FRIDAY EVENING, AUG. 29.

AT WHITE'S ROCKS.

Into the river they waded far,
Over the shallows which laugh and shout,
Standing at last on the rocks that lay
Bare when the afternoon tide was out.

Blue of the sea—it was in the eyes;
Gold of the sun—it was in their hair.
Fearless they laughed, did the maidens brave;
Why should they tremble, why need they care?

Ragged and rushing, as dark as night,
Only a tatting of foam for crown,
Low at the base of the rocks so bare,
Strove the fierce breakers to pull them down.

Tosses each maiden her sunny head
Proudly as empress her crown of gold,
Laughingly mocking the breakers' rage,
Baffled, defeated by maiden bold.

Ah, they forgot that the tide had turned!
Slyly and softly it quickly ran
Into the river now drained so low,
Over the shallows and up the sand.

Only a noiseless rolling stream,
Only the turn of the evening tide,
Gently it moved as the gentlest dream
When the maids saw it, hope quickly died.

Higher and higher it swiftly stole,
Covering ledges and beach of sand.
Deeper and deeper, the waters rolled,
Carrying sorrow to those on land.

Ah, there's gold in the surf tonight
Twined in the silver of ocean's foam—
Clasping each other two maidens drift
White as the moonlight each face of stone!

PERIHELION AND PESTILENCE.

WHAT MAY ENSUE DURING THE NEXT SEVEN YEARS. A PERIOD OF SUFFERING AND DEATH.

(Scientific.)

If there is anything in astrological criology, we are approaching one of the most pestilential periods of earth's history. Since the commencement of the Christian era the perihelia of the four great planets of the solar system—Jupiter, Uranus, Saturn and Neptune—have not been coincident. But this is about to occur, and, in the language of Dr Knapp, who has traced the history of the greatest epidemics that ever afflicted the human race to the perihelia of these planets, there will soon be "lively times for the doctors." The theory is that when one or more of the large planets is nearest the sun, the temperature and condition of our atmosphere are so disturbed as to cause injurious vicissitudes, terrible rains, prolonged droughts, etc., resulting in the destruction of crops, and pestilence among human beings and domestic animals.

Dr. Knapp has collected a mass of statistical data, all going to show that perihelion data have always been marked by unusual mortality, and that sickness and death have invariably corresponded with the planets in perihelion at the same time. The revolutions of Jupiter around the sun is accomplished in a little less than twelve years, of Saturn in a little less than thirty, Uranus in about eighty-four years, and of Neptune in about one hundred and sixty-four years. If it be true, therefore, that the perihelia of these planets occasion atmospheric condition unfavourable to life, pestilential disease should occur once in a dozen years, and aggravated and still more widespread epidemics at longer intervals. In tracing the history of epidemics for more than two thousand years Dr Knapp finds the facts in all cases to validate the theory. Thus in the sixth and again in the sixteenth centuries, three of the planets were coincident in perihelion, and these were the most pestilential times of the Christian era.

But soon we are to have, for the first time in two thousand years, all four of these planets against us. They will be at their nearest approach to the sun in or soon after 1880, so that for a few years, say from 1880 to 1885, the vitality of every living thing will be put to a severe and trying ordeal. Some persons think they see in the signs of the times, evidences of great disasters in the immediate future. The excessive heat, the unexampled cold, the prevalence of flood and disaster at sea, the general failure of the potato crop, the widespread chill fever among human beings, and the equal prevalence of the epizootic among animals, are mentioned as among the premonitions of the rapidly approaching perihelion.

Well, to be forewarned is to be forearmed. Accidents excepted we know very well that the persons of more vigorous constitutions and more hygienic habits will have the better chance to survive whatever adverse influence the extraordinary perihelia will occasion. It is well known to physicians that, in all pestilences, plague, typhus, small-pox, cholera, murrain, etc., the intemperate, the dissipated, and those whose sanitary conditions were bad, furnished the victims.

We do not want to alarm anyone, nor to make a sensation. We state the facts which all history attests. Readers can judge for themselves what importance to attach to the subject. That the conjoint perihelion of all the large planets of the solar system, one of which, Jupiter, is a thousand times as large as the earth, must disturb our atmosphere and temperature very considerably, is probable; that this disturbance must be injurious to health and life, is certain, and that these periods have heretofore been pestilential, is a matter of record. How much we shall suffer during the next dozen or fifteen years depends very much upon how nearly we live a life in accordance with the laws of life.

BUDGET OF NEWS.

A Pointed Question.

The Baltimore Gazette propounds the conundrum, "Were the apostles married men?" and while awaiting an answer, says

Some of the highly cultivated Boston people who have a theory that entirely too much attention is paid to woman in this day of civilization, are coming to the front with some puzzling facts. They want to know whether any of the twelve apostles ever married or whether there is any record in the Bible or elsewhere of any of their children. If there was a Mrs Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John, nobody ever heard of her. They point to the fact that Christ had brothers and sisters but no wife or daughter: there is no woman in the Trinity. Women were not permitted to speak in the early Christian churches. The Bible takes no more attention of women generally than the Koran or any other Oriental book. The ancient Greeks were the only people who gave woman in those days a partnership in the affairs of life—and they were Pagans and idolaters. This is really horrifying, and the ladies should call an indignation meeting in every city in the land. They might establish the fact that one of the apostles was a married man, for we are told that one of the relatives of Simon Peter's wife was sick of a fever on a certain occasion.

Prudent Stock Speculations.

The Stock Exchange never presented such an admirable condition for profitable and rapid stock operations. There never before have been so many fortunes made by quick fluctuations and skilful manipulations. Careful and reasonable people only operate through the combination system of Messrs. Lawrence & Co., which enables those with large or small means to invest and realize handsome profits, which are divided pro rata among the shareholders every thirty days. New combinations are constantly forming. From $25,000 to $10,000 can be safely invested with splendid opportunities for quick profits. An Illinois grain dealer made $13,220.41 in two investments. A Michigan farmer invested $50, which yielded $433.14. He made by three investments over $3,000. A Wisconsin country merchant made $4,249.16 in four combinations, and others have done equally as well. New explanatory circular, with "unerring rules for success," mailed by Messrs. Lawrence & Co., Bankers, 57 Exchange Place, New York City.

Read and Learn for Yourself.

Many valuable discoveries and much useful knowledge is kept from the world, because of the immense expense in making them known to the people. This is not the case with Boschees German Syrup, although but a few years introduced into this country, its sale now reaches in every town and village in the United States and Canada. Its wonderful success in curing Consumption, severe Coughs, Pneumonia, Asthma, and all other diseases of the throat and lungs, was first made known by distributing every year, for three years, over 400,000 bottles to the afflicted, free of charge, by Druggists. No such a test of merit was ever given before to any other preparation. Could you ask more? Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

Mr. Fellows' is daily in receipt of letters of enquiry, from various parts, respecting his Syrup of Hypophosphites. One recently received leads to the brief that the public mistake his meaning in reference to its effect in imparting superior energy to the mind. Where the intellect has been impaired by overwork or or by kindred causes, the use of the Syrup, together with proper precautions in the use of food, clothing, exercise and rest, will restore full power to the brain and nerves. Superiority of genius consists in great capacity of brain for assimilating material from every quarter, and of developing in proportion, but as by far the greater number are not well endowed by nature, consequently lacking this capacity, it would be quiet impossible to find cranium space for material necessary to constitute the brilliant genius. Hence although the Syrup will assist in restoring the mind which is lost it cannot change a natural born idiot into an intelligent man.

A CURE FOR DIPHTHERIA.—Mrs. Ellen B. Mason, wife of Rev. Francis Mason, Tounghoo, Birmah, writes:—My son was taken violently sick with diphtheria, cold chills, burning fever, and sore throat. I counted one morning ten little vesicles in his throat, very white, and his tongue, towards the root, just like a watermelon, full of seeds; the remainder coated as thick as a knife-blade. I tried the Pain-Killer as a gargle and found it invariably cut off the vesicles, and he raised them up, often covered with blood. He was taken ill on Sunday; on Wednesday his throat was clear, and his tongue rapidly clearing off. I also used it as a liniment, with castor oil and hartshorn, for his neck. It seemed to me a wonderful cure, and I can but wish it could be known to the many poor mothers in our land who are losing so many children by this dreadful disease.

AN OUNCE OF PREVENTION IS BETTER THAN A POUND OF CURE.—Of all the diseases to which frail humanity is liable, there are none more generally neglected in the commencement than ordinary Coughs and Colds, and which so frequently terminates in that frightful malady—Consumption. Dear reader, take warning. A few doses of N. H. Downs' Balsamic Elixir will arrest the cough and give immediate relief. It is a well-tried and never-failing remedy, and should be kept in every household.
