THE GREAT AMERICAN HAIR TONIC.

Bogle's Celebrated Hyperion Fluid,

For the Growth and Preservation of the Hair, is well known to be without a rival on this Continent.—Hundreds of imitations have started into an ephemeral existence since the introduction of this unrivalled Hair Restorative, and their doom been sealed, whilst Bogle's Hyperion Fluid, with a popularity never attained by any other article, goes on "conquering and to conquer." It is now patronised by Her Majesty the Queen of Great Britain, and commands an extensive sale throughout Europe.

Paris Exhibition!

PARIS EXHIBITION OFFICE,
QUEBEC, 3rd May, 1855.

The Executive Committee of the Paris Exhibition submit herewith the decision of the Judges appointed to decide upon the merits of the Essays on Canada, and its resources, for which prizes were offered by the Committee.

REPORT OF THE JUDGES:

The Committee to whom the Executive Committee on the Paris Exhibition referred the selection of the Prize Essays on Canada, submit the following Report:

The Committee have received from the Secretary nineteen Essays, eighteen of which have been carefully considered, but the nineteenth is so illegibly written, that it has been quite impossible to decipher it, without an amount of time and pains which the several Members of the Committee have been unable to give.

Of the Eighteen Essays, the Committee have selected three with the following mottoes: "Labor omnia vincit."—"J'ai vu ce que je raconte."—and "Virtute et labore, dum spiro spero"—as those which in their judgment are entitled to prizes, but they have been unable to decide upon the order in which they shall stand, as they are equally divided in opinion, upon their classification, and they, therefore report them to the Executive Committee simply as prize worthy, considering it better not to make particular reference to their notes, as to the position which each Essay should occupy on the Prize list.

In addition to these three Essays, the Committee recommend those with the following mottoes: "Suam quisque pellem portat."—"Reddit ubi Cererem tellus inarata quotannis."—and "It is with nations as with nature, she knows no cause in progress or developement, and attaches her curse to all inaction"—to the favorable consideration of the Executive Committee, either as deserving to be published at the public expence, or as entitling their authors to some gratuity to assist in their publication, as the Executive Committee shall deem best, with the consent and at the option of the authors themselves.

The Committee have been most favorably impressed by several of the remaining Essays, and while they have not considered it necessary to make any further classification, they cannot avoid congratulating the Country that the opportunity has been afforded to so many able writers of displaying the capabilities of this noble Province.

In conclusion, the Committee regret that their various avocations, since they were named as Judges, have kept them so constantly engaged, that they have not been able to give so close an attention to all these Essays as they should have desired, but they have given them the most careful consideration the time allotted would permit, and although there is not one, even of those reported without several errors of detail or description, they have risen from their perusal with much gratification, arising as well from the great amount of correct statistical information that has been brought together, as from the a reeable and readable shape in which much of it has been prepared for the public eye.

Quebec, 23rd April, 1855

(Signed) J. HILLYARD CAMERON,
D. B. STEVENSON,
ROBERT CHRISTIE,
E. PARENT,
L. H. HOLTON,
A. N. MORIN.

The Executive Committee had determined that in case the majority of the Judges should be unable to agree as to the classification of the Essays for the Prizes, it would be advisable to request His Excellency the Governor General to make the award, and accordingly on receiving the above Report, they begged His Excellency to undertake the task, which His Excellency was good enough to consent to.

The following is the decision of His Excellency:—

The Governor General having carefully perused and considered the Essays placed in his hands by the Judges, assigns the first place to that one bearing the motto "Labor omnia vincit."

The other two, though very different in character he has great difficulty in placing. The French Essay (J'ai vu ce que je raconte.) is more readable, and in some respects preferable to the English one "Virtute et labore dum spiro, spero."

On the other hand, the English is more systematic and concise, and for purposes of reference conveys more information, and if it is impossible to treat them as equal which His Excellency would willingly do, it seems proper to assign the second prize to the latter of the two, and the third to the French.

(Signed) EDMUND HEAD.

May 1st, 1855.

The Executive Committee have, therefore, to announce that the First Prize is awarded to John Sheridan Hogan, Esquire, author of the Essay with the motto "Labor omnia vincit" (*)—the 2nd prize to Alexander Morris, Esq., of Montreal, with the motto "Virtute et labore, dum spiro, spero," and the third prize to J. C. Taché Esquire, M. P. P., author of the Essay with the motto "J'ai vu ce que je raconte."

In accordance with the recommendation of the Judges, the Executive Committee have awarded three extra prizes of £25 each, to the authors of the Essays bearing the mottoes "Suam quisque pellem portat"—"Reddit ubi Cererem tellus inarata quotannis"—and "It is with nations as with nature, she knows no pause in progress and development, and attaches her curse to all inaction." The authors of these Essays are Hector L. Langevin, Esq., of the City of Quebec; E. Billings, Esq., of the City of Ottawa, and William Hutton, Esq., Secretary Board of Statistics, Quebec. The authors of the other Essays may obtain them on application to the Assistant Secretary of the Committee, I. R. Eckart, Esq., Quebec.

FRANCIS HINCKS,
Chairman Executive Committee.

(*) Mr. Hogan's card, in addition to his name, contained the following memorandum.—"He takes the opportunity of stating, that the valuable statistics upon Agriculture and Commerce in the accompanying Essay, were derived from Evelyn Campbell, Esquire, of the Statistics Office.
