BIA BEAT

Acton BIA ready for summer events

The Acton BIA has been busy planning several events for the summer and we hope you will be part of them.

Our Farmers' Market opens Thursday, June 16 from 3 to 7 p.m. We have great vendors again this year. The Glen Oven Café will join us with fresh baked breads, and Albion Hills will feature cold cuts, sausages and breads, and Jimmy's Cracked Corn will make kettle corn at the Market. Andrews Scenic Acres, Whole Circle Farms, Cody's Cows and, of course, Jenny's Favourite Foods (aka Jenny the hotdog lady) will join us again this year. These are only a few of the vendors that we have this season, so come on down to the Market every Thursday from 3 to 7 for fun, food and friendship. Our slogan is "Were Fresh Meets Family."

Random Acts of Kindness starts this Sunday, June 12, and ends on Saturday, June 18 with an old fashioned picnic in Prospect Park. Remember to do something nice for someone this coming week and join us for some fun on Saturday, June 18 in Prospect Park from 4 to 7 p.m., for our old fashioned picnic. There will be entertainment, family games, food vendors, face painting, free rock wall climbing, the Acton Idol Contest and a movie in the park by Party Cinemas at dusk. This day is part of the Big Daddy Festival in Halton Hills.

The Acton BIA has been busy the last few weeks preparing the flower beds in the downtown. Flowers were planted this week with the help of the Acton Horticultural Society. Now the fun begins... endless hours of watering.

Thanks to the sponsorship of Waste Wise and the Acton BIA we have purchased five new recycling/waste containers for the downtown. Town staff will install them as soon as possible.

Please join me in welcoming Patrick to our BIA team. Patrick is our summer student this year. You will see him out and about downtown watering the flowers, keeping our sidewalks clean and helping organize our many events during the summer.

The Acton BIA takes great pride in our downtown and we are always working together working for you. Remember to shop local it pays.
