Daisy McFadden Dies Wednesday

Death came to our village with awful suddeness early this morning when Daisy, seventeen years of age, the youngest daughter of Mrs. McFadden, passed away after an illness of scarcely two days. She left her place of business at two o'clock on Monday complaining of a cold, Dr. Milne was called that night who pronounced her critically ill, the second doctor was called Tuesday night who gave small hope of a recovery and she passed away at 1 a.m.

Funeral arrangements are pending a message from her sister Florence, who teaches school near Winnipeg. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to the grief-stricken mother, the brothers and sisters and to the aged grandfather.

LATER — The funeral service at the home will be private, and a memorial service will be held on Sunday morning at 11 a.m. in St. John's United church.

THREE YEARS FOR MAN WHO STOLE CLOTHES FROM DEAD BODIES

John Doncaster, charged with offering indignity to a human body, was sentenced to three years in the penitentiary when he appeared in county court at Prince George, British Columbia before Judge E. A. Robertson. The case is believed to be the first of its kind in Canada. Doncaster, witnesses testified at his preliminary hearing, had stolen the clothes from two bodies in the Prince George cemetery. He was the municipal grave-digger.

New Ford V-8 Demonstrated in Town

Thrills aplenty have been the lot of the scores of visitors to the showrooms of Down and Richards, local Ford Dealers, who have been giving demonstrations of the Ford V-8 for 1934, the past week.

Those who have driven the new cars themselves commented most favorably upon its greater power and speed, quicker acceleration, smoother performance and ease of control. There is no question but that the new Ford V-8, while basically like the hundreds of thousands of other Ford V-8's now on the roads, is a great improvement over the cars of the last two years.

NOT TALKING OF HOGS

(By Haywire)

Inside the village store the steam rose from wet boots and snow covered overalls, blue smoke drifted to the ceiling to mingle with the soot from the oil lamps. Outside the wind raged furiously, it swirled and eddied around the corners, drove the snow into drifts across the road and piled it up against fences and buildings. A group of farmers were sitting around the box stove discussing the affairs of village and countryside, their talk wandering from pastures to politics,, from feed to finance. "Waal I guess what this country needs is a change of Government," volunteered old Abe from the Corners. "What would you change to?" enquired the man from the gas-station. "Change of parties won't do no good," asserted Jake Simon, "what we want is a new form of Government.

"And what might you have on your mind?" Abe enquired. "This here communism what the city folks talk about," was the reply, "let us poor fellows get some of the money what's stored up in the banks, let's share things around a bit."

"You mean if you had a thousand dollars and I was hard up you'd share it with me?" "Sure I would," maintained Jake. "And If you had two horses and I hadn't any you'd give me one?" "Sure," "Sure," came the ready reply. "And if you had two cows you'd do the same?" persisted Abe. "Sure." "And if you had two hogs. . ." "Whose talking about hogs? I got two hogs."

Priceville Y.P.S. Met

The weekly meeting of the Y.P.S. of St. Columbia church, Priceville, was held Wednesday night with a large attendance. The devotional and literary groups were in charge of the program.

The meeting was opened with 15 minutes of song service. Miss Alice Reiley was organist for the evening. The president, Miss Weir read the Scripture lesson, and Mr. J. D. MacArthur the explanation. Mr. John Ritchie gave a reading on Christmas in different lands. Mr. Henry Carwell sang two solos which were much enjoyed. Mrs. Joe Harrison gave an interesting talk on her work among the blind and shut-ins of Detroit. The meeting closed with George Mathewson's hymn, "O Love that will not let me go."

The missionary and citizenship groups will have charge of the program next week.

INCREASED EGG SUPPLIES; LOWER PRICES PREVAIL

Receipts of fresh eggs have increased in volume to some extent on the Toronto and Montreal markets, resulting in a fall in prices. An added factor in this recession of prices would appear to be a slackening in consumptive demand, probably due to prices charged to consumers being somewhat too high for the present low spending power of the great majority of consumers at the present time. It is hoped that the somewhat lower retail prices now prevailing will assist in retail sales.

Live Stock Report

An overloaded market, coupled with the fact that packers and butchers are well stocked with beef and fresh cattle, sent cattle prices down 25c on the Toronto live stock market yesterday. Low receipts enabled the holdover to be reduced from 1,700 head to 1,500. Hogs were the only live stock to show an advance, jumping 20c, and at the close were up 35c for the week. Calves, sheep and lambs closed firm.

A few choice weighty steers sold from $4.50 to $5. Butcher cattle ranged from $2.50 to $4.25, with good cows from $2.25 to $2.50. Canners closed unchanged at 75c. Choice fed calvesbrought tops from $6.50 to $7, with others down to $4.50. Light stockers brought $2.25 to $3.25. Milkers and springers sold slow at tops of mostly $35.

The calf market closed steady and unchanged at $6.50 to $7 for choice vealers and $3 for common.

Hogs advanced 20c under active buying to close at $5.85 f.o.b. for bacons, $6.10 off trucks, and $6.35 off cars.

Lamb trade held firm at $7.75 for good ewes and wethers. Culls, bucks and heavies ranged from $3.50 to $7. Odd choice lots of lambs went as high as $8.50.

Starlings have another black mark against their record as destructive pests. Grape growers in the Niagara district claim they destroy the vines and crops.
