OWEN SOUND JUNIORS DEFEATED BY LOCALS

Flesherton hockey team defeated a team from Owen Sound by 10—8 score. They displayed plenty of skill and speed on both sides.

In the first period Owen Sound succeeded in getting a two goal lead on Flesherton when McLinden, Sargent and Bearman made the old boot heel count for Owen Sound ond Gorrell netted for the home boys. In the second period Boyd and Patton bulged the twine for Flesherton before the visiting team was lead in with a goal by Lenahan, Boyd scored again for Flesherton and then Tennent boosted the score up one for Owen Sound but the home boys came to the lead again when both Gorrell and McCutcheon counted, but Owen Sound seemed determined to keep up so Tennant counted one more for them to even the score. In the final period Flesherton left the visiting team behind with a 4—2 lead, McCutcheon scoring two of the four goals and Phillips and Boyd bringing in the other. McLinden and Sargent got the counters for the city boys.

Reg. Boyd acted as referee for the game.

Durham Defeats Chatsworth

Durham defeated Chatsworth in Durham on Friday night 11—5, in the first contest between these teams. Flesherton at present leads the group with two wins and Durham is in second place with one win and a loss. The local team travels to Durham this Wednesday evening for the return game Flesherton winning the first encounter last week.

A Heavy Storm

Quite a number of Flesherton people attended the motor show held at Toronto last week. They motored down Wednesday morning and that night a real blizzard came along that kept them there as refugees from the promised land. Most of them arrived home during Thursday, but they said that the storm was the worst that they had ever experienced. At times the road was invisible due to the blinding snow and the drivers were forced to call a halt at times on their progress towards home and comfort. One carload left Orangeville at noon Thursday and arrived in Flesherton at 6.30 that night. The joys of winter car driving are truly wonderful!

Selecting and Mating The Breeders in Poultry Flock

Too often in selecting the stock for breeding high egg records or some outstanding feature of the sire or dam are allowed to influence the judgment, without due regard to vitality or good breeding qualities that may or may not be present.

The selection for vigor and for those desirable qualifications that conform to the breed is comparatively simple, beause mostly these are visible characters and can be chosen by comparison. Vigor is evident by the carriage, desirable body weight for age and breed, health and bloom of feather, and good bone formation, while the clean-cut head with clear, bright and prominent eye in the male and female is a certain indication of brain power and nervous energy and the hall-mark of high vitality and reproductive strength.

Mrs. A. McCauley Dies From Effects of Stroke

Death came on Friday morning to Mrs. Andrew McCauley of Flesherton, following a stroke the previous Wednesday at her home in town. Mrs. McCauley had apparently been enjoying her usual good health and that morning had been doing some work in the rear of her residence. Her neighbor, Mrs. Robt. Alexander went to call on her a short time afterwards and found Mrs. McCauley lying on the floor in her home. She was taken to the home of her son, Reeve Howard McCauley, and was conscious for a few hours, but went to sleep Wednesday afternoon and passed away without regaining consciousness, on Friday morning. Deceased was in her 75th year and her death came as a distinct shock to her many friends in Flesherton.

The late Mrs McCauley was born at Acton, Ont., and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wright. She moved with her parents to Proton Township when she was a young girl and was united in marriage to Andrew McCauley almost fifty years ago. At first they resided in Proton and later in Euphrasia and Ceylon, coming to Flesherton in 1907. Mr. McCauley predeceased her in 1914. To them were born three sons and two daughters, Howard, Reeve of Flesherton John of Owen Sound and Roy of Toronto, Margaret (Mrs. Wm. Meldrum) of Gimli, Man., and Jessie (Mrs. Vernon Campbell) of Grand View, Man. One son, Thomas, was accidentally drowned while residing at Ceylon.

The late Mrs. McCauley was well known throughout this district, and was highly regarded by a host of friends for her cheery disposition and kindly manner with everyone. The writer, as a youngster, remembers many kind acts of Mrs. McCauley in her love for children, and in her understanding of their many moods. Mrs. McCauley was a great reader, although she has been handicaped the past few years with eye trouble. She was a member of St. John's United Church, Flesherton.

The funeral took place on Monday afternoon when a large number of friends gathered at the home of her son to pay their last respects to one highly regarded in life. Rev. W. J. Scott, pastor of St. John's United Church, preached a very comforting sermon to the bereaved family, taking his text from the 14th chapter of John. Dr. E. C. Murray sang a beautiful solo.

All the family were present for the funeral except Jessie, besides Alfred McCauley of Owen Sound, a brother-in-law, Miss Reta Morris of Toronto and Robt. Brown of Shrigley.

The casket was surrounded with a beautiful bower of floral tributes of sympathy and affection, among them a wreath from the Council and officials of the Village of Flesherton, the neighbors, the business men of Flesherton, Owen Sound Bell Telephone, the Flesherton Tennis Club, The Robert Simpson Co., including several departments and other business associates.

The pallbearers were: Messrs. J. O. Dargavel, C. N. Richardson, A. Down, G. B. Welton, Council members, F. H. W. Hickling, village treasurer and Mr. John McMillan.

The department of education announced to-day the annual departmental examinations will be held somewhat earlier this year, and that it is expected they will be concluded by the end of June, instead of carrying on till around July 10 as formerly. The precise dates have not been set, but this intention will be observed. The earlier date will faciliate summer holiday arrangements for many families that have been much delayed in previous years.

A SURE THING

"No," said the merchant, "I don't" want any slot machines that involve gambling."

"These," said the salesman earnestly, "aren't gambling devices. The customer hasn't got a chance."

Mrs. J. D. Clark Dies After Lengthy Illness

Sarah Jane Armstrong, beloved wife of Mr. J. D. Clark, died at her home in Weston on Sunday, January 20th, after an extended illness covering a period of more than a dozen years, the past two being confined to her bed.

Mrs. Clark was the eldest daughter of the late J. W. Armstrong and was a sister of Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling of Flesherton. Besides Mrs. Hickling she leaves two other sisters, Mrs. T. Aikenhead, Toronto, and Mrs. (Rev.) F. D. Goff of Clarksburg ,and three brothers, Dr. Ernest Armstrong of Cobalt, Mr. J. W. Armstrong of Toronto and Rev. Bert Armstrong of Meaford.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Clark were married at her parental home here 52 years ago, celebrating their golden wedding in 1932. There was a family of two sons and one daughter, George, Jack and Dorothy. George died in the West four years ago and Dorothy died at twenty-two years of age, while residing in Ottawa with her parents, where her father was then secretary to the Minister of Justice. Jack or Dick, as he was affectionately called is at present living in Boston. Her husband made considerable success as a newspaper man, first on the Hamilton Times, later on the London Advertiser, where he scored his greatest success.

The deceased lady was of a very affectionate and kindly nature and a friend in need. She is remembered as a woman of sterling worth, whom it was a pleasure to know.

The remains were interred in Flesherton cemetery on Tuesday, January 22nd. Service was held at her home in Weston on Monday evening and on Tuesday a motor hearse brought the body here for interment in the family plot, previous to which a short service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. H. W. Hickling.

Many friends sympathise with the bereaved husband, who, however, are firm in the knowledge that her release from bodily pain and sorrow was her great desire, where she has joined her parents and the loved ones who have passed before her.

The following ministers of the gospel took part in the service on Tuesday afternoon, where a number of close friends gathered to pay tribute to one whom they loved for her high qualities as a Christian friend: Rev. W. J. Scott of Flesherton, Rev. Bert Armstrong of Meaford, Rev. F. D. Goff of Clarksburg and Rev. Dr. S. D. Gaudin, returned missionary from northern Manitoba, each of whom took part in what proved to be a touching service in memory of a loving wife, mother and friend. Rev. Mr. Forbes of Westminster United Church, Weston, paid the deceased lady a very high tribute for her beautiful character as a Christian.

Among those present from a distance were: Mr. J. H. Clark of Winchester, Mass., the only son, Dr. Ern. Armstrong of Cobalt, Rev. F. D. Goff and Mr. and Mrs. J. Mitchell of Clarksburg, Rev. Bert and Mrs. Armstrong of Meaford. Mrs. Howard Hall of Thornbury, Bert Armstrong Jr. and Bert Goff of Clarksburg, Miss May Fligg of Meaforn, Miss Ruby Aikenhead of Toronto. Margaret Johnston of Dundee, Scotland, Mr. and Mrs. C. Armstrong of Markdale.

The pallbearers were: F. H. W. Hickling, Bert Armstrong, Bert Goff, J. Mitchell, Geo. Armstrong and Chas. Armstrong.

Tons of Hay Moved

A large quantity of hay has been removed by truck from this district during the past fall and winter months. Most of this has been taken to Alliston and other localities where fodder was scarce. Good prices were paid, twelve and thirteen dollars being the ruling price.

The moving of this fodder has been a blessing, indeed, to those who have been so fortunate as to have a good supply on hand. Mr. Porter Beard of Springhill has disposed of over four hundred dollars worth of baled hay. Many farmers in this vicinity have disposed of a few tons, and a very large guantity, in the aggregate, has been moved. The farmers of this county appear to be going in more for corn than they did formerly and this has had the effect of releasing some of the surplus hay.

The month's award for cynicism goes to the man in Lonlon who left his entire estate to his lawyer.

THE OLD HOME PAPER

(By Edgar A. Guest)

It's like a smiling, friendly face,
It's like a voice you long have known;
You see in some distant place
And rush to claim it for your own.
The paper from your old home town
Has bridged the long and dreary miles,
And with it you can settle down
Among familiar tears and smiles
It speaks for every friend you know
It tells of scenes you yearn to see
It brings back joys of long ago
And tells of joys that are to be.
And as you run its columns o'er
Your yester years come trooping back,
You fancy you're at home once more
And golden seem the letters black.
It's speech is one you understand,
It tells of griefs that you can share
It brings you in that foreign land
Glad messages to banish care.
There among scenes and faces strange,
The old home paper seems to be
A faithful friend that doesn't change
A friend that you are glad to see

Champion Shovellers Of This Village

Snowshovellers in Flesherton have been experiencing plenty of work at their favorite winter pastime this year, as can be seen by huge piles of snow they deposited on the sides of the street. They have become so proficients in the wielding of the shovel that we would wager that they couldn't be beaten in their fascinating occupation. In a neighboring weekly paper we notice where the editor has awarded mythical championships to the local shovel wielders and herewith in the list we would choose for Flesherton:

Best "leaner" — Mark Wilson.

Best clean up man with broom — C. N. Richardson.

Best high cut — Jim Wison.

Fastest lane builder — sidewalk to road — Ken. Kennedy.

Longest furrow with one sweep — F. G. Karstedt.

First for rapid fire shovelling — Alf. Down.

Quickest on the "draw" — Geo. Armstrong.

Best on rounding corners — Emerson Bennett.

Neatest "piler" — W. A. Hawken

Earliest in action and most consistent — Frank Duncan.

Best all around man — George McTavish.

Best in deep snow — Wm. Miller

Niftiest action — R. B. Heard, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce branch.

Best on long distance throw — Howard Milligan.

Cleanest furrow — Thos. Fisher

Best back swipe — Wm. Turney

Advisory Committee — G. B. Welton and O. W. Phillips.

This is our choice and if you disagree let us know your selection and maybe something could be done about it.

As the Irishman says:—"I've seen t'ousands of Januarys and there's always a t'aw.

There was a timid knock at the door.

"If you please, kind lady," said the beggar, "I've lost my right leg."

"Well!" snapped the woman, as the door was slammed in his face, "I haven't got it."

—A Haileybury butcher, while dressing a chicken, discovered that the bird had two hearts. Every living thing in the north country appears to be extraordinarily hardy. Men are men there and quintuplets are five of a kind.

How He Knew

Four workmen were playing cards "I knew you were going to play a spade, Bill," said one.

"Ow?" asked Bill.

"Because," said the first man, "I saw you spit on your 'and."

Osprey Council Appoints Officers

Monday, January 14th found all of the newly-elected members of the Osprey township council on hand to take up the reins of municipal government which had been handed to them at the polls a week earlier. After each member had duly taken and subscribed to the statutory declaration of office, Mr. Lockhart was introduced to the chair and immediately called upon the Rev. Mr. Bushell of Maxwell United Church to open the meeting with Scripture reading and prayer. In his inaugural address the Reeve commented upon the financial condition of the township and asked for co-operation and assistance of the council and officials in an effort to improve it and to be out of the red at the end of the year. Each member of the council gave a short address, whereupon they took up the duties on hand, as follows:

That Mr. Reg. Londry be appointed to investigate the condition of Mr. Jas. Blakey, which had been brought to the attention of the council.

A committee of three members of the council was appoinetd to arrange for the return of the 1932 Collectors' Roll.

MISUNDERSTOOD

An old lady entered the village post office.

"I want to send these trousers by book post," she said.

"We cannot send trousers by book post," replied the postmistress.

"But you told me the other day that anything open at both ends could be sent by book post."

Judging from the large demand for poultry marked by the official grades, it is apparent that Canadians are becoming familiar with those grades. More tagged poultry was displayed and sold on grade during the recent holiday season than in any year since grade tagging was introduced.
