PORTLAW

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John Badgerow has been brightened by the arrival of a baby girl.

The latest news that we have heard from Mrs. Murrin Croft, who is in a Toronto hospital, is that she is slightly improved.

Mr. Wm. Cameron of the Centre Line has been in a critical state with an infection of his throat. Dr. Martin is in attendance and good hopes are now entertained for his recovery.

Mr. John Seeley of St. Marys visited at the home of his sister, Mrs Thos. Phillips.

Mrs. Wm. Warren of Toronto was a visitor recently with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Blakey.

Mr. and Mrs. Densmore Watson intend to move to a farm in the vicinity of Corbetton. We wish them success and happiness in their new home.

A happy gathering of neighbors and friends met at the home of Mr. W. H. McNally on Wednesday evening last, the purpose being to do honor to Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred McNally, recently married. The company indulged in games, instrumental music and singing of old favorites. The bride and groom were the recipients of a generous shower of useful household articles. Mr. and Mrs. McNally, in gracious words, each thanked the donors for their gifts and the kind sentiments expressed and invited all to visit them in their new home.

Mr. Densmore Watson had a narrow escape from serious injury last night near Corbetton, when his buggy was struck on Highway 10, by a car driven by a Toronto man. Although apparently not sreiously injured Mr. Watson is feeling the effects of the collision. The buggy was badly smashed.

"More Relief Funds Needed" is one headline which can well be kept standing in newspaper offices.

In her new outfit a lady passed out of the tenement. "She's lucky," commented Mrs. Muffins. I can't get a new coat, a fashionable hat—"

"Now, now," broke in Mrs. Joysby. "don't talk like that. You never know what you can do till you cry."

Newly married couple in the west received a large gift of canned goods from friends, but found that all the labels had been removed from the containers. So they may open a can hoping for peas for dinner only to find it is the pineapple they should have had the day before for supper.
