Thieves Stole Tools And Parts From D. McTavish & Son Garage

Broke In Early Tuesday And Reaped Big Haul of Tools Accessories Amounting To $800 In Value

MEL. SLED'S LOSS $180

Entered By Rear Window And Picked Their Booty

Tools and parts to the amount of about $800 were stolen from the garage in town owned by D. McTavish and Son, early Tuesday morning of this week. Entrance was made through a window at the rear of the garage, from which a pane of glass was removed and the thieves left the premises by the rear door. Mr. Mel. Sled, one of the mechanics, lost his entire set of tools of the latest pattern, which cost him $180, while Mr. Ray Woods, had a small set stolen valued at about $25. It is thought that the robbery occurred between the hours of two and four a.m. Provincial constable Noble and Cook of Owen Sound were called and conducted an investigation.

A little Boston bulldog, owned by Mr. Royden McDonald, was sleeping in the garage and is now also missing. It is surmised that the thieves either took the dog with them or else quieted her when she raised an alarm and dumped her off on the side of the road. A radiator ornament and gas tank cover of a new Chevrolet car in stock were also taken.

Discovery of the robbery was made when Mr. Woods opened the garage Tuesday morning for business and the rear door, with a broom propped against it, partially open. He then noticed that the tool kits were missing and promptly notified his employers of the facts and a call was sent in for the police. A check made in the parts department showed that valuable items were missing and it appeared as if those who were responsible for the robbery knew what they were after and where it was kept.

The garage was closed for the night at about 10.30 p.m. and Mr. Sled was in the garage at about midnight and everything was in good order at that time. A light was observed by a nearby resident at about 2 a.m., but attention was not paid, as it was expected that members of the garage staff were there on a call.

This is the second time this garage has been entered by thieves, the other one being three years ago this November, when an entrance was made through a side window.

Works A Dead Game

Fifteen years ago, when a French soldier, believed to have been killed in the war, turned up, there was general rejoicing in his native town, and none were more delighted to see him than his family. Now the family is forced to recognize that they were the victims of an amazing imposture. In 1917 the family of Maurice Laval, a machine gunner, received intimation that he had died in captivity in Germany as the result of wounds sustained at Verdun. A pension was allowed to the wife and three children. Some time after the armistice, the family was astonished to see the dead man appear. Nevertheless, there were some who thought if this were indeed Maurice Laval, his war experiences had changed him in many ways. The man had the papers to establish his claim, and military authorities did not seem disposed to question it until a short time ago when information was received from Germany. This was to the effect that the supposed Laval was, in reality, an infantry soldier named Thibaut, who bore a resemblance to Laval, with whom he had been in captivity for over a year. Without saying anything to the supposed Laval, the military authorities invited the widow of Thibaut to come to Nancy, and when she saw the man she promptly identified him as her missing husband. When taxed with the deception the man admitted it, saying that he and his real wife had been unhappy together. He had fallen in love with Laval's wife after seeing her photograph in possession of his comrade and had decided to profit by the other's death to assume his identity. Despite the man's confession and positive identification as Thibaut, Laval's family still maintain he is Laval and will not surrender their rights in him. What has complicated the matter is the fact that in the belief that her husband was dead, Madame Thibaut married again, and had several children by the second husband.

Scientists are urging that a shaft be sunk into the bowels of the earth They've apparently got the appendicitis bug too.

ROCK MILLS LADIES' AID

The Baptist Ladies' Aid met on July 18th, at the home of Mrs. Chas. Hanley with 12 members and 8 visitors present. During the afternoon a short program was enjoyed, after which the meeting opened by singing "What can wash away my sin?" Rev. Wolstencroft read a chapter from Luke and then led in prayer. Collection amounted to $2.20 The closing hymn was "Pass Me Not O Gentle Saviour," after which lunch was served.

PICNIC JOTTINGS

Everybody is looking forward to a real full day's fun and enjoyment at the Old Home Picnic on Civic Holiday.

Just think! Water sports on the pond in the forenoon. A League baseball match, Collingwood - Flesherton, on the fair grounds at 1.30. Then the picnic and sports and the Two Funny Clowns at 3.30 in the Memorial Park, where you'll meet all your old friends; followed at 7 p.m. by exhibition wrestling and the strong man, the "Pocket Hercules" will do his stuff and the Toronto Gypsy Singers will sing.

An interesting event for the holiday will be the Stewart Re-union to be held on Sunday, August 5th at the old home, Toronto Line North, now occupied by Mr. Albert Sparks.

A prize is being awarded by the Toronto committee for the largest family that reports personally to the executive on the Monday program. Line up, families, and get in on this event.

Then to wind up—A Grand Dance will be held on the new paved tennis courts, with orchestras for round and square dancing.

The same efficient committee which has so successfully arranged ideal weather on former occasions is again in charge this year and hope to repeat their success, but in case it rains the dance will be held in the Fraternal Hall. Where could you spend a better day than in Flesherton on Civic Holiday?

Start the big day right with the events at the pond at 9:45 a.m., as follows: Races for boys and girls up to 15 years, six special diving events catching the duck, tub race, watermelon race, log rolling contest. A special event will be a water polo game between the Toronto visitors and the home team. Good prizes and lots of them. Come down to the pond and laugh; get into good humor for the whole big day.

Mrs. Ed. Hillock Dies

Mrs. Edward Hillock of Maxwell died in the Toronto General Hospital on Monday, after an illness extending over a long period, at the age of 50 years and 10 months. The funeral will take place this Wednesday afternoon with service in the Maxwell United church at 2.30 p.m., with interment taking place in Maxwell cemetery.

The late Mrs. Hillock was formerly a daughter of the Mr. and Mrs. John K. Jamieson of Eugenia and was highly respected by the entire community. Although she has been ailing for some years her death comes as a shock to her many friends.

Next Paper Aug. 8

The Advance will not be issued on Wednesday, August 1st, in conformity with our usual custom of withdrawing one issue each year. The office, however, will be open to despatch job work on short notice. It will also be open to receive payments on subscriptions now in arrears, which we would be pleased to accept. The next issue of The Advance will take place on August 8th, after the Civic Holiday picnic.

Smith Makes Record In Beating Flesherton

Effective twirling by Lefty Deverde Smith of Collingwood completely subdued the Flesherton players in the regular game played at Collingwood Thursday last, the score being 7-0. Smith struck out 20 Flesherton batters and allowed only three hits, these being gathered by Best, Sled and Phillips. He allowed one walk. While Smith was making his season's record Flesherton players failed to tighten up and six errors were marked up against them, while Collingwood had only one. Phillips did well in the box and fanned four Collingwood players, one of the best games he has had to his credit this year Reg. Hutton relieved him after four runs had been scored in the sixth and held Collingwood scoreless for the remainder of the game, striking out the last five men to face him and in retiring the side in the sixth was credited with two more. Hutton can coast along nicely for a few innings, but his wing is not the same as it was a few years ago when he won the championship of the League in a whirlwind finish, even if he can stand the opposing players on their heads in their efforts to swing the war club effectively.

Umpire—Dillon, Thornbury.

Dundalk and Markdale have dropped out of the schedule, after having failed to win a game in the first half of the schedule. There now remain Kimberley, Flesherton, Meaford, Collingwood and Durham, the latter leading the League without a loss tacked up against them. They have been the sensation of the League race as they have been out of baseball so long that much was not expected of them.

This Wednesday afternoon Flesherton moves into Meaford for a scheduled game. The boys have to win this fixture if they wish to remain in the running for the League championship, as the first three teams in the standing at the finish will play for the championship.

Smith's strike-out record of 20 against Flesherton on Thursday last is one that beats Lefty Goldsmith's best days. He now has retired 90 players by this route in the six games played in the schedule.

Ontario Cattle Raisers Organize For Exporting

County organization meetings of beef cattle raisers are now being held throughout the interested districts in Western Ontario. Middlesex and Wellington led off a short time ago, while within the last fortnight Kent, Lambton, Huron and Bruce, each have held meetings. The remaining interested counties are organizing shortly. The meetings are being held to form county organizations to be later co-ordinated into an Ontario Cattle Export Association. Dairy cattle raisers interested in export will also be represented on the Association. The object of the Association is to restore confidence and stability in the export market among beef and dairy cattle raisers of both pure breds and commercial grades. Facilities for providing means within the Association for direct export of cattle along lines followed so successfully by Ontario apple and honey producers are also being carefully considered.

Weekly Crop Report

Fall wheat is ripening fast but returns will be definitely below average. Spring wheat is progressing satisfactorily. Coarse grains, the acreage of which has been considerably increased to supplant the feed shortage, are filling out well. Corn has improved with the warm weather and shows satisfactory growth and color. Pastures show improvement but still need more moisture. The yield of canning peas will be less than normal. Tomato plants are coming along nicely and forming well. Root crops are promising with the exception of sugar beets which are patchy and a poor yield is foreshadowed. Damage to orchards due to winter kill was more severe than anticipated and light crops of apples, peaches pears and plums are indicated. Tobacco plants are showing good growth but due to the activity of the cutworm a small percentage of the crop will be spotty and in Norfolk County some scattered damage has resulted from winds.

Regularity!
To Merchandisers . . .

"You sweep out, you trim the windows, you dust off the counters, you make up new price cards, you unpack and arrange new stock, you plan your merchandise showings, you do these and a hundred other necessary jobs REGULARLY in the normal conduct of your business.

"But how about the biggest job of all—contacting the people and telling them repeatedly that you are in business and have the goods they need. Do you do that REGULARLY? Do you figure you are going to get your share of the available business if you don't tell folks about your merchandise or your service at REGULAR intervals instead of doing the job spasmodically or not at all?

"By all known tests, experience and thousands of records, the acknowledged best-of-all medium for REGULARITY is advertising in the local newspaper. A newspaper going REGULARLY into the homes of your possible customers, not only in your city but the surrounding territory as well, makes it easy enough for anyone to see how your local newspaper offers you the finest kind of a vehicle for carrying your business message REGULARLY to the people.

"And don't think these folks won't miss your REGULARITY of advertising. They look for their newspaper REGULARLY, READ IT REGULARLY, study its advertising (yours, if it's there) REGULARLY.

"And what's more, you'll find they are buying fairly REGULARLY, too, if you'll just check up, esperially with the advertisers who do use space REGULARLY.
