Woman fights off attacker

Halton Police are appealing to the public for information about an attack on a woman at Steeles Ave. and Fifth Line early Sunday morning.

Police say the woman was walking on the south side of Steeles Ave. just east of Fifth Line about 1 a.m. when she was approached from behind and knocked to the ground by an unknown male.

She was able to fight off the male and he subsequently fled on foot in a southwestern direction through a field.

Halton Police responded with the canine unit and searched the area, but did not find the suspect.

He is described as having a dark complexion (possibly Hispanic), 5'11", 170 lbs., shaved head, and was wearing blue jeans and a t-shirt. He may have received facial injuries during the attack.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Child Abuse and Sexual Assault Bureau at 905-878-5511 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-222-TIPS (8477).

A 32" Panasonic television, iPod, Wii system, laptop computer and Xbox were stolen from a Chester Cr. home sometime between 8 a.m. and 10 p.m. Friday. A screen in a window was forced to gain entry.

Stabbed gas bar employee still in hospital

An employee of Hornby's Pump Gas Bar, who was stabbed in an armed robbery at the Hornby Rd. station last Monday night, remains in Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre in serious, but stable, condition.

The 43-year-old male employee suffered multiple stab wounds and lacerations to his abdomen from what police are calling an "edged weapon." After undergoing eight hours of emergency surgery he was initially reported in critical but stable condition.

Police continue to investigate.

Beat the temptation.
