The Late George Park

EUGENIA

We were sorry to hear of the death of Mr. George Campbell Park, which occurred on Monday, March 11th in the Markdale hospital. For the past year he had been in failing health and was quite ill for about a week before his death.

The late Mr. Park, who was 79 years of age in November last, was born in Flesherton, and was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. George Park. When quite a young lad he moved with his parents to Eugenia. He was probably better known by "Cam" Park by the older residents. He carried the mail from Feversham to Flesherton for a few years and then went to Manitoba and resided at Emerson for fifty years, farming and conducting a livery business. About seven years ago he returned to Eugenia, where he has since resided. He was never married. He was a staunch Orangeman and also a member of the former Methodist church, now the United Church.

The funeral was held on Wednesday from the home of his nephew, Mr. Russell Park, at Flesherton and was attended by old friends and neighbors. The service was conducted by Rev. J. R. Wolstencroft, pastor of the Baptist church, who took as his text Job 14: 14. The hymns sung were "From Every Stormy Wind That Blows' and "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." The remains were placed in the mortuary chapel in Flesherton cemetery, when interment will take place in the family plot there.

The floral tributes were lovely, from relatives and Eugenia friends. The pallbearers were six old friends: Messrs. Wm. Magee, Wm. Caswell, John Wright, Isaac Smith, Thos. McKee and Robt. Meldrum.

The deceased is survived by three sisters and brother: Mrs. W. Heard (Eliza), Mrs. John Mayne (Lizzie) of Dominion City, Man., Mrs. Geo. Fogg (Martha) of Winnipeg, Man., and Mr. Richard Park of Eugenia. One sister, Mrs. L. Hawkins of Markdale, and one brother, Mr. John Park, of Port Huron, Mich., predeceased him.

We extend our sympathy to the sorrowing relatives.

"Calm and peaceful he is sleeping
Sweetest rest that follows pain,
And they who loved him sadly miss him
And trust in God to meet again."

PRICEVILLE

The Woman's Association held an Irish Stew celebration on Friday evening, 15 March, in honour of St. Patrick, in the basement of the United Church. The program was opened by a community sing of the "Wearing of the Green," followed by an address by the chairman, Rev. J. H. Johnston. The meeting was formed into four groups representing the Fogarty, O'Flynn, Finnegan and Murphy families. Two fine selections were given on the violin by Mr. John McKechnie, and Mrs. J. E. Harrison at the organ. Miss Anna McLean sang beautifully, "The Dear Little Shamrock" and "I'll take ye home again Kathleen," That old Irish Mother of Mine,"and"The Rose of Tralee" was sung by W. W. Ramage. An amusing skit was given by Patsy and Judy, (Misses Evelyn McDermid and Winnifred McConkey) in costumes. Each group was on hand with a song or verse, and one of the numbers was to make a speech or tell a story, which was done. News flashes, (actual and fictitous) were given by Mrs. A Ritchie. A fine hot supper of Irish stew was provided at the close by the many cooks, yet not spoiled. Several games, requiring speed and activity were held before the supper and a good time spent.

We are glad to report Mr. Andy Ford is making progress to recovery. Mr. John Williamson is also better and lookout for hidden icy spots.
