A CANADIAN SLEIGHING PARTY.—Who does not enjoy a sleighing party? Not the 'Sulky Ride,' with no one but ourself. But the real big party of men and woman. It is splendid to crowd the sleigh, the closer the better, especially if your next one be a good looking girl. How timid she is of falling out, and how strong your arm around her waist to keep her in. Then the whisperings, the jolts, the snow banks, the bright moon peeping out ever and anon to take heed of you, and the wicked stars twinkling at you. Then the loud song and chorus. Then the drawing up before the old hostelry and the glimmer of the fire, which finds its way through the windows and tells of log fires and fiddlers, and dances, and jokes, and turkeys, and pies, and coffee, and all the et ceteras which make up a night's revel. Oh, it is jolly to go a sleigh riding. I am old now, but I often think longingly of the days gone by, and wonder if I would not still love to do as I did then. After such a time it is always well to clear away the debris from the room and system, the former with brushes, and the latter by DR. HERRICK'S SUGAR COATED PILLS. They will right them.

NATURE'S DYE.—Is your hair falling out? Is your hair growing dry and lifeless? Is your hair less pliable and glossy than of yore? It wants a good healthful hair dressing to help exhausted nature to recover itself.

DR. EVORY.—Dear Sir, I am to day truly thankful that you have brought to my notice your very simple and efficacious "Diamond Catarrh Remedy." For many years I have suffered from the Catarrh—the disease being brought on by a too persistent effort in singing. I had laid myself "on the shelf," having received no benefit from the various nauseous remedies which I had tried. A few trials of your remedy relieved my head at once, and now after a three months' trial I am able to sing with a clearness and ease that delighted and astonished me. I wish you great success and shall not fail to recommend it wherever I see a need of its use. Respectfully yours,
