HORSE KILLED IN ACCIDENT

James McIntyre, who moved recently from Riveryiew district to the Murray farm on Highway No. 10 below Dundalk, lost a horse in a peculiar manner last Friday. Three horses which he had been working made a mad dash for liberty on the sideroad near his home. On reaching the highway the horses were forced to turn and two of them slipped while making the turn and skidded along the pavement. One of the horses crashed into a post, breaking its neck, death ensuing almost immediately.—Dundalk Herald.
