DREAMS.

I dreamed of a cloudless heaven,
A silver night of June,
A boat on the silent water
Beneath the silent moon!
Heaven in the deep above us,
Heaven in the deep below,
And heaven in our own bosoms
With love's own stars aglow!
Ah me, a happy dream!

I dreamed of a lonely mountain
Whereon I sat alone;
The night wind of Novembers
Made melancholy moan!
No silver moon above me,
No silver wave below;
And in my bosom only
Unfathomable woe!
Ah me, a dreadful dream!

Fair June and bleak November
I've found in all the years;
Full many an hour of gladness,
And many an hour of tears.
But love outlasts the seasons—
Dear, take my hand in yours!
And there's no need of dreaming
While this my peace endures:
For this is not a dream!

Bears.—Since Messrs. Perry Davis & Son commenced the manufacture of Bearine, the Canada trapper has found a lucrative business in capturing old Bruin. Messrs. Davis & Son pay a good price for the grease, and the skins are always sought after. Messrs Davis & Son have a mode of refining the grease, perfuming it, &c., making it superior to any others we have ever seen.

Too Tender Nuptuals.

Yonkers, New York, now boasts of having the youngest married pair in America. Master Matthew Mansfield, aged fifteen, and Miss Fanny Gale, aged fourteen, were school fellows and playmates, and they fell in love with each other in manly and womanly fashion, and not after the manner of traditional schoolboys and girls. Matthew's parents knew that their boy visited the Gales sometimes, but were blind to the true meaning of the visits. Fanny's father and mother knew all about it, and encouraged the courtship. They give their consent to the marriage, and one evening posted them off to the residence of the Rev. Mr. Mudge a presbyterian minister, in company with Fanny's eldest sister, to be married. Mr. Gale put a five dollar bill in Matthew's hand and told him to be happy with his fair bride. The pair were duly married, and the bridal party returned to the bride's home with a certificate to shake in the world's face and defy its carping criticism. All was merry as a May morning in the Gale's humble home and it would have been an altogether happy bridal if Matthew had not been in such haste to tell his mother what he had done. He ran to the more stately mansion of the Mansfield's, in which he had been reared and conveyed to his astonished maternal parent the intelligence that he had just married Fanny Gale. She did not believe it. He told her that if she would go to the Gale's she could see the certificate. She took him at his word, paddled him some and sent him to bed without his supper. She locked his room and then Mathew was a prisoner under the parents roof. When his father came home the old couple consulted what to do. They went to Gale's and saw the certificate and tearful bride. So young, and yet so miserable. They also took legal advice, but the preacher sticks to it that he married the couple, and it is doubtful if the union can be unlinked in law. In the meantime the boy has been sent away to school in New Jersey, where he is held as a prisoner, and the girl is dragging out the the days of her enforced grass-widowhood with vein longings for her lord. She is living with her parents, who are charging the Mansfield's with her board and lodging, and expect to collect the bill to the last farthing. The people at Yonkers have taken sides, as people always do upon such private questions. Some denounce the preacher for marrying children without the consent of bath sets of parents, and all sympathize a little with the restraint place upon the young man and woman, who have set so good an example to many of their elders—afraid to make the life venture of nuptial joy or sorrow.—St. Louis Republican.

VERY CONSIDERATE.—Most men, when undertaking suicide, try to make it as horrible as possible, some going so far as to kill their wives or sweethearts before shuffling off their own mortal coil. But this could not possibly apply to one Henry Diehen, of Cincinnati, who evidently was another sort of man. He got drunk last Saturday and took it into his head that he had lived as long as necessary, in which conclusion he was probably correct. Now what does Henry do? Does he go slashing around with knife and pistol, stabbing his wife, cutting his babies' throats, shooting the dog and setting the house on fire? Not a bit of it. Like a considerate husband, who realizing that his wife must know the inevitable, still wants to make it as pleasant as possible, he sits down, reads his life insurance policy to her comfort, and then lets out his own life's blood with a butcher knife. Could anything be more graceful, more heroic, or better calculated to make otherwise depressing circumstances cheerful and buoyant? His policy was a sweet reminder to himself in the last hour of duty performed, and the fact that he did not go off like a surly dog and read it alone speaks volumes in his praise as a model husband.

REPEAL.—The Michigan Legislature has finally passed the bill repealing the prohibitory liquor law, which was not enforced, and fixing a tax of $40 upon malt liquor retailers, $150 on retailers of alcoholic liquors and $3,000 on wholesale liquor dealers and manufacturers. Retailers are required to give from $1,000 to $3,000 bonds to comply with the provisions of the laws.

Many suffer rather than take nauseous medicine; and this is not to be wondered at, as the remedy is often worse than the disease. Sufferers from coughs, colds, influenza, sore throat or tendency to Consumption, will find in Dr. Wistar's Balsam of Wild Cherry a remedy as agreeable to the palate as effectual in removing disease.

Burnett's Flavoring Extracts.—The superiority of these extracts consists in their perfect purity and great strength. They are warranted free from their poisonous oils and acids which enter into the composition of many of the fictitious fruit flavors now in the market. They are not only true to their names, but are prepared from fruits of the latest quality and are so highly concentrated that a comparatively small quantity only need be used.

☞ Thousands of people are now carelessly allowing themselves to drift through the preliminary symptoms of consumption, under the fatal delusion that they are troubled with nothing but a slight cold. How necessary is it then, that a cold should be cared for from its incipiency, and every exertion used to get rid of it. Bryan's Pulmonic Wafers will stop the hacking cough in a few minutes, and by their influence on the bronchial and pulmonary organs all fears of dangerous results will soon be dissipated—but they must be taken in time. Sold by all druggists and country dealers. Price 25 cents per box.

Hemorrhoids (or Piles) are permanently cured by Mathieu's Pile Ointment, or money refunded. Price $1 per Pot, or 6 Pots for $5. Sold wholesale by and retail by the Wingate Chemical Company, Montreal, and retail by all druggists, or will be forwarded to any address on receipt of price by Dr. E. Mathieu, 198 Notre Dame Street, Montreal.

How to Make Money.—A horse dealer residing in the vicinity of Keyport, N.J., and who buys up horses for the New York market, purchases "Darley's Condition Powders and Arabian Heave Remedy" by the dozen and feeds it to his horses; he says it is superior to anything that he has ever used as a condition medicine, that the horses are so much more improved by its use as to sell more readily and command higher prices. Two other horse dealers, one residing at Huntingdon, the other at Glen Cove, L. I., also purchase it by the dozen and for the same purpose; these men, as well as many others similarly engaged, know too well the value and importance of this medicine ever to be without it. Remember the name and see that the signature of Hurd & Co. is on each package. Northrop & Lyman, Toronto, Ont., proprietors for Canada. Sold by all medicine dealers.

ELECTRICITY!

Thomas' Eclectric Oil.—Worth Ten Times its Weight in Gold.—"Pain cannot Stay where it is used."

It is the cheapest medicine ever made. One bottle does cure common sore throat. One bottle has cured Bronchitis. Fifty cents worth has cured an old standing Cough. It positively cures Catarrh Asthma and Croup. Fifty cents worth has cured Crick in the back and the same quantity Lame back of eighty years standing. The following are extracts from the few of the many letters that have been received from the different parts of Canada which we think should be sufficient to satisfy the most sceptical. J. Collard, of Sparta, Ontario, writes: Send me 6 doz of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, have sold all I had from you and want more now, its cures are truly wonderful. "Wm Maguire of Franklin, writes "I have sold all the agent left, it acts like a charm it was slow first but takes splendidly now." M. Cole of Iona writes: "Please forward 6 doz. Thomas Eclectric Oil. I am near out; nothing equals it. It is highly recommended by those who have used." J. Bedted, Thamesville, writes, "send at once a further supply of Eclectric Oil. I have only one bottle left. I never saw any thing to sell so well and give such satisfaction." J. Thompson Woodford, writes: "Send me some more Eclectric Oil. I have entirely sold out. Nothing takes like it." Miller and Rye, Ulverton, P.Q., writes: "The Eclectric Oil is getting a great reputation here and is daily called for, send us a further supply without delay—Leymone, Gibb & Co., Buckingham, P.Q., writes: "send us one gross Eclectric Oil—we find it to take well."

☞ Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents.
