ROCK MILLS

The fowl supper held in the Baptist church Tuesday night Oct. 30th. was a great success. A large crowd was present. A good program of music, songs etc. was enjoyed. Rev. Mr. Richards of Hanover gave a short address and the Hanover male quartette sang several beautiful pieces which were well received. The proceeds of the evening amounted to $75.00.

Hallowe'en passed off quietly except for a few pranks played by the youngsters and some were out in costume having a merry time, challenging householders to "a treat or a trick," and treats were plentiful.

PROTON STATION

DYSON—PARK

At the home of the bride's brother Mr. Joseph A. Park, on Saturday, November 3rd, Miss Lena Louise Park was united in marriage to Mr. W. A. Dyson of Hamilton. The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother, was becomingly gowned in blue sheer crepe with sequin trimming. Little Miss Margaret Mills was a pretty flower girl in a dainty frock of rose taffeta. Rev. J. R. Wilkinson performed the ceremony, which took place beneath a prettily decorated arch in the living room. During the signing of the register, which was witnessed by the bride's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pickett, Mrs. Wilkinson sang. Afterward the bride and groom led the way to the dining room where a sumptuous wedding dinner was served. The decorations were in pink and white.

Mr. and Mrs. Dyson left on Sunday for their home in Hamilton, the bride wearing an ensemble of two-tone brown travel tweed with hat and other accessories to match.

The guests were Mr. Bill Dyson Jr. of Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Pickett, Levi Pickett and Ed. Dorety of Bolton, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Williams of Toronto, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Meddaugh and daughter, Irene, of Dundalk.

The best wishes of Proton Station friends are extended to the happy couple.

Pioneered By Canada

Strange as it seems, there was a time, not so long ago, when windshields were not standard equipment but were detachable "extras" to be installed after the car was purchased. This came to light in an interesting way recently when exhibition crowds were viewing the old car museum of General Motors Products of Canada Limited. Prominent among the old cars was a Cadillac of 1908, which was equipped with one of these "extra" windshields, brass-framed and held in position by brass rods. By a co-incidence, spectators of the old-timer included at least three who had some historic connection with the car when it was new. These were J. J. Cameron, who invented the windshield and installed it on this paticular car; C. E. McTavish, who was with the Conboy Carriage Company at the time and sold the windshield to the Cadillac's owner, and who is now general sales manager of General Motors Products of Canada, Limited; and J. A. Gowdy, who sold the car itself, being at that time salesman for Hyslop Brothers and now with the Cadillac-Pontiac branch in Toronto. Mr Cameron recalled how Canada pioneered the windshield, the idea being copied soon afterwards in the United States.

Man in Toronto struck a match while gasoline was being poured from one container to another ... the firemen ... damage $300 ... badly burned around hands and arms.

It seems only a few days ago that we got through buying Christmas presents for last year and now we see that "so many days to Christmas" is again a shopping slogan.

EUGENIA

The Late Hy. Williams

Death came on Thursday morning, October 25th, to a well known and respected Eugenia district resident in the person of Mr. Henry Williams at his home, following a lengthy illness.

The deceased, who was in his 83rd year, was born at Bond Head, Ont., in the year 1852 and after residing there for some time, he, with his parents, moved to Vandeleur when quite young, later moving to Eugenia, where he was married to Mary Campbell, who predeceased him by five years. The late Mr. Williams was a staunch Conservative and one of the oldest members of the Orange Lodge. He never missed a parade on the 12th of July until the past four years. He was also a life-long member and an elder of the Presbyterian Church, now the United Church.

Those left to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father are: Duncan of Eugenia, John of Paris, Ont., Ada (Mrs. John Braniff) of Sask., and Christena (Mrs. F. R. Genoe) of Eugenia.

Following an impressive service held in the United Church by Rev. A. Bushell, the remains were laid to rest in the family plot in Flesherton cemetery.

Those attending the funeral from a distance were: John Williams of Paris, Mrs. Pooley, Mr. Will Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Widdifield, Mr. and Mrs. Donaldson, all of Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. Prince of Mt. Dennis.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. John and Albert Williams, Stanley and John Campbell, Henry Tudor and Joseph Sherwood.

There were a number of beautiful floral offerings, among them being a wreath from the Eugenia friends and a wreath from L.O.L. 1118, Eugenia.

In London, Ont., there is a new regulation which makes it necessary for a person buying a bottle of milk in a store to leave five cents as guarantee that the bottle be returned. Like many other regulations it comes too late. The pickling season is over.

PORTLAW

Mr. Neil McIntyre has been laid up for over a week and not able to leave his bed. We hope to see him soon restored to his usual good health.

Gordon, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Nichols was taken to the Hospital for Sick Children, Toronto, last week for treatment. Gordon's life during the summer appeared to be hanging by a very slender thread, but his parents now have confidence that he will, before long, be fully restored to health.

Rev. Bushell's theme on Sunday last was the secret of the first missionary movement. His message was listened to with interest and inspiration.

Mrs. Geo. Wilson has been quite ill of late. Her friends are pleased to hear that there is some improvement in her condition.

The pupils of our school enjoyed a fine time on Hallowe'en, when they were treated to good things to eat and a happy time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker, T. R. and Mrs. McKenzie and Alvin McKenzie visited with friends in Collingwood last week.

Windsor men are marrying ladies several years older than themselves. Truth is that when the gals get their war paint on it is not easy to calculate to a decimal point just how long they have been on the circuit.

Rock Mills Anniversary

Anniversary services were held in the Rock Mills Baptist Church on Sunday, October 28th, with Rev. C. J. Cameron, B.A., of Toronto as guest speaker. Mr. Cameron's sermons were highly instructive and impressive. In the morning he spoke on "Justification by Faith" and in the evening "Peace Through Blood." The eight piece orchestra provided special music and solos were given by Jean and Ruth Wolstencroft. Large congregations were present at both services.

The annual fowl supper was held on Tuesday, October 30th, when a large crowd sat down to well-filled tables. An entertainment was held following the supper. Two numbers were given by the orchestra, violin solos by George Akitt and Jean Wolstencroft, Ruth Russel and Prof. Kyle. Rev. Richards, Hanover, delvered an address full of humor and the Hanwas full of humor and the Hanover Baptist male quartette favored the audience with four numbers, and were well received. The National Anthem brought a successful evening to a close.

Walter Dale, living near Seaforth, found a dollar bill in a starling nest.
