Ernie Stinson accompanied Mr. Fred Stuart of Flesherton on a trip through the Muskoka District and bought a carload of cattle. Ernie says that the district received its first rain since spring while he was there and the crops were therefore poor.

IN MEMORIAM

PHILLIPS — In loving memory of our dear daughter and sister, Grace, who entered into eternal life on Wed. September 27th, 1933.

A light is from our household gone,
A voice we loved so well;
A place is vacant at our hearth,
Which never can be fillel.

Not gone from memory nor from love
But gone to her Father's home above.

Oft and oft our hearts do wander
To a grave not far away,
Where we laid our loving daughter
Just a year ago to-day.

Sleep on, dear one, your cares are ended,
Rest in peace your work is done;
You have gone where those who love you
Will some day meet you, one by one.

—Sally missed by Father, Mother, Sister and Brothers.

PRICEVILLE

One of the most successful fall fairs for a number of years in both attendance and the number of exhibits was held at Priceville Friday. With new centre tables and fine broad shelves erected along the sides the annual fair can be called the best yet. Fine space was alloted for showing goods of a wonderful quality for this year, especially in roots and vegetables and flowers in profusion. In the contest for six assorted tea biscuits and a cup of Salada tea, there were nine entries.

Miss Emily Baltzer of Orangeville was the government judge to sample all the culinary display. Mrs. Wm. Groat of Mt. Forest judged the large display of ladies' work, while Mr. Groat had the roots, vegetables, grain and fruit to classify. Mr. Downey of Bolton judged cattle and Mr. J. W. Fleury of Branaford judged the horses. A. E. Harrington of Durham placed the poultry.

Mr. W. G. McBride, president, opened the Fair with instructions to the exhibitors to place their exhibits promptly and declared the show open.

First on the program was the school children's drill, which was done very creditably, finishing with a verse of "O Canada" and the school yell.

The concert in connection with the show proved to be a decided success and was given by a club from Owen Sound presenting "Mollie Baun," and was well-acted throughout. Winsome Mollie, Miss Irene McIvor, played her part well, and no wonder, so much sought after as she was. The old, crusty curmudgeon of a grandfather, too, was well portrayed by Mr. Ross Cameron. The sequel ended up fine. The dance, which followed, was also satisfactory to the management. The Nite-Owl orchestra supplied good music for the dance as well as selections between acts of the play very liberally. One violin, played by a pert, sweet little miss, two saxaphones and a traps player, constituted the ensemble.

A list of the prize winners will be published shortly.

Many were the congratulations extended to Mr. W. W. Ramage on Sunday last, who attained his 81st birthday, with eyesight and voice unimpaired. At the request of the minister the congregation sang the doxology at the close of the service.
