Carry A Light When Driving At Night

His Honor Judge Owens made an important decision at the Division Court sittings here last week, a decision that should clear up a very contentious question and establish a hard and fast rule concerning the use of lights while driving cattle on the highway after dark. In giving judgment to a motorist for damages sustained when his car crashed into a cow on the highway at dusk, His Honor pointed out that when cattle are being driven on the highway after dark they must be accompanied by persons carrying a light, one in front and one behind. That the farmer in the case, who had failed to comply with this rule, was elected to pay the damages is a clear indication of what can be expected in similar cases in the future. Since the law compelling all vehicles to carry a light after dark came into force there have been numerous accidents because of failure to comply with the law. Judge Owens decision places the onus of blame squarely on those who disregard the law. It is hoped that all those who have occasion to use the highways after dark will realize their responsibility and carry lights.—Southampton Beacon.

Donald McDonald Dies Suddenly In Hospital

Death came suddenly to Donald MacDonald of the 8th Line, Artemesia, at the Markdale hospital on Friday, January 12th, while undergoing an operation for goitre. His genial disposition and sterling qualities made many friends here and throughout the Eugenia district, who were shocked with the news of his sudden passing.

He was born in Proton township 62 years ago and came to his late home with his parents, the late John and Catherine MacDonald. In 1903 he was united in marriage to Miss Lucy Sherwood of Eugenia, who predeceased him in 1916, leaving a family of five young children, Selena, John, Sam, Neil and Lucy. With the assistance of his eldest daughter, Selena, he succeeded in continuing the home and raising his family, who are a credit to him. Selena, Neil and Lucy reside at home, John at Codrington and Sam, a teacher, in Toronto, who are left to mourn a loving and devoted father. Besides his family he leaves two sisters and two brothers: Mrs. Wm. Cudmore of Wareham Mrs. Matthew Wood of Markdale, Neil and Archie of Froude, Sask. Another sister, Mrs. Wm. Barcley predeceased him.

The funeral took place on Sunday afternoon with service at his late residence at 2 p.m., Rev. MacNeil, pastor of Eugenia United church, of which the deceased was a member, officiating. The choir of Eugenia United church rendered "He's the Lily of the Valley," and also assisted in the hymn "Asleep in Jesus." Rev. MacNeil delivered a very comforting sermon taking his text from Genesis 28: 16. Interment took place in Salem cemetery, the pallbearers being friends and neighbors of the deceased.

The floral tributes were beautiful and included a wreath from the family, sprays from Mr. and Mrs. Wood and Miss Etta Rowe of Markdale, Mr. Jos. Sherwood, Mr. and Mrs. Will Hawkins and family, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Martin of Eugenia, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Porteous and Joe, 8th line friends and neighbors, Miss Marjory Davis of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. W. Carr of Codrington, Mr. and Mrs Edward Phillips of Toronto.

Besides his family and sisters, the following friends and relatives from a distance attended the funeral: Matthew Wood, Miss Etta Rowe, Mrs. Robt. Burrell, Mrs. Archie Leitch, Mrs. Geo. Burrell and Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Harvey of Markdale and Miss Marjory Davis of Toronto.

The Late Mrs. Geo. Hunter

E. Hunter at her home in Collingwood on Monday, January 1st, 1934, shortly after noon. For months she had not been in good health and for several weeks had been confined to bed, but it was the hope of many friends that a recovery would soon be realized.

Mrs. Hunter was born eighty years ago, near Kingston and later came with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Perigoe, to Osprey township, where they pioneered. About thirty years ago, following the death of her former husband, Hugh Davidson, she moved to Collingwood, where she has since resided. Some years ago she was married to George E. Hunter, who now survives. A devoted mother, a kind and thoughtful neighbor and a woman of fine character, the passing of Mrs. Hunter has created a feeling of sincere regret.

Besides her bereaved husband the deceased is survived by six sons of her former marriage: William H. and Dow of Collingwood, Thomas, Jack and Harry, Toronto, and George H. of Sudbury, all of whom acted as pallbearers at the funeral which was held on Wednesday, January 3, at the late residence, Rev. Robert Bryden officiating. Interment was made in West church cemetery.

RECOUNT AT COLLINGWOOD SEQUELS COUNCIL ELECTION

On the application of Graydon J. Kohl, a candidate for the Town Council at Collingwood on New Year's Day, Judge Holmes has granted a recount of the ballots, to take place Friday morning.

Baseball Dangerous

A record of 4,400 "recreation accidents," not including motoring, published by the Fidelity and Casualty Company, shows baseball to have caused the largest number of these mishaps, 18 per cent of the total. Swimming was responsible for 13 per cent, wrestling and "scuffling" for 5.2 per cent, tennis 4.8, fireworks 4.4, hunting 4, golf 3.7 per cent. No figures are given for football. Even so harmless a game as pingpong is included among causes of accidents but was responsible for only three out of the 4,400.

PLAY WONDERFUL PART

(Creemore Star)

It should be a source of pride and inspiration to every farmer to read the achievements of Canadians at the International Grain Show held in Chicago. The outstanding fact is apparent. We have the soil and the climate and if we make use of these God-given opportunities we can keep the name of our beloved country ever in the front ranks. Fairs and exhibitions play a wonderful part in thus bringing before the public, facts that might otherwise be unknown. Unfortunately many good farmers have grown careless about making exhibits. This should not be. Let the boys and girls be encouraged to show the result of their labors by placing it in competition. If it lacks in quality it is evident a better variety or improved culture is needed. In this way standards are created and the possibilities of our land are made known.

OVERWORKED MINISTERS

(Durham Chronicle)

The death of two Ontario cabinet ministers from worry and overwork in the discharge of their duties as heads of their departments is to be regretted. Something more to be regretted is the ingratitude of those who see nothing good in this class of citizen, who devote their lives to their country's service and give their best no matter what the cost. It is easy to criticize, but the fact remains that being the head of any governmental department, in Ontario or elsewhere is no sinecure these days. People who state that cabinet ministers or governments do not care for those who have elevated them to high positions are either making these statements for their own personal advancement or they do not know what they are talking about. Politicians are human. It hurts them just as it hurts you or me, to know that their people are struggling along in want, and that nothing they may do seems to alleviate their condition. The idea that anyone can get satisfaction out of the trials of others is a foolish one, and it is our further opinion that what hurts most is the apparent thanklessness of those whom they serve.

Live Stock Report

Cattle prices tumbled on the Toronto live stock market yesterday, and losses up to 50c were registered. Trade was slow, but the holdover of 2,400 head was reduced to 1,700. Butcher cattle closed 25c lower for the week, and weighty steers were also down 25c. Butcher cows were down 25c to 50c. The calf market also slumped, losing 50c to $1 for the day. Hogs advanced and closed 15c to 20c higher for the day and 45c to 50c higher for the week. Lambs were slow and sheep steady.

A few choice weighty steers ranged from $5.25 to $5.75, with others from $3.25 to $4.75. Butcher cattle sold from $3.50 to $4. A few choice sold up to $4.35. Good cows made $2.50 to $2.75. Bulls sold steady at $2.50 to $3 for best. A small number of fed calves sold at $4.50 to $7.

The calf market dropped 50c to $1 and closed at a top of $6.50. Choice kosher calves went at a top of $7.

Hogs continued climbing and closed at $7.25 to $7.30, f.o.b. for bacons $7.60 off trucks and $7.90 to $8 off cars.

Native lambs ranged from $5 to $7, according to quality. Seven hundred Western lambs remained unsold. Sheep held steady at $1.50 to $3 per cwt.

The Egg Market

Egg prices in Flesherton Tuesday were as follows:

Extras	20c
Firsts	18c
Pullet Extras	16c
Cracks and Seconds	13c

Profit And Pullets

At present, prospects look bright for the poultryman and farmer who has a good flock of well-matured pullets. The cold snap will probably stiffen egg prices that are now offering a fair margin of profit over cost of production in flocks that are laying satisfactorily.

At the present prices and with better prospects in view it will pay to feed a good balanced mash ration liberally and to give sufficient grain at night to ensure a well filled crop. Plenty of fresh water, with the chill off on cold days should always be provided. A frozen water pail left too long means a serious crimp in production.
