The Late Jos. Priddle

Mr. Joseph Priddle of the Centre Line, Osprey Township, died on Monday evening, April 15th, in Collingwood Hospital, to which place he had been removed last Wednesday to undergo an appendix operation . It appears that the appendix had ruptured before the operation was performed, but despite this fact the patient seemed to be making fair progress. The end came quite suddenly about seven o'clock, with little warning.

The deceased, who was born on the North Line, Osprey, over 66 years ago, had been a resident of the township during his whole life and was held in highest esteem by a large circle of friends. The announcement of his death, while not unexpected, came as a great shock to all. Son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Priddle, he had farmed on the Centre Line of Osprey for well over thirty years.

Living as he did close to the Mad River a great many fishermen from town were well acquainted with 'Joe" Priddle, and not a few of these have shared in his whole-hearted hospitality, particularly in the "horse and buggy days." Possessed of a jovial nature, it was always a pleasure to meet "Joe" Priddle, and his passing is deeply mourned by friends in town as well as in his home district.

Besides an adopted daughter, Mrs. Hilliard Lindsay, who with her husband has made her home with Mr. Priddle since the death of his wife (formerly Margaret Priddle), six brothers and one sister are left to mourn namely: John Henry and Albert in Dundalk; William in Osprey; Sidney in Proton; James at Hawarden, Sask.; Wilfred at Qu'Appelle, Sask., and Mrs. John Miller, Badgeros. A brother Sharels of Dundalk passed awey some years ago.

The funeral was held last Wednesday afternoon, with service in Badgeros United Church and interment in Badgeros Cemetery.—Dundalk Herald.

The Way It Used To Be

One of our correspondents tells of a young man who took his mother to a church meeting and then went to call on his lady. When mother was ready to go home, and son hadn't returned, she went down street, found the car parked, jumped in and drove to her rural home, leaving the boy to "hoof it" several miles after his visit was over. Mothers ain't as helpless as they used to profess to be.—Hanover Post.

The sun is rising a little earlier each morning. Not so the son.

Plotholders' Meeting

The annual meeting of the plotholders of the Flesherton Cemetery will be held in the town hall on Fri., May 3rd, at 8 o'clock p.m. It is urged that there be a large attendance of plotholders, as some very important questions are to be discussed.—F. J. Thurston, Sec.-Treas.
