FEVERSHAM

MRS. JOHN ROBINSON HAS PASSED HER 91st BIRTHDAY

Mrs. John Robinson of Feversham passed her 91st birthday at the home of her son, Mr. Eli Robinson, on Monday, March 25th. Mrs. Robinson is enjoying fairly good health and is able to read and sew without glasses. She was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Brown and was born in England, coming to Canada with her parents when about eight years old, in the early days of Osprey. They settled on the 10th Line and Mr. Brown, being a blacksmith, worked at his trade and cleared a farm. When a young woman she was united in marriage to Mr. John Robinson, who predeceased her by some years. To them were born three children, Mr. Eli Robinson, Miss L. Robinson, who died a few years ago, and Miss Amelia who is with her mother. On the occasion of her birthday she received many kind wishes by telephone and mail and by friends and neighbor villagers, who called at her home and presented her with lovely roses and other presents, wishing the highly esteemed lady many returns of her birthday. The evening was spent with music and singing.

IN MEMORIAM

JAMIESON — In loving memory J. H. Jamieson, who departed this life on March 31st, 1930.

Not 'till the loom is silent,
And the shuttle ceases to fly,
Will God unroll the pattern
And explain the reason why.
Ever remembered by loving wife.
