STARTLING DISCOVERY!

LOST MANHOOD RESTORED.

A victim of youthful imprudence causing Premature Decay, Nervous Debility, Lost Manhood, etc., having tried in vain every known remedy, has discovered a simple self cure, which he will send FREE to his fellow-sufferers, address J. H. REEVES, 43 Chatham St., N. Y.

SEASONABLE.

Sunrise fresh, and the daisies small
Silver the lawn with their starlets fair;
But the blossoms of noon shall be stately and tall,
Tropical, luscious, of odors rare;
Ah, well!
Noon shall be gorgeous beyond compare.

Noon, and the sky is a blinding glare;
The flowers have fainted while we have strayed;
We wandered too far to tend them there,
And they drooped for lack of the dew and shade;
Ah, well!
Evening shall right the mistake we made.

THE GATLING GUN.

Its Death Dealing Power Increased—Trenches no Longer Places of Safety for Soldiers.

Dr. Gatling writes to the Army and Navy Journal as follows concerning some improvements he has been making in the original machine gun—the Gatling:

The new improvements recently made in the feed of the Gatling gun have proved a great success. This improved feed is positive and certain in its action, and enables the gun to be fired at all angles of elevation, or depression, and gives it a power and effectiveness not heretofore attained by any other fire arm. In other words, with this new improvement balls can be fired into the air from the gun at the rate of over a thousand per minute, and by giving the gun the required degrees of elevation, the balls so discharged can be made to fall on men behind entrenched positions at any distances, say from 100 to 3,500 yards from the gun. This principle of high angle, or mortar fire, from machine guns, opens up as it were, a new idea in the science of gunnery; at all events furnishes a new and certain means of destroying men in entrenched positions. It is a fact, well known to scientific gunmen, that musket balls fired into the air descend with sufficient force to penetrate two or four inches of timber, and showers of such balls fired from a Gatling gun (by giving the gun proper elevation) would be as effective as if discharged directly from the gun at the object penetrated. By the use of range-finders and other means distances can be easily determined, and as stated, by giving the gun certain degrees of elevation the balls discharged from it can be made to fall with certainty at the point desired, and as the range of the gun can be maintained while it is being fired a continuous shower of balls can be discharged in the air and rained downed, as it were, on the heads of men behind ordinary breastworks. The foregoing results can be easily attained by the intelligent use of the Gatling gun as now constructed. The lock mechanism of the gun has also been greatly improved. New extractors are now used which never fail to extract the cartridge shells after the same have been fired. These improvements are the invention of Mr. J. G. Accles, who has been for years past in the employ of the Gatling Gun Company.

Holloway's Ointment and Pills.

Ever useful. The afflicted by illness should look their diseases fully in the face, and at once seek a remedy for them. A short search will convince the most sceptical that these noble medicaments have afforded ease, comfort, and oftentimes complete recovery, to the most tortured sufferers. The ointment will cure all descriptions of sores, wounds, bad legs, sprains, eruptions, erysipelas, rheumatism, gout, and skin affections. The pills never fail in correcting and strengthening the stomach, and in restoring a deranged liver to a wholesome condition, in rousing torpid kidneys to increase their secretion, and in re-establishing the natural healthy activity of the bowels. Holloway's are the remedies for complaints of all classes of society.

The Rev. Chas. E. Piper, formerly of Pittsfield, N. H., but now of Wakefield, R. I., writes: "I have used Baxter's Mandrake Bitters in my family for over two years, and as a result have not called a physician in the whole time. My wife had been an invalid for two years, but these Bitters have cured her.

Those affected with lungs sluggish liver or derangements of the kidneys, should procure a package of Dr. Carson's Liver and Lung Compound. Each 50 cent package makes three pints of Syrup. It is a valuable collection of roots, herbs and barks, and its results are wonderful. For sale by all druggists. H. Wade agent.

C. Britton, Lindsay, Ont., writes.—I have much pleasure in recommending Baxter's Mandrake Bitters in all cases of jaundice, biliousness, sick headache and liver complaint, for they have given universal satisfaction and I have sold more of them the past season than any other one patent medicine.

MISTAKEN FOR A GHOST.

How a Lady Member of a Phantom Surprise Party Narrowly Escaped Death.

(Baltimore American.)

A number of ladies and gentlemen residing in Baltimore city and County a few evenings ago determined to give one of their number, living in the upper end of Baltimore County, a pleasant surprise in the shape of a phantom party. Accordingly each lady and gentleman secured a white robe and mask, a large 'bus was engaged, and the musicians were hired. They started, a merry, laughing crowd, for their destination, about seventeen miles distant from Baltimore. When within half a mile of their friend's house the 'bus was stopped, and the ladies and gentlemen donned their long, flowing white robes and masks, which were slipped over their street costumes. They then drove on to the house, and were admitted by one of the young lady members of the family, who had been previously notified of the proposed party. The other members of the family were soon in the parlor, and hospitably welcomed their white-robed visitors. Dancing was at once begun, and kept up without intermission until 11 o'clock, when they were all invited to partake of the supper which had been prepared for them.

Directly after supper one of the young ladies from Baltimore, feeling the rooms rather warm, walked out on the front porch. While standing there a sudden desire to explore the grounds of the house took possession of her, and, forgetting that she was still covered with her long white robe, she walked down the carriage drive in the direction of the gate. She had not proceeded over a hundred yards when those who were in the house heard two pistol shots fired in quick succession, accompanied by a woman's scream. All rushed from the house in the direction from which the sound was heard, and they found the young lady lying in the road, apparently lifeless. She was carried into the house and an examination was made, when it was found that she had not been shot, but had fainted from fright. She regained consciousness after an hour's struggle between life and death, and is still confined to her bed from nervous prostration. It was not found out until the next morning who had fired the shots, and then the occupants of the house missed an old family servant, named Ezekiel, who had gone home the evening before to see his wife, and who promised to return at 12 o'clock the same night, but failed to put in an appearance. A messenger was sent to his house, about a mile distant from the main house.

The messenger upon arriving at the house, found the old man in bed, and no amount of persuasion could induce him to leave it. He said he had seen a ghost the night previous, and he was never going out of the house again. When questioned he said that he had started on the night previous, about 11:30 o'clock, for his employer's house, and when nearly there he saw a ghost. He was so frightened that he drew a pistol and fired at it twice, and then ran all the way home. On being told that it was not a ghost, but a young lady, and that he nearly killed her, he was more frightened than ever, and prayed to the Good Man to kill him right there. When the robe worn by the young lady was examined it was found that one of the bullets had passed through the hood and another through the sleeve. At the request of the young lady the colored man was not arrested, and the whole affair was kept very quiet.

Farmers and Mechanics.

Provide yourselves with a bottle of PAIN-KILLER at this season of the year, when summer complaints are so prevalent; it is a prompt, safe, and sure cure. It may save you days of sickness, and you will find it is more valuable than gold. Be sure you buy the genuine PERRY DAVIS' PAIN-KILLER, and take no other mixture.

COBOURG, Ont., March 3, 1880.

I have been selling Perry Davis' Pain-Killer for the past six years, and have much pleasure in stating that its sale in that time has been larger than any other patent medicine that I have on my shelves, and in those years I have never heard a customer say aught but words of the highest praise in its favor. It is an article that seems to have combined in it all that goes to make a first-class family medicine, and as long as I have a house and store, Perry Davis Pain-Killer will be found in both.

Yours, &c., J. E. KENNEDY.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

ADVICE TO INVALIDS—If you wish to obtain quiet, refreshing sleep, free from headache, relief from pain and anguish, to calm and assuage the weary aches of protracted disease, invigorate the nervous media, and regulate the circulating systems of the body, you will provide yourself with that marvellous remedy discovered by Dr. J. Collis Browne (late Army Medical Staff) to which he gave the name of CHLORODYNE, and which is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for Coughs, Consumption, Bronchitis and Asthma

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation, and Spasms

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Nervousness, &c.

From Squire & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, January 5, 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33 Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London. Dear Sir,—We embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide spread reputation this justly esteemed medicine, Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility we must question whether a Better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands we are happy to say are now relegated to the native bazaars, and judging from their sale, we feel assured that the opinion there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances of the astonishing and extraordinary efficacy of Dr. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne in Diarrhœa, and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Cholera, Diarrhœa, and every other form of Bowel Complaint, in Cholera itself we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, to state that we are of the opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a DELIBERATE ATTEMPT TO PALM OFF THE WORST ON THOSE WHO WISH THE BEST AND RELIABLE. We are, Dear Sir, Faithfully yours, Squire & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency's Vice-Consul Chemists.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir Page Wood stated that Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE was undoubtedly the inventor of CHLORODYNE; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, was deliberately untrue, and of a character he (the Vice-Chancellor) had been sworn to. See Times, July 13, 1864.
