RESULTS OF A REVIVAL.

A CONVERTED HUSBAND RUNS AWAY WITH THE CONVERTED WIFE OF AN UNREPENTANT SINNER.

Not very long ago a Gospel tent was pitched in a village not a hundred miles from Newmarket. The preachers were zealous; their labors were successful; and they had the gratification of finding that a genuine revival of religion had begun. The revival spread. It took hold of stragglers; it excited the villagers; it even emptied the churches. One minister had the misery of finding that his entire congregation had been swept into the gospel tent on the revival wave. The church was empty for several Sundays, and while the rivivalists were preaching to crowded and enthusiastic houses, the minister was looking to empty benches. His sorrow, however, had mingled with it one drop of joy. The excitement could not continue forever, it must subside, and when it did subside, people would return to the even tenor of their ways, no doubt wiser and better than ever. Presently the agitation did begin to flag and people went back to church and to business as before. Many, however, continued in the good path into which the revivalists had assisted to put them. Among these few were a lady and a gentleman—both married, but not to each other. The lady was 'another's' and the gentleman was, well, some one else's. But the 'another' to whom the lady was married and the 'some one else' with whom the gentleman had been, by legal process, made one, were among the few who had resisted the simple eloquence of revivalist preachers In other words, they were unconverted—and worse still, unrepentant. Their respective better halves endeavoured to persuade them to forsake their wicked ways, but without success. What were the good two to do: They could not conscientiously live with their wicked partners. It was their duty to shun even the appearance of evil. Accidentally they discovered a liking for one another. They told their loves, and determined to desert the individuals they had sworn to love and obey, if the said individuals did not desert their evil courses. The latter desertion did not take place, so the former was resorted to, and the people left the village. They have not been heard of since, and the unrepented but deserted husband and wife are searching anxiously for the converted but eloped wife and husband.

Murder Will Out.

A few years ago "August Flower" was discovered to be a certain cure for Dyspepsia and Liver Complaint, a few thin Dyspeptics made known to their friends how easily and quickly they had been cured by its use. The great merits of GREEN'S AUGUST FLOWER became heralded through the country by one sufferer to another, until, without advertising, its sale has become immense. Druggists in every town in Canada and the United States are selling it. No person suffering with Sour Stomach, Sick Headache, Costiveness, Palpitation of the Heart, Indigestion, Low Spirits, etc., can take three doses without relief. Go to your Druggist and get a bottle for 75 cents and try it. Sample bottles 10 cents.

☞ NASAL CATARRH, (no matter of how long standing,) a cold in the Head or Throat, Difficult Breathing, Dizziness, Headache, Deafness, Watery Acrid and Purulent Discharges from the Head and Throat, Stopping, Clogging, Fullness, Ringing or Roaring Noises in the Head, Constant Dropping into the Throat, disagreeable Hemming, Hawking and Spitting, Offensive Breath, and Nasal Twang. Restores the sense of Smell. Strengthens the Eyes and Voice, Cleansing and Regulating the Organs of the whole Head and Throat. It gives Immediate Relief, and a few bottles will cure the worst cases. All we ask is a fair trial to convince the most skeptical.

DR. EVORY.—Dear Sir. I am to day truly thankful that you have brought to my notice your very simple and efficacious "Diamond Catarrh Remedy." For many years I have suffered from the Catarrh—the disease being brought on by a too persistent effort in singing. I had laid myself "on the shelf," having received no benefit from the various nauseous remedies which I had tried. A few trials of your remedy relieved my head at once, and now after a three months' trial I am able to sing with a clearness and ease that delighted and astonished me. I wish you great success and shall not fail to recommend it wherever I see a need of its use. Respectfully yours,

WHAT THEY SAY OF IT! A FEW FACTS FOR THE PEOPLE.—There are but few preparations of medicines which have withstood the impartial judgment of the people for any great length of time. One of these is Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. Read the following and be convinced:—Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre, P.Q., writes, "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the last ten years, and have tried many remedies without any relief, until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, and since then have had no attack of it. I would recommend it to all."——A. H. Karl, Hotel Keeper, West Chefford, P.Q., writes—"I have been troubled with liver complaint for several years, and have tried different medicines with little or no benefit; until I tried Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil, which gave me immediate relie, and I would say that I have used it since with the best effect. No one should be without it. I have tried it on my horses in cases of cuts, wounds, etc., and think it equally as good for horse as for man."——A. Maybee, Merchant, Warkworth, writes, "I have sold some hundreds of bottles of Eclectric Oil, and it is pronounced by the public 'one of the best medicines they have ever used'; it has done wonders in healing and relieving pain, sore throats, etc., and is worthy of the greatest confidence."——Joseph Rusan, Township Percy, writes, "I was persuaded to try Dr Thomas' Eclectric Oil for a lame knee which troubled me for three or four years, and I never found anything like it for curing lameness. It is a public benefit."

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS.—Ask for Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil. See that the signature of S. N. Thomas is on the wrapper, and the names of Northrop and Lyman are blown in the bottle, and Take no other. Sold by all medicine dealers. Price 25 cents. NORTHRUP & LYMAN, Toronto, Ont., Proprietors for the Dominion.

NOTE.—Eclectric—Selected and Electrized

RINGWORM AND OLD CHRONIC SORES, of scrofulous origin, or resulting from whatever cause, yield to the American Eye Salve. It is used successfully for Piles. Its soothing effect is immediate, and a permanent cure requires but a few applications. The proprietors of "Dr. J. Pettit's American Eye-Salve," while making new and improved machinery for making a more perfect box for the Eye Salve, have changed the Trade Mark on the cover so as to correspond with the Cut on the Wrapper, Circulars, Advertisements, etc. We call attention to this, as it might otherwise be regarded as counterfeiting. MITCHELL'S BELLADONNA IMPROVED INDIA RUBBER POROUS PLASTERS are acknowledged by all who have used them to act quicker than any other Plasters they ever before tried, and that one of these Plasters will do more real service than a hundred of the ordinary kind. All other Plasters are slow of action, and require to be worn continually to effect a cure; but with these it is entirely different; the instant one is applied the patient will feel its effect. They possess all the soothing, warming, supporting and strengthening qualities of all other Plasters. Prepared by G. R. Mitchell, Lowell, Mass. Sold by all Druggists, and wholesale by Northrop & Lyman, Toronto

BENSON'S CAPCINE POROUS PLASTER.

Overwhelming evidence of their superiority over all other plasters. It is everywhere recommended by Physicians, Druggists and the Press.

The manufacturers received a special award and the only medal given for porous plasters at the Centennial Exposition, 1876 at the Paris Exposition, 18 8.

Their great merit lies in the fact that they are the only plasters which relieve pain at once.
