Funeral of Mrs. W. J. Bellamy

The funeral of the late Mrs. W. J. Bellamy was held on Wednesday of last week from the United church, her pastor, Rev. W. J. Scott, M. A., taking the service, and preaching a very comforting sermon to the bereaved ones, taking as his text Psalms 90: 14, "Oh satisfy us early with Thy mercy; that we may rejoice and be glad all our days." A large gathering of relatives and friends were present as a last token of respect to one who had spent almost fifty years in our midst.

The pall bearers were Messrs. F. Duncan, H. McCauley, Thos. Fisher, W. G. Kennedy, Geo. McTavish and Alf. Down.

Those who attended the funeral from a distance were: Colonel E. D. McDonald and Capt. J. Keenan of Owen Sound, representing the Grey Regiment; J. N. Perdue, Durham; Mrs. Hockley, Shelburne; Mrs. J. W. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Scott of Hanover.

Floral tributes were received from the following: Officers of Grey Regiment, Mr. and Mrs. T. Scott, Dr. E. H. Henderson and Mrs. J. A. Henderson, Orange Lodge, D. Co. of Grey Regiment, Fred Bellamy, Dr. F. Murray, Mr. Holland, C. C. Middlebro, teachers and pupils of High and Public schools, Meldrum family, Artemesia council, Flesherton council, neighbors, Frank Cairns, Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonald and Bank of Toronto staff at Coldwater.

Hockey Boys Benefit Dance

A meeting of the Flesherton Hockey Club was held in town on Thursday night last and it was decided to enter a senior team in the N.H.L. This movement deserves the support of the people of Flesherton and district and it is hoped that you will do your utmost to show the boys that you are interested. It is only by your combined support that the Hockey Club can exist and we therefore urge you to turn out whenever possible and make the boys feel that their home town does appreciate them. Funds are needed to equip the boys with uniforms and equipment and to this end a dance has been arranged in Fraternal Hall, Flesherton, on Thursday night, December 14th. Round and square dancing to the music of Miss Dorothy Foster's orchestra. Ladies will be admitted free, gents 40c. Refreshments will be served. A good time has been arranged. Make up a carload and come on in. Ladies complimentary tickets have been printed and distributed, but are not essential. Ladies wishing to bring boxes will earn the gratitude of the committee, but do not let this stand in your way. We want a crowd and will extend you a hearty welcome. Tickets at hall door. Don't overlook this dance if you wish to spend a happy evening dancing.

WHAT DO YOU THINK

"I think marriages are really made in heaven, don't you?"

"Well, if all men took as long to propose as you, most of them would have to be."

The Dominion Department of Agriculture is tattooing the ears of pigs to identify those animals that are of high marketing quality. The old saying "In a pig's ear" has thus taken on a new meaning.

Maxwell Presentation

The members of the Maxwell United church choir met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Stephen on Wednesday evening, December 6, in honor of one of their members, Mrs. Emerson Wright (nee Ella Morrison) who has been recently married.

The evening began with a splendid fowl supper, prepared by the choir members, followed by a much enjoyed program of musical selections and recitations. While Mrs. Chas. Brodie read the following address, a lovely wicker fernery was presented to Mrs. Wright by Mrs. Laurie Pedlar on behalf of the choir members:

Dear Mrs. Wright:- We, the choir and its friends of the United church at Maxwell, deem it a great pleasure to assemble here this evening to express to you our appreciation of you as the much esteemed organist and choir leader of our church. The qualities you have exhibited in this leadership has always excited our warmest admiration. The task, we know, has not been carried on without its difficulties and its discouragements and its disappointments, too, we are free to confess. Whatever these may have been you have attended your duty with unruffled patience, cheerful steadfastness and the most commendable tact and wisdom. Your own loyalty and faithfulness have been our chief inspiration in the doing of our duty. It has helped to bring us out to our practices when we were more inclined to stay at home. It has shamed and rebuked us when we were delinquent, and made us promise within ourselves that we would do better.

We want to couple with this appreciation our felicitations to you and your husband on your recent happy marriage. We extend to you both our sincerest wishes for a long, prosperous and happy wedded life in which the sweetest harmonies may unite to cheer and inspire you in all your achievements, that from success to greater success you may pass on your way. We have noted with great concern that oft repeated fact that the marriage of a young lady of great usefulness in the home church has meant the loss of all that to the church where she has served by her removal to some other community, and the corresponding gain to some other church offers little consolation for such loss. It affords us therefore the greatest pleasure to be assured that this will not be so in your case, but on the contrary your marriage but guarantees the permanence of that happy fellowship of service which we have enjoyed for so long.

As a token of our love and esteem for the past and our hopes for the future we ask you to accept this fernery and trust that the living green of which it may be a container will be to you a true symbol of the regard which has prompted us in our presentation of it to you.

Signed on behalf of the choir: John Stephen, Alice Stephen, Chas. Brodie, Nettie Brodie, Geo. Ross, Mabel Ross, Isobel Pedlar, Nellie Cairns, Milton Shouldice, Florence McNeill, Renfred Acheson, Mary Priestley, Kathleen Morrison, A. McNeill.

TRY FLESHERTON FIRST

If not, why not? A dollar spent at home does double work—it helps the home town, and helps all of us to keep our jobs.

There have been no gold coins made in Canada since 1919, and a good many folk have been wondering if they have quit making any other kind.

DIED FROM EXPOSURE

Within hailing distance of his home, crippled Thomas Walker of Stanton was found early Saturday morning practically dead from exposure. He died half an hour after being carried into his home.

The middle-aged farmer had set out Friday to lay traps on the river behind his farm. An injured hip, which at times made movement impossible, made his progress slow but he managed to reach the stream and set his snares.

As he was returning home he fractured a bone in his good leg. He evidently made use of his gun as a crutch and reached within 200 yards of his farm house when he became exhausted and fell. Here he lay unprotected until found early on Saturday morning.

It is said that his cries for help were heard by a neighbor who thought it was the call of an owl.

COLD FEET CAUSED BLAZE

A Mildmay bachelor, who does his own light housekeeping, had a painful experience last Friday night. When he retired to bed his feet were so cold that he put the electric light under the covers with him, and it was not long until he was fast asleep. But what a rude awakening! A short circuit caused the bedclothing to ignite, and while the bachelor slept the quilts and mattress started to blaze. It took very prompt and strenuous efforts to extinguish the fire, and it was not accomplished before the bedding was almost entirely ruined. — Mildmay Gazette.
