(Last Week's Items)

Mr. J. W. Robinson spent last week with friends in Toronto.

Winter started in early this year and has been pretty severe for a start, the first heavy snow coming about October 24th and cold, stormy weather came shortly after. Those who did not get their turnips housed before November have not had a chance since.

The tax collector, Mr. D. Cameron, is making his rounds, the taxes being somewhat lower this year. Our telephone premiums which are collected with the taxes are $1.00 less this year. The municipal telephone system is giving good satisfaction Those who have their debentures paid out just have to pay seven dollars each for maintenance.

Miss Jean Ross of Maxwell visited with her sister, Mrs. Milton Nichol last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Pedlar visited with Mr. and Mrs. James Pedlar on the Fourth Line recently.

For the first time in the memory of the oldest resident this district is without the services of a resident doctor as Dr. Carr-Harris has gone to Toronto, where he has obtained a practice.

The Durham Furniture Co. is taking out the logs on their farm on Con. A, north of the 12th Line of Osprey. Mr. D. Weber of Kimberley has the contract of cutting and delivering the logs to Rock Mills, 3 miles east of Flesherton.

There are few busier things than idle gossip.

EUGENIA

Spring-like weather at time of writing.

Don't forget the 8th Line school concert, which will be held on Tuesday, December 19.

Rev. Mr. McNeill preached a very inspiring sermon on Sunday from the 8th Chap. of Acts, "Philip and the Ethiopian church. It is too bad there were not more out to hear the sermon. There were 40 in attendance at Sunday school in the afternoon. Next Sunday, Sunday school will be held at 2.30 p.m.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Williams and son, Joe, are moving to apartments in Mr. Harry Genoe's residence on the Collingwood gravel. We understand Mr. Genoe has built an addition to his house.

Speaking of climbing to prosperity let us not forget that no one runs uphill quicker than he ran down.

In one district of Saskatchewan 300 horses died of starvation. And yet there are many bushels of oats in the elevators there.

We have found that in order to get a loan from the proposed central bank it would be necessary to have first class security. What enthusiasm we had for the new scheme has since dropped a couple of degrees.

PRICEVILLE

It was disquieting to learn that Mrs. Alex. Carson had suffered a paralytic stroke. We hope that this fine and friendly neighbor may soon recover, and be spared many years yet to her family and friends.

The mild weather of the past week has left travelled roads very icy, tho' a pleasure to be on terra firma again for us.

Mrs. D. G. McLean left on Thursday to spend the winter with her daughter, Mrs. Harry Richardson, in Toronto. Her brother, Mr. McTaggart, (Gorrie) also accompanied her.

Mr. Spicer and family will occupy the house vacated by Mrs. McLean until April.

Messrs. J. M. McGillivray and H. B. McLean took in the Royal Winter fair and report a pleasurable and instructive outing. Mrs. H. Eckhardt and son, also took in the big event.

Whither is the world drifting? What with rumors of war, rearmaments, kidnappings, lynchings, and alleged cruelties in children's shelters, not forgetting the penitentiary troubles, the world is not getting any better. The repeal of all temperance acts is another serious backward step. The proposition to erect a shaft or monument to the fallen horses of the war, when many of our fallen boys graves are unmarked; this is a huge mistake. Many men incapacitated and many others knowing not where the next bite is to come from, here in our own land. The cost might better be given to lands without the Bible.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Bowes, Markdale, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. McLean, Saturday. We are glad to know their son, Cosby is fully recovered.

Despite the inclement weather a large crowd attended the Ladies' Aid meeting Wednesday at Mrs. Fred Marshall's. Mrs. Haw, the president was in the chair. After the Scripture reading, the roll call was responded to with an "inexpensive Christmas gift suggestion." A ways and means committee was appointed to assist the property committee in financing the new hall. The December meeting will be held at Mrs. A. C. Muir's.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Sinclair opened their home Friday evening to a jolly crowd in honor of three former Ceylonians, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Bean (Edna McLeod); Dr. and Mrs. Sharpe (Minnie McArthur) of Red Creek, N. Y.; and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Essex (Margaret McArthur) Regina. The guests spent the evening at cards and dancing; music being supplied by the Piper orchestra, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Cairns and Mr. and Mrs. J. McDonald Those from a distance who attended were: Mr. Brock Patton, Toronto; Mr and Mrs. Luther Torry and son, Jack Lauriston; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Bailey Shrigley; Mr. and Mrs. Will. McKenzie of Dromore.

MAXWELL

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Dickson (nee Violet Parker) honored them with a shower and dance recently. They received many useful and lovely gifts.

On Friday, December 1st, the members of the Anglican church, who took part in the play here, gave a complimentary fowl supper to those who assisted them in putting on the program for the sausage supper. A real good time was enjoyed by all.
