back their smiles?

Please send your gift to George A. Reid, Treasurer, 223 College Street, Toronto. 2.

WILL YOU INVEST $1.50 IN PROSPERITY?

Good times, that is, times of normally prosperous conditions, are here, waiting for us to put them to work. Industrial and financial leaders tell us so. Bankers tell us also that savings were never as great. Last year savings accounts throughout Canada increased by millions of dollars. There's where the "good times" conditions are—tied up in Savings Banks accounts, when a lot of it should be paid on accounts, and the balance of that increase spent in normal buying at prevailing low prices would have us well on the way to normal good conditions.

Here's How Your $1.50 Works—

You decide to invest $1.50 in prosperity—The best way is to buy something that you have been putting off buying, or to pay it on account—and if you owe us an account, preferably our account. Here's what happens—That $1.50 is paid out in wages, or we pay an account; the one who receives it from us buys something he needs or pays an account, until finally you receive your $1.50 back, either in articles sold, if you are in business, or in wages as your place of employment receives orders that your $1.50 has helped create.

The Advance has subscriptions in arrears — $1.50 accounts. Each one paid means $1.50 more going into circulation and helps us pay our bills.

LOOK AT THE LABEL TODAY. If you are in arrears, make your investment in prosperity with us.
