English Grocer's License.

The grocer's license is the means by which half the over stimulation among woman of the middle classes is affected. Women who would never condescend to ask their servants to fetch them spirits from the public-house and who dare not go for it there themselves can, quite compatibly with the strictest regard for respectability, order all they may require from the family grocer; and, if necessary, can have wine, brandy or other spirits entered in the pass-book, for the edification of their husbands, as tea, coffee or anything of the kind. For the confirmed over-stimulated, and for the helpless dipsomaniac there is no help but restraint. The Habitual Drunkards' bill must become law, so that these now hopeless victims may be kept from the temptation which they are powerless themselves to resist. Restraint is the only remedy for such women. They cannot conquer the irresistable craving for stimulation; and it is only by close confinement that this longing can be overcome. The over-stimulator has no control over herself; she will indulge, unless the opportunity for so doing be removed. She may promise, she may swear, to give up her stimulants; but she has no power to keep her promise. Such women must be protected for themselves; must be treated as if insane, and their mental infirmity recognized as a disease requiring treatment and control. Thus the habit will get broken, the craving for drink will cease, and the mind will become capable of realizing the course which was being pursued, and its penalties—the loathing of our fellow-creatures, continual misery and ill-health, and soon a premature grave." —Dr. Daly in the "Gentleman's Magazine."

A SURPRISE PARTY ON ICE.—Canada is the place for a thorough good sleigh ride. It matters little how odd and bizarre the runner is, all that is needed to make a ride enjoyable is to have it large enough to hold a good many people and small enough to have them well crowded together. Where can better sleighing be found? And our people enjoy it to the full. Given a snapping cold, clear, moonlight night, and a jolly party of men and women, mostly maidens and bachelors, plenty of buffalo or other robes, a driver who knows how near to run to embankments without tilting over, and just how near, so as to make every man clasp tight hold of his lady, an evening bright, and the voices of the songsters clear and musical, a warm parlor where the host and hostess are to be surprised, and where the party are to halt, and take lemonade with a stick in it, and broiled chicken, and huge joints of meat, and jolly sandwiches, and real good coffee, and substantial pies and cakes, and a merry dance, with all its soft nonsenses, and you have a real Canadian surprise party on runners, one of the olden time. Hurrah for such a sleigh ride! Then next day taper off with a few of DR. HERRICK'S SUGAR COATED PILLS and you are all as right as a trivet. But don't forget the pills!

BUCKLEN'S ARNICA SALVE.—The best Salve in the world for Cuts, Bruises, Sores, Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Chapped Hands, Chilblains, Corns, and all kinds of Skin Eruptions. This Salve is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction in every case or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by J. G. King, successor to E. H. Parker.

THERE WILL BE NO PARTING THERE.—Not if your hair continues to fall as it now does. Get without delay a bottle of Bearine, dress the hair often with it. Bearine stops the hair from falling off and assists nature to restore its natural vigor. Every Druggist sells it.

☞ NASAL CATARRH, (no matter of how long standing,) a cold in the Head or Throat, Difficult Breathing, Dizziness, Headache, Deafness, Watery Acrid and Purulent Discharges from the Head and Throat, Stopping, Clogging, Fullness, Ringing or Roaring Noises in the Head, Constant Dropping into the Throat, disagreeable Hemming, Hawking and Spitting, Offensive Breath, and Nasal Twang. Restores the sense of Smell. Strengthens the Eyes and Voice, Cleansing and Regulating the Organs of the whole Head and Throat. It gives Immediate Relief, and a few bottles will cure the worst cases. All we ask is a fair trial to convince the most skeptical.

DR. SVONY.—Dear Sir. I am to day truly thankful that you have brought to my notice your very simple and efficacious "Diamond Catarrh Remedy." For many years I have suffered from the Catarrh—the disease being brought on by a too persistent effort in singing. I had laid myself "on the shelf," having received no benefit from the various nauseous remedies which I had tried. A few trials of your remedy relieved my head at once, and now after a three months' trial I am able to sing with a clearness and ease that delighted and astonished me. I wish you great success and shall not fail to recommend it wherever I see a need of its use. Respectfully yours,

The Great Shoshonees Remedy.

The Great Shoshonees Remedy is an Indian vegetable compound composed of the juices of a variety of remarkable medicinal plants and herbs; the various properties of these different ingredients, when combined or so constituted as to act simultaneously upon the blood, Lungs, Liver, Kidneys, digestive Organs, Nervous System, &c., restoring their functions to healthy action, and being purely vegetable, is as harmless as nature's own beverage. This medicine is a decided benefit to all, and a permanent cure in a large majority of diseases of the blood, such as Scrofula, Erysipelas, Salt Rheum, Canker Pimples, &c. In prescribing this medicine we do not claim that it always performs cures; but this we do say, that it purifies and enriches the blood, permanently curing a large majority of diseases arising from its impurities. It stands far ahead and unequalled among the hundreds of competing medicines of the day. It has stood the test of ten years, and is to day more popular than ever. As a summer restorative it stands unrivalled; it enables the system to bear up against the constant drain to which it is subjected by a high temperature. Persons who are subject to bilious Colic, Dysentery, indigestion, &c., should take the Shoshonees Remedy. Price of the Remedy in pint bottles $1; Pills, 25cts. a box. Sold by all medicine dealers.

Mitchell's Belladonna Improved India Rubber Porous Plaster.—There has never been a time when the healing of so many different diseases has been caused by outward application as the present. Some even tell us they believe they were only cured by the use of them of a long seated consumption. Prepared by GEORGE E. MITCHELL, Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists.
