The Late Wm. McMaster

The funeral service of the late Mr. Wm. McMaster was held from the Anglican church at Desbarats Wednesday, at one o'clock. Rev. H. Peeling of Bruce Mines conducted the service, taking his message from I. Corinthians, Chapter 15. He spoke very feelingly of deceased's faithful work in the church. As warden for many years he had at all times dispensed his duties willingly and faithfully. In the community he had been a true friend to those in sickness and trouble, and a striking example of a Christian gentleman. Rev. Hugh Cowan of the United church spoke a few well chosen words regarding his close association with the late Mr. McMaster and the high esteem in which he held him as a friend, a friendship which had deepened with years of acquaintance, and which death only could sever.

Favorite hymns of the deceased were sung: "Rock of Ages," "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me," and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Mr. Lynn Miller of Bruce Mines sang very feelingly the beautiful old hymn, "I Need Thee Every Hour."

The pallbearers were Messrs. Richard Shaughnessy, Charles McPhee, Frank Hicks, J. R. Marshall, James Haney and Robert MacKay. Interment was in Cloudslee cemetery, where the Dyment Masonic Lodge No. 442. of which the late Mr. McMaster had been a devoted member, had charge of the burial service.

Beautiful floral tributes, conveying the sympathy of many friends were received, among them being: Broken circle, Dyment Lodge, A.F. & A.M.; spray from Ladies' Aid Portlock United church; spray from Women's Institute of Desbarats and a spray from the Ladies' Aid of Desbarats United church.

IMMEDIATE ACTION ADVISED

"To farmers who have not secured their requirements of seed grain to date, I would say that immediate action is not only wise but vitally necessary."

This was the recent statement of Arthur H. Martin, Assistant Director, Crops and Markets Branch.

The shortage of seed grain, and the fact that many registered growers have exhausted their surplus, are clearly indicated by figures included in a survey made by this official of the Department.

Available supplies of registered seed grain in Ontario as of February 26, according to the survey follow: Oats, approximately 7,800 bushels; barley, some 3,600 bushels; and somewhat less than 500 bushels of spring wheat.
