A SHOWER.
BY RALPH HOYT, A.M.

In the valley that I know—
Happy scene!
There are meadows sloping low,
There the fairest flowers blow,
And the brightest waters flow
All serene;
But the sweetest thing to see,
If you ask the dripping tree,
Or the harvest hoping swain
Is the rain.

Ah, the dwellers of the town,
How they sigh,
How ungratefully they frown,
When the cloud king shakes his crown
And the pearls come pouring down
From the sky!
They descry no charm at all
Where the sparkling jewels fall,
And each moment of the shower
Seems an hour.

Yet there's something very sweet
In the sight,
When the crystal currents meet,
In the dry and dusty street,
And they wrestle with the heat,
In their might!
While they seem to hold a talk,
With the stones along the walk,
And remind them of the rule,
To "keep cool."

But in that quiet dell,
Ever fair,
Still the Lord doeth all things well,
When his clouds with blessings swell,
And they break a brimming shell
On the air;
There the shower hath its charms,
Sweet and welcome to the farms,
As they listen to its voice,
And rejoice!

Bears.—Since Messrs. Perry Davis & Son commenced the manufacture of Bearine, the Canada trapper has found a lucrative business in capturing old Bruin. Messrs. Davis & Son pay a good price for the grease, and the skins are always sought after. Messrs Davis & Son have a mode of refining the grease, perfuming it, &c., making it superior to any others we have ever seen.

A Big Fool.
A tragic occurrence in San Francisco was founded on inconsistency in love, but the usual conditions were reversed. D. R. Meek, an insurance agent, did not believe in formal marriages, but held that the mutual consent of the parties was a sufficient marital bond. He formed a union upon that basis with Miss Laber, the daughter of his business partner, and during two years they lived affectionately together. Not long ago the wife left their home without warning of her intention, and declared that as there had been no marriage ceremony, and as she had ceased to love her husband, she was not bound to live with him any longer. Meek was heart broken. He implored her to return, but she coldly reported that she was not his wife. He consulted lawyers as to the possibility of compelling her to be faithful, but they told him that although the marriage was as binding as any in the regard of the law, a wife could not be forced to live with her husband. He thereupon swallowed laudanum, and the first dose being pumped out by a jury doctor, took another and died. He left his sentiments in a letter as follows: "I staked my all on your promise to marry me, and I have lost. I do not charge you, my dear, but forgive you with all my heart. I will be charitable with you, and think you thought and believed it was for the best. I only hope such is the case. Oh, my darling! never do with another as you have done with me. Never again promise to marry a man unless you intend to do so. Only think of me, who loved you so dearly, and would have died, and does, for your sake. I leave my best wishes for your future welfare and happiness. May God bless and protect you, and keep you from sin and harm."

CLOCK MAKING IN THE BLACK FOREST.—The manufacture of clocks in the Black Forest, says Galignani, is chiefly carried on at Dittishausen, Eisenach, Furtwangen St. Georges, Lentz Kirch, Noestadt, Freuiburg, Willingen, and Rohrenbach. It is only since the last thirty-five years that the small private makers have given place to the large workshop now established. The cases, wheels, and other essential parts of the clocks and watches are made separately; the work is thus divided amoung various branches and the different pieces are sent to the factories, where they are put together, and the complete article is tried and regulated. An idea of the importance of that trade may be formed from the fact that in 1871 there were in the Black Forest 1,429 firms engaged in it, employing 7,525 men, besides women and children, in all about 13,000 persons. The number of articles produced was 800,000, among which were 100,000 of the first class, the whole representing a value of 10,000,000 florins (2 france 15 centimes each). The highest of that industry is the manufacture of clocks with automatic figures or with music; the largest of the latter imitates a compleate orchestra. This work is not divided like the others, the same artists making all the mechanism, with the exception of the metallic tubes. About 300 men are engaged in that particular occupation.

FORCIBLE PROCEEDING.—Discussing the subject of "grace," in a recent discourse Mr. Moody happily observed that "a banker's idea of grace was that he would give people a certain time wherein to pay a bill, and if they did not pay him then, woe betide them. But God presented them with interest, capital and all, and gave it them as a free gift," and following up the same train of ideas, he said "You can't draw too largely on God's bank of grace. There was once a run on the banks of Chicago, where I came from, and in six hours many of them were knocked up, but you cannot break God's bank. God always encourages a run on His bank, and there's no stopping payment there.'

Many suffer rather than take nauseous medicine; and this is not to be wondered at, as the remedy is often worse than the disease. Sufferers from coughs, colds, influenza, sore throat or tendency to Consumption, will find in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease.

Hemorrhoids (or Piles) are permanently cured by Mathieu's Pile Ointment, or money refunded. Price $1 per Pot, or 6 Pots for $5. Sold wholesale and retail by the Wingate Chemical Company, Montreal, and retail by all druggists, or will be forwarded to any address on receipt of price by Dr. E. Mathieu, 198 Notre Dame Street, Montreal.

Save Your Hair.—If you wish to save your hair and keep it in a strong and healthy condition, use Burnett's Cocoaine. It will stimulate the roots of the hair, and restore the natural action upon which its growth depends. Twenty years ago a single bottle saved a lady's hair in a desperate case, in which all other treatments had failed; and since that early success thousands of cases of baldness, dandruff, loss of hair and irritation of the scalp has yielded to the same remedy.

☞ A common rough or cold should never be trifled with; often when neglected it is converted into a serious and generally fatal pulmonary disease. The more prudent, aware of this, promptly use Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers, a curative which has sustained its reputation for over twenty years—they are always efficacious and exert a most beneficial influence on all the Bronchial and pulmonary organs. Sold by all draggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

How to Make Money.—A horse dealer residing in the vicinity of Keyport, N.J., and who buys up horses for the New York market, purchases "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" by the dozen and feeds it to his horses; he says it is superior to anything that he has ever used as a condition medicine, that the horses are so much more improved by its use as to sell more readily and command higher prices. Two other horse dealers, one residing at Huntingdon, the other at Glen Cove, L. I., also purchase it by the dozen and for the same purpose; these men, as well as many others similarly engaged, know too well the value and importance of this medicine ever to be without it. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELECTRICITY!
Thomas' Excelsior Eclectric Oil.—Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold.—
"Pain cannot Stay where it is used."
It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle does cure common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing Cough. It positively cures Catarrh Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured Crick in the back and the same quantity Lame back of eighty years standing. The following are extracts from the few of the many letters that have been received from the different parts of Canada which we think should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical. J. Collard, of Sparta, Ontario, writes: Send me 6 doz of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now, its cures are truly wonderful." Wm Maguire of Franklin, writes "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm it was slow first but takes splendidly now." M. Cole of Iona writes: "Please forward 6 doz. Thomas Eclectric Oil. I am near out; nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used." J. Bedted, Thamesville, writes, "send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil. I have only one bottle left. I never saw any thing to sell so well and give such satisfaction." J. Thompson Woodford, writes: "Send me some more. Eclectric Oil. I have entirely sold out. Nothing takes like it." Miller and Rye, Ulverton, P.Q., writes: "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for, send us a further supply without delay—Leymone, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P.Q., writes: "send us one gross Eclectric Oil—we find it to take well."
☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents.
