Hawaiian honeymoon following May wedding

Acton Baptist church was decorated with two urns of pink and white mums and carnations for the wedding ceremony of Lillian Christine DeVries and William James Landsborough on May 28.

The Rev. Das Sydney officiated at the double ring ceremony, with friends of the bride, Norman Moore at the organ and his sister Shirley Moore as soloist.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry DeVries of R.R. 4, Acton, and is employed at Dehavilland Aircraft. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Landsborough, 97 Lake Ave., and is employed by Frank Heller and Company Ltd.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a short sleeved gown with round neck. The waistband was accented with a heavy lace and she wore a princess crown to match. The full skirt had lace along the edge. She carried white creamy colored gardenias.

For something new the bride wore a necklace, a gift from the groom. Earrings from the maid of honor were something borrowed, and an old, antique hankerchief belonging to her mother was something old.

Maid of honor was Anne Natarrelli, from Toronto, a good friend. Bridesmaids were her three sisters Diana DeVries, Toronto; Irene Ryder of Yellowknife, North West Territories, and Audrey DeVries of Acton. Flowergirl was another sister, Jody DeVries, also of Acton.

They wore similar gowns in Gone With the Wind style, with very full long skirts, short sleeves and round necks, similar to the bride's, in a very soft blue with lily-of-the-valley mixed in the pattern. They carried pink roses with white carnations and baby's breath, and wore pearl necklaces and earrings, a gift from the bride.

Bruce Peck, a cousin, was the best man. Ralph Landsborough, brother of the groom; George Wallis, Acton, a friend, (who was also master of ceremonies) and Brian Livingstone, a cousin from Georgetown, were ushers. Ring bearer was nephew Kenny Park, Petrolia.

At the dinner and dance held at the Acton Meadows Golf Course, a very special toast was made to the bride by Dr. Paul Tamblin, of the high school, a good friend and former teacher.

The mother of the bride wore a mint green long dress with matching coat, and two gardenias. The groom's mother wore a long blue dress with a long matching coat, and pink roses.

Many cards were received from relatives in Holland and Australia. Horseshoes of luck were sent from England and Scotland. The one from Scotland was of white heather with the Landsborough tartan on it. The one from England was of roses.

Special guest at the wedding was Joke DeVries, aunt of the bride, from Holland.

Three surprise showers were enjoyed by the bride-elect. The first was held at Dehavilland Aircraft, given by the maid of honor Anne Natarrelli. Mrs. Livingstone held the second surprise for aunts, uncles and cousins. Both the bride and groom were at this shower. The third shower was held by the Acton Baptist church ladies.

After a honeymoon to Hawaii, including the islands of Maui, Kauai and Oahu, the newlyweds made their home in the Diplomat Apartments, 128 Church St.

Margie Mackenzie is guest speaker

The regular monthly meeting of Bannockburn Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. G. S. Matthews on No. 7 Highway with 14 members and two visitors present.

The president Mrs. Paul Henderson presided. A letter was received from a lawyer in Guelph informing them that a legacy had been left to the institute by the estate of Gordon C. Matthews to help with the care of the Pioneer Cemetery in this district. The roll call was answered by each member, showing a hobby made by them. This showed many different talents by the members. The motto was given by Mrs. W. Linham.

Mrs. T. Ewart introduced the guest speaker, Miss Margie Mackenzie, who gave a very enlightening talk on wills. Afterwards many questions were asked by the members and everyone agreed it was a very educational meeting. Mrs. C. Coles thanked the speaker and presented her with a small gift.

The meeting closed with the Institute Grace and The Lord's Prayer. The hostess assisted by Mrs. C. Sinclair served lunch and a friendly half hour was spent over the tea cup.

May I take this opportunity to thank all of those who worked so hard for me and on behalf of the Liberal Party.

To those who supported me in the riding of Wellington-Dufferin-Peel. I thank you.

It is now obvious that the people across Ontario were satisfied with the way things were—a minority government.

My congratulations to Jack Johnson.

Sincerely

David Wright

Meetings ending

by Mrs. Emily Price
We hope this lovely seasonable weather makes everyone feel like getting out and enjoying it to the fullest, each one in their own way. From all appearances, most like getting out into their gardens—the flowers and vegetables seem to be doing well.

The time is coming up for vacations, and whatever you have planned, trips, tours, camping, etc., we hope everyone will enjoy safe and healthful journeys and hopefully the weatherman will cooperate.

Our organization, like most, will be closing for July and August, and our last meeting for the summer will be on Tuesday, June 28, at 7.30 at the firehall, when we will be enjoying a film, followed by a Strawberry Social. We are hoping everyone will be out to enjoy the evening and the good fellowship of each other's company.

Swimming will be as usual at 10.30 a.m. on Sunday mornings during the summer.

See you all at the meeting on Tuesday, June 28.

Group's last meeting for summer months

The Knox Alert Evening group gathered at the home of Mrs. Lena Mann for their annual June pot luck supper, which was most delicious as usual.

Bessie Musselle and Lil McLennan were in charge of the program. Bessie opened the meeting with the Call to Worship and the hymn Summer Suns are Glowing was sung. Lil read the Scripture and led in prayer. Bessie had an appropriate reading Life's Summer. The hymn Till We Meet Again closed the program chosen because the group will not be meeting again, until September.

The second vice-president took charge of the business in the absence of the president.

It was decided that instead of donating clothing for the sale in September, the members would donate money, and it was suggested that during the summer, the members could make money for the sale by making use of their talents.

Captains for the Copper contest are Isabel McDonald and Gladys Davidson and sides were chosen.

Bessie conveyed the president's wishes for everyone to have a safe and happy summer and added her own best wishes.
