EUGENIA

Rev. J. Morris of Honeywood will occupy the pulpit here next Sunday, Oct. 7th. The service will commence at 10.45 a.m. Rev. Bushell will preach the anniversary services at Honeywood on Sunday.

Sunday School hour has been changed from 10 a.m. to 11.45, for the fall and winter months. This change will permit those attending church to remain for the Sunday School session.

We extend our sympaty to Mrs. Will Walker on the death of her sister, Mrs. J. Neeley, whose death occurred at South River recently. We neglected some weeks ago to extend our sympathy to Mrs. Will Kaitting, who was also bereft of a sister.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Hopps of Collingwood visited in the village Monday. They intend to move here if they can secure a house.

We are sorry to report Miss Mary Hopper not enjoying very good health at present. Mrs. Park's health is somewhat improved, and we hope that both ladies will soon be well again.

The work on the new pipe line is just about completed. A number of men were laid off on Friday and only about a dozen were kept to complete the "finishing up," which will last a week or so.

Rally Day was observed in the United Church on Sunday last. The service included an interesting address by the pastor, Rev. Bushell, who gave a review of the Sunday School movement of a century and a half, and Mrs. Chas. Martin, in the absence of the Superintendent, acted as leader and conducted an attractive pageant "Sunday School Visitors of Far Places." Miss Georgina Smith was oragnist for the beautiful hymns chosen for the service.

Mrs. Kernaghan and nephew, Mr Brown, have returned home to Toronto after a visit with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jamieson.

Threshing is nearly completed here for this season. The spring crops have yielded fine, except buckwheat and the early frost in September injured considerable of it. Fall wheat was badly winter killed. Hay crops were only fair, as the hard frost last winter killed out considerable clover.

CEYLON

GIFT TO MISS MACPHAIL

Miss Agnes Macphail, M.P., was the guest of honor Saturday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. Lawson, one miles north of Durham, when the women of the riding presented her with a beautiful address and a wonderful white quilt, centred with a wreath of pink roses. The quilt was designed and made by Mrs. Walter Ferguson of Mt. Forest, on behalf of the women of the riding, and bespoke their loyalty and their love and appreciation for Miss Macphail and her efforts in their behalf and women in general. Miss Macphail, deeply impressed, expressed her appreciation of their loving thoughts, and loyalty to her and outlined at some length farm conditions, since she first entered Parliament, down to the present time. Refreshments were served at the close of a wonderfully happy afternoon.
