The service in St. John's United church next Sabbath evening will be held at 10.30 p.m. instead of at 7 and will be a "Watch Night" service. It is some years since such a service has been held in Flesherton, and should be well attended.

Postmaster W. W. Trimble reports fairly heavy mails through the local post office prior to the Christmas holiday and with an extra staff on hand was kept busy despatching the mail as it came in. The noon train on Saturday was two and a half hours late in reaching this station, due to the heavy holiday passenger traffic and heavy mail deliveries along the route. The afternoon train from Owen Sound was also late in arriving.

At the last Sabbath evening service in St. John's United church, Rev. W. J. Scott, M. A., told the story of "The Other Wise Man" by Henry Van Dyke; the man who started out to find the Christ, but because he was so busy in giving assistance, and comforting those in need, he never overtook his other three companions and so missed seeing the Babe and His Mother; but said Jesus "inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of one of these ye have done it unto Me."

Miss Marion Bibby of Toronto is visiting her mother this week.

Mrs. M. Jamieson is visiting this week in Owen Sound.

Miss Winnifred Talbot and her brother, Clifford, of Dundalk spent a day with their cousin, Annie Akins.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Bentham last week had a pleasant telephone talk with their son, Mr. E. D. Bentham, from his home in Saskatoon, Sask. His voice carried perfectly over the long distance and was a pleasant surprise to his parents.

When Mark Twain was editor of a Missouri newspaper, a subscriber wrote to him saying he had found a spider in his paper and asking Mark whether this was a sign of good or bad luck. The reply was as follows: "Old Subscriber,—Finding a spider in your paper was neither good luck nor bad luck for you. The spider was merely looking over your paper to see which merchant is not advertising so that he can go to that store, spin his web across the door, and lead the life of undisturbed peace ever afterward."

The Christmas Concert

A large crowd attended the second annual Christmas concert given by the committee of the Fraternal Hall on Monday evening and were pleased with the program presented. Musical Hawaiian selections were given by Messrs. Wes. Armstrong and Percy Rutt and by a Feversham quartette, which sang two numbers. Several high school students gave a humorous skit, "Fat chance to get thin," that was very amusing, as was a broadcast by the Feversham Fun-Makers depicting the efforts to secure a radio program with four stations interfering.

The main presentation of the evening was a mock trial of Constable Jos. Field of Flesherton on three charges, one of leaving his post of duty at the corner of Durham street and Chatsworth Blvd. without leave. Another of causing the main intersection to be blocked and the last of neglecting to protect the property of citizens on Hallowe'en night, but keeping a watch on his own. The first two charges were suspended and he was found guilty on the third charge. This number caused howls of laughter. Mr. S. H. Stauffer acted as Judge; Dr. W. D. Bryce as Crown Attorney; Herb Akins, defence counsel; G. B. Welton, Sheriff and C. S. McTavish as Deputy Sheriff. The charges were laid by Reeve H. A. McCauley.

Prior to the commencement of the concert the Piper orchestra presented several musical numbers. Mr. A. Down, chairman of the hall committee acted as chairman for the evening.

A dance was held following the concert, the Dorothy Foster-Jack Perkins orchestra providing the music.
