Paying Flock of Hens

The cold weather of the past winter does not seem to have interferred with the laying energy of a flock of barred Rock hens owned by Mr. Wes. Smith of Rock Mills. All winter this flock of 65 hens has not failed to lay less than 50 eggs each day. In fact it was only on the coldest day in February that they reached this lower level. It is flocks like this one that materially assist in taking the red ink out of the farmer's ledger when the price of eggs remains as high as it did most of the past winter.

The young man called his girl's mother an old hen, and she has been laying for him ever since.

Maple Syrup in Toronto

Toronto residents can now secure high class Grey County syrup, made by Walter Akitt of Flesherton, by phoning Grover 3470 and leaving their orders, to be delivered in due time, either by the quart or gallon. Try some, none better.

—H. E. BEST, Representative.

Warble Campaign Gains Momentum

Most satisfactory progress in the organization of the Grey County Farmers against the Warble Fly has been made in the past two weeks. At time of writing the following townships are organized and many of the cattle have already been treated:- Sydenham, Artemesia, St. Vincent, North Keppel, South Keppel, Derby, Holland, Sullivan and Proton. Two supervisors have been appointed in each of the school sections of the townships named.

This week meetings will be held at Rocklyn Ravenna, Holstein, Kemble and Ayton. The remaining townships of Osprey, Bentinck and Glenelg will have meetings held at Feversham, Lamlash and Glenelg Centre the following week.

The following men were selected as supervisors in each of the school sections of the township: U.S.S. No. 1, John Thibaudeau, John Boyd; Flesherton, Thos. Sled, Ed. Loucks; S.S. No. 2, Al. White, Fred Russell, W. J. McFadden; S S. No. 3, Ward Harrison, Richard Allen; S.S. No. 4 Carl Atkinson, Luther Love; S.S. No 6, I. B. Whittaker, Wm. Beaton; S.S No. 7, Wm. Meads, A. S. Muir; S.S No. 8, Thos. Phillips, Thos. McKenzie S.S. No. 9, Alex. Cameron, Garnet Magee; S.S. No. 10, Roy Piper, Geo. Arrowsmith; S.S. No. 11, Elmer Warling, Geo. Buchanan; U.S.S. No. 12, Allan McLean, Andrew Hincks; S.S. No. 13, Wm. Walker, John Campbell; S.S. No. 14, J. Davis, Aubrey Foster; U.S.S. No. 15, Herb Corbett, Wes. Dever; U.S.S. No. 16, Wm. Sullivan, Edgar Patterson; S. S. No. 17, Herb Betts, Wes. Smith; U.S.S. No. 18 Harold Thibaudeau, Silas Hill; U.S.S. No. 1, Gordon McMullen, Ernest Thompson and Alex. Carruthers.

Many school sections have at this early date completed the treatment of their cattle for the first time. It will not be too late to treat until the 10th of April for the first time.

Owing to the size of the county it has been impossible for Agricultural Representative T. Stewart Cooper to hold meetings earlier. The roads also have delayed matters. At all meetings a few other matters of vital importance are dealt with, in addition to the warble fly.

Two Flesherton curling rinks, skipped by G. B. Welton and G. Brackenbury, in a challenge game failed to bring back the Cooper shield from Markdale on Monday evening.

Mrs. A. L. Hincks of near Priceville was the holder of a lucky ticket for winning a handsome quilt, awarded by the Ceylon ladies. These ladies took this method of raising funds to assist in building a Community Hall for the village. Over $27 was raised by this method.

Old man winter was able to still administer another kick to the residents here when he forced the thermometers in town down to 12 below zero on Thursday last. Since then the weather has remained cold though moderating somewhat the first of this week. Monday afternoon snow began to fall and by Tuesday morning it lay to a depth of eight inches. This made sleighing excellent and brought quite a large number of loads of wood to town.

Live Stock Report

Light receipts and steady trading produced a sell-out of the cattle supply on the Toronto Live Stock Market on Tuesday, and the only cattle unsold at the close were about 50 head of late arrivals. Prices held steady on all grades. The hog decline of the past two weeks appeared stemmed as the second day's trading closed without any price recessions. Calves and sheep were firm at unchanged levels. Lambs, after an unsettled opening, firmed to close steady.

Weighty steers moved within a range of $4.50 to $6.25, while choice butchers went from $5.25 to $5.50, with an occasional top at $5.75. Good butcher cows were strong at $3.50 to $4, and canners brought $1.25. Good bulls sold at $3 to $3.50, while bolognes were selling at $2.60 to $2.75. Fed calves held firm at $6.75 to $7.25.

Hogs had their usual unsettled opening, but prices firmed in afternoon trading and closed unchanged at $7.75 f.o.b. for bacons, $8 to $8.10 off truck, and $8.50 to $8.60 off cars. Selects brought $1 premium, and sows sold at $5.50 to $5.60. Sheep continued strong at tops of $5 on good, light ewes.

Calves were steady throughout the day and the price unchanged at $7.50 to $8 for choice vealers. Koshers were at a top of $8.50. The bulk of the calf supply went from $5.50 to $7.50. Good Western lambs closed at $8.50 cwt. Spring lambs sold from $6.50 to $10 a piece.
