A farewell party was tendered to Miss Edna McHugh, our much beloved teacher for the past five years, and was presented with a gift of remembrance by the people of the section. Mr. Shackleton, principal, made the presentation in some fine laudatory remarks of her worth. Mr. Shackleton has also resigned and has secured a school at Arthur with higher salary. Our trustees were rather derelict in this respect in letting him go as he was a tower of strength in the village in leading, in all good work. The scholars will miss him in the popular excursions he gave them from time to time to different localities.

Mr. Hugh Davidson, principal of one of Collingwood's schools, was presiding over some of the exams here. In conversation with Mr. Davidson we find that he will still remain in Collingwood, in place of going to Fergus as reported some time ago. Why let good men go to other towns when there is room for them in their home town? You know, we are interested in his welfare as he is a descendent of Feversham parents and foreparents.

The Ladies' Aid of the Presbyterian church put on their play, "The End of the Lane," at the Rock Mills garden party on Thursday of last week and were highly applauded. Put it on in Feversham sometime soon and let us hear it, please.

Warden's Banquet Delightful Affair

Warden and Mrs. W. L. Taylor entertained the members and wives of the Grey County Council, county officials, the councils of Osprey and Nottawasaga townships and the press at a banquet at their beautiful home "The Maples at Singhampton Wednesday evening of last week. The surroundings were almost perfect and the entire gathering, which sat down to a wonderful meal prepared by the Women's Institute, did full justice to the meal provided. We must thank Warden and Mrs. Taylor for the invitation extended to us, as it was one of the most enjoyable evenings we have experienced for some time.

Speeches were given by county officials and others, among them being Mr. J. A. Kernahan, veteran treasurer of Osprey township. Most of the speeches were short and to the point and thereby greatly enjoyed. Several musical numbers were given and the "minuet" was exemplified by four young ladies in attire suitable for the days in which the dance was popular. After the program a dance was held in Hammill's hall and was attended by large number of the guests and residents of the vicinity.
