GOOD OUTLOOK FOR THE POULTRY BUSINESS

Mr. F. C. Elford, Dominion Poultry Husbandman, and Mr. George Robertson, chief assistant, who have just completed a tour among farmers and poultrymen throughout Ontario, report a tendency among the farmers to increase their poultry flocks, due chiefly to the fact that their poultry has been their chief source of ready revenue in the past two or three years. However, due to poor hatching results this spring they report a shortage of early pullets and in many cases a lack of uniformity throughout, which leads them to believe that there will be a general shortage of fall and early winter pullet eggs.

CARD OF THANKS

Mrs. Thos. A. Gilchrist, sister-in-law and nieces wish to express their appreciation of the sympathy expressed in their recent bereavement.

Car Took A Bath

Some excitement occurred at the pond Tuesday evening that might have had a different ending if conditions had not been favorable for them. Douglas Stuart, his sister Marion and Mr. Ralph Cummer, a visitor from Hamilton, went to McCauley's pond in an old coupe to enjoy a swim, but as they neared the bank of the pond something went wrong with the brakes of the car when they were applied, the car kept on going over the bank and plunged into the water, which was ten feet deep at that point. Luckily the windows were open and the occupants climbed through and rose to the air above them, which no doubt felt good to breath at that moment. All were good swimmers and reached the bank looking the worse for their experience. The wrecker from Down and Richards garage was brought into service and the car was soon brought up from its watery resting place.

While the young people intended going swimming their immersion was accomplished quicker than expected. It is a pleasure to announce that the accident had no serious result.

THE POOR RICH

Mrs. Douglas Fairbanks, who is shortly to become Miss Mary Pickford again, has given out a moving interview in New York all about God and life and Mary Pickford. Among the other immortal sentiments uttered therein is the opinion that the best things in life are free and wealth cannot buy anything worth while. No doubt this is true, but it is a curious fact that hardly anyone finds it out until after he has made a lot of money. And while wealth is recognized in every child's copy book and in every interview with the rich as a curse and a burden, yet hardly anyone ever attempts to escape it after acquiring it.—Victoria Times.
