SCHOOL QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

Question — After the holding of an annual meeting of the ratepayers in a rural Section it is felt by some of the ratepayers that there were irregularities in the election of the trustees to fill a vacancy. What steps may be taken to have the matter adjusted?

Answer — Section 68 (11) of the Public Schools Act states:

"Where complaint is made to the Inspector by an elector that the election of a trustee, or that the proceedings of any part thereof of a school meeting have not been in conformity with this Act, the Inspector shall investigate the complaint and confirm the election or proceedings if found to be in substantial accordance with this Act, or set the same aside if found not to be in substantial accordance there-with, and in the latter event he shall appoint a time and place for a new election or for the reconsideration of the school question, but no complaint will be entertained unless made in writing to the Inspector within twenty days after the holding of the election or meeting; and it shall not be incumbent upon the Inspector to set aside such election or any proceedings for want of formal compliance with the provisions of this Act if he is satisfied that the result of such election or proceeding has not been affected thereby."

Question — Under what condition should the ratepayers of a School Section who are not resident in the School Section be required to pay non-resident fees for their children attending the school?

Answer — Section 85 of the Public Schools Act requires a Board of Trustees to admit to school any non-resident pupils if the Inspector reports that the accommodations in the school are sufficient for the admission of such pupils and that the school is more accessible for them than the school in the School Section or Urban Municipality in which the pupils reside.

Unless the parent is assessed in the School Section where the pupils are to attend for an amount equal to the average assessment of residents in that School Section the parent may be required to pay fees but the fees shall not exceed an average cost per pupil of the maintenance of the school. The usual method of calculating the non-resident fees to be charged non-resident pupils is to substract from the total cost of maintaining of the school for the preceding calendar year the total legislative, county and township grants received, then divide the balance by the total number of pupils enrolled in the school during the preceding calendar year. The quotient will be the non-resident fee payable for one year's tuition for the non resident pupils.

Maxwell Couple Observe 47th Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Binnington celebrated their 47th wedding anniversary on Wednesday, March 7th, 1934, when fifty guests sat down to a fowl dinner at 7 o'clock. The tables were beautifully decorated with bouquets of pink and white carnations, roses, sweet peas, tulips and maiden hair fern. The three.storey bride's cake was beautifully decorated with silver and gold trimmings and graced the centre of the table, along with a gold flower which suited the occasion. All did ample justice to the good things set before them and then retired to the parlor and dining-room when the evening was spent in music, singing, and speeches, also two good recitations given by Mrs. McNeil.

The bride and groom received many beautiful gifts among which was a hand painting of their church given by Mr. McNeil and an Alladin lamp. Mrs. E. Buckingham read the address and Mrs. Edgar Betts made the presentation.

Meeting of Farmers

A meeting of farmers in the interest of the warble fly campaign will be held in the town hall, Flesherton at 2 o'clock p.m. on Friday of this week. Members of township council will be present and all interested are invited to attend.

HEAVY CATTLE IN DEMAND

At present, according to the Ontario Marketing Board, there is a definite demand at the Union Stock Yards for top quality heavy cattle with strong prices prevailing.

Recently a choice lot of this class sold at six and one-half cents a pound. These cattle were smooth and well finished, weighing upwards to fifteen hundred pounds.

With the surplus relieved, as a result of last year's export trade, feeders should profit by marketing properly—finished cattle of this weight.

Live Stock Report

Active cattle trading during the afternoon enabled the catle suply to be sold out on the Toronto live stock market yesterday, and, with the exception of about 200 late arrivals the division was cleaned up. Prices closed steady on most grades, but weighty steers and bulls sold 10c to 25c lower after a slow opening. Calves, sheep, hogs and lambs sold firm throughout the day.

Weighty steers moved lower within a range of $4.60 to $6.25, while butcher cattle sold steady at $5.25 to $6 for choice and at $3.75 for common. Butcher cows ranged from $2.50 for common to $4.00 for good, and a few good calves of medium to good quality sold at $5 to $6.75. Butcher bulls were 25c lower at $3.25 to $3.50, with bolognas at $2.75 to $3.

The calf division moved along with no price change recorded under steady trading. Vealers brought $7.50 to $8 for choice, though the majority of sales were from $5 to $7.

Hogs checked Monday's decline and closed unchanged. Opening bids were 10c lower, but salesmen held their supplies and the market finally settled at $8.60 f.o.b. for bacons, $8.90 off truck and $9.35 off car.

Western lambs made up the bulk of the lamb run and prices were firm at $8.50 cwt., according to quality. Sheep maintained their strong front and closed at a top of $5 for good light ewes.
